

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

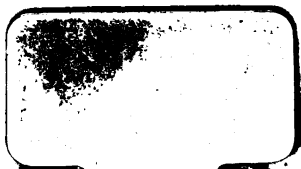

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Amongst the 12mo. and 8vo. Classes of the present Catalogue, as well as the larger sizes, there are many articles of Rarity and Interest. The examination therefore of those also, may, in some degree, repay the labour of any noble, or other eminent Collectors, of distinguished literary taste, for whom this Country is, perhaps above any other, remarkable.

The Supplement, or Appendix, is particularly rich in scarce articles.

The Titles of the Books are often, especially of the more scarce, copied at length, or nearly so. This will account for the style being frequently rather quaint, or antiquated.

To those who have not attended much to the study of Bibliography, this Catalogue may be interesting and useful, as containing descriptions of a variety of rare works, with the prices attached, and critiques on many of them, collected from our own most celebrated, as well as from Foreign, Bibliographers.

The Compiler living at a distance from the Press, several typographical errors have, he observes with regret, crept in. These, he believes, the candid reader will kindly excuse.

Descriptive Catalogue,

WITH

CRITICAL REMARKS,

AND

OCCASIONAL BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICES.

Books in the Learned and numerous other Foreign Languages, including a choice collection of Polyglot Bibles; Testaments, Works on Biblical Literature in general, scarce and valuable Editions of the Classics, and numerous Articles of great rarity and value, executed in the very Infancy of the Typographical Art.

FOLIO.

- 1 BIBLIA Sacra Polyglotta, complectentia Vetus Testamentum, Hebraico, Græco et Latino Idiomate; Novum Testamentum Græcum et Latinum, et Vocabularium Hebraicum et Chaldaicum Veteris Testamenti, cum Grammaticâ Hebraicâ, necnon Dictionario Græco: Studio, Operâ, et impensis Cardinalis; Francisci Ximenez de Cisneros: Industriâ Arnoldi Guiljelmî de Brocario artis impressorie Magistri, 6 vols. a fine set, calf, very neat, 58l.

Compluti. 1514-17

This celebrated Polyglot Bible of which Cardinal Ximenez was the promoter and patron, is commonly called the Complutensian. The Cardinal employed various learned men to compose it, and gave in those days 4000 Crowns, for seven M. S. S. of the Hebrew Bible. The entire expence of this magnificent production amounted to 50,000 Ducats, which was cheerfully defrayed by his liberality. This valuable work has the Hebrew, Latin and Greek in three distinct columns and a Chaldee Paraphrase, with a Latin Interpretation at the bottom of the page; the margin being filled with the Hebrew and Chaldee radicals. Of its intrinsic value, the learned Mills speaks in high terms. From the bull of Pope Leo affixed to the work, it appears that about 600 Copies were struck off, a small number exclaims Clement, and not sufficient for public Libraries! Michælis informs us (vol. 2, pt. 1, p. 442) that it is wanting in many of the public libraries in Germany, and was not for many years even in that of Gottingen. The late Munchhausen gave an order to his commissioner to bid as high as 900 florins (near £. 80 sterling) for a set. According to the preface of the Antwerp Polyglot, it appears to have been rare even at the end of the sixteenth century.

The present is an uncommonly fine and beautiful set, and includes the Lexicon, which is still more rare than the rest of the work.—See Dibdin, Dr. Clarke, Clement, &c.

- 2 Biblia Polyglotta Waltoni, 6 vols. large folio; and Castell's Lexicon, 2 vols. also large folio, with fine portrait of Walton by Lombart, and many other plates by Hollar, finely ruled throughout with red lines. Likewise Walton's Introductio ad Linguarum and the Considerator considered, 2 vols. 12mo, very scarce. In all 10 vols. neat in calf, 40l. Lond. 1657

This is what is called a royal copy: it is cut very large, and is in excellent preservation.

- 3 Biblia Polyglotta Waltoni, 6 vols.; and Castell's Lexicon, 2 vols., with heads of Walton and Castell, and all the plates by Hollar, a beautiful set, cut large; together with Walton's Introductio ad Linguarum and the Considerator considered, 2 vols.; and the Targum on the Books of Chronicles, published by Wilkins. In all 11 vols. viz. 8 large folio, 2 12mo, and 1 4to, neat in calf, 45l. ib. 1657

This set of the Polyglot is what is called a Republican copy, having the original dedication to Oliver Cromwell and his Ministers, &c. which, on the coming of Charles II. was cancelled, and very few copies in this state having been circulated, they are therefore exceedingly scarce, and consequently much valued by the curious.

- 4 Biblia Polyglotta Waltoni, 6 vols. large folio, with fine head of Walton, and plates by Hollar; a good set, cut large; four leaves of which, in the early part of the Book of Job, have small parts admirably supplied with fac-simile M. S. so as scarcely to be distinguishable from the letter-press, and may perhaps be considered rather as an ornament than otherwise to the work, 28l. 10s. ib. 1657

The present is also one of the rare copies called republican.

- 5 Biblia Sacra Polyglotta Waltoni, vols. 2, 3, 5, 6, and the prolegomena &c. of the first. The fifth volume contains the whole of the New Testament, with a fine portrait of Walton by Lombart, and other plates, 12l. 12s. Lond. 1657

In the above invaluable edition of the Holy Scriptures, by Dr. Brian Walton, there are nine distinct languages used. The work is also enriched with prefaces, prolegomena, treatises on weights and measures, geographical charts, and chronological tables. There never was but one edition, although the slight variations, occasioned through the cancelled leaves of the preface, gives rise, as before stated, to the terms of Republican and Loyal copies. Of the intrinsic excellence of this work the most eminent bibliographers have spoken in the highest terms of praise; and as it has been so often described, this notice shall be concluded with the following emphatic extract from Dibdin: to whom, as well as to Dr. Clark, Clement, &c. the reader is referred for extended and very interesting accounts.

“On this immortal work the voice of criticism has been uniformly favourable: no praise can transcend its merits.”

- 6 Biblia Hebraica, cum Vers. Lat. ac Not. Munsteri, 2 vols. a few leaves in the first volume slightly wormed, otherwise a fine copy, in vellum curiously embossed, 4l. 4s. Basil, 1546

- 7 Biblia Hebraica, ac Novum Testamentum Græcum, et Apocrypha, cum versionibus interlin. a Montano, a large fine copy, in the original pannel binding, with the sides curiously rolled, 2l. 18s.

Aelobrogum, excud. Pet. de la Rov. 1609

“The most useful of all Hebrew Bibles, for a person who understands any thing of Latin, is the Bibl. Heb. Interlin. of Montanus; as this work has a very literal translation interlined with the original: the Latin word being exactly over the Hebrew to which it belongs, the learner is in no danger of applying a wrong sense to any word in the text.”—Bibl. Dict.

- 8 Biblia Sacra Latina, Vulgatæ Editionis, with marginal references, and the Apocrypha and New Testament, complete in one thick volume, black letter, rare, 3l. 3s.

Nuremberg, per Ant. Koberger, Die 24 Mensis Martii, 1500

This fine specimen of early Typography has the initial letters tastefully inserted in colours; it is a remarkably good copy, very neat in the original pannel binding.

- 9 Biblia Germanica.—The Holy Bible in the German language, 3 vols. bound in one, a very fine copy, in the original pannel binding, with brass knobs, very rare, 2l. 10s.

Hanov. ap. J. Hamborch, 1590

This is altogether a remarkable book. The titles of the 3 vols. are beautifully printed in large ornamented red and black letters, and surrounded with very curious wood engravings on scripture subjects. The whole work is printed throughout in compartments; the initial letters large, and finely cut: besides this, it has 169 very fine and large curious wood engravings throughout the several volumes, which comprise the Old and New Testament, together with the Apocrypha.

- 10 Novum Testamentum Græcum, a remarkably fine large copy,
2 vols. in one, very neat in calf extra, 2l. 2s.

Lutet. ex officina R. Steph. 1550

- 11 Another Set, particularly fine, and handsomely bound in 2 vols. red morocco extra, 2l. 12s. 6d. ib. 1550

The above two copies are "the splendid and critical edition of R. Stephens, which has so justly excited the admiration of the curious and learned. It contains various readings in the margin from 16 M. S. S. including the complutensian edition, and the text is allowed to be not only more correct than the foregoing editions, but to be the parent of all subsequent ones. Its exterior splendour and intrinsic excellence have not only been acknowledged by every bibliographer, but its celebrity has placed Stephens, the editor as well as printer, on a footing with the most distinguished literary characters in Europe."—Dibdin.

- 12 Novum Testamentum Græcum; una cum scholiis Græcis a Gregorio, beautiful copy, calf neat, completely interleaved with fine wove writing paper, 18s. Oxon. 1703

- 13 Another Set, very fine, in old calf, 15s. ib. 1703

- 14 Novum Testamentum Græcum, cum variis lectionibus, &c. curâ J. Millii, beautiful copy, with frontispieces and head pieces finely engraved from designs by Sir J. Thornhill; LARGE PAPER, very neat in vellum, 3l. 3s. ib. 1707

"This is undoubtedly one of the most magnificent publications that ever appeared; and if we except the edition of Wetstein, probably the most critical and important one of the sacred Text." Dibdin.

The present is printed on fine thick paper, and copies of this description are very scarce.

- 15 Novum Testamentum Græcum variant. lect. et comment. curâ Wetstenii, 2 vols. a beautiful set, elegant in russia, marbled leaves, 10l. 10s. Amstel. 1751

- 16 Another Set, particularly fine, 2 vols. new and very neat in white vellum, 9l. 9s. ib. 1751

"All former editions of the Greek Testament were surpassed by that of John James Wetstein. The learned Michælis says that it is of all editions of the Greek Testament the most important, and the most necessary to those who are engaged in sacred criticism, and Dr. Marsh, the translator of Michælis, and, perhaps, the best judge now living of the merits of such a work, calls it by the emphatic appellation of "the invaluable book."—Butler's Hora Biblica.

- 17 Novum Testamentum Græcum, e. Codice M. S. Alexandrino a Woide, good copy, sewed, uncut, but wants 2 leaves, viz. second of 2 I, and first of 3 K, 1l. 14s.

Lond. 1786

The above is a fac-simile or imitation of the famous Alexandrian M. S., and is finely printed on imperial paper.

- 18 Psalterium Polyglotton, Heb. Gr. Arab. et Chald. cum tribus Latinis interpretationibus et glossis, a Justiniano, a fine copy, very neat in calf extra, 3l. 18s. Genoa, 1516

"The above is the first polyglot Psalter ever printed. Besides containing the Heb. Arab. Chald. and Greek, it has Latin versions, glosses and scholia, which last occupy the 8th column. Copies in fine condition are very scarce."—See Dibdin and Dr. Clark. It is likewise curious from being the very first Polyglot work ever attempted.

- 19 Auli Gellii, Noctes Atticæ, a little stained, but quite perfect, handsomely bound in brown calf, 4l. 14s. 6d.

Venet. ap. And. Catharensis, 1477

This is a rare and beautiful work.—See Dibdin and Clement. As long ago as at the Pinelli sale, a copy sold for 6l. 16s. 6d.

- 20 Aulus Gellius, good copy of a rare edition, with a curiously engraved title page and colophon, neat in calf, 1l. 11s. 6d.

Venice, Jo. de Tridino, 1496

This edition appears to have been unknown to De Bure and Harwood. Fabricius and Ernesti have supposed that the edition of 1509, by De Tridino, was the first edition which contained the summary or arguments of the eighth book which is lost. This early edition, however, of 1496, contains them.

- 21 Augustini Sancti Liber Epistolarum, good and very large copy, 9l. 9s. Argent. typ. Mentellianis, circa 1470

The above is the EDITIO PRINCEPS, of great rarity, and little known.—See Santander, who does not refer to any copy having ever occurred for sale in any public or private library.

- 22 Augustini S. Aurelij de Civitate Dei, libri 22, cum commentariis Th. Valois et Nicolai Trivet, in the original vellum binding, exceedingly rare, 9l. 10s.

Moguntia, per Petrum Schoeffer de Gernsheim, 1473

This is the first edition with a Commentary. The present is a large and beautiful copy, some of the leaves being uncut; it has 5 or 6 leaves from chap. 26 to chap. 29, very neatly supplied by M. S. in a fine ancient hand.

It does not appear that Earl Spencer is in possession of a copy of this edition, but a printed note is inserted in the Bibl. Spencer. stating that such an edition is in existence. A copy sold at the Duke de la Valliere's sale for 381 Livres (nearly £.16 sterling).

- 23 Augustini Aurelii Opuscula plurima; viz. Meditationes, Soliloquia, Enchiridion, etc. de Doctrina Christiani, in black letter, very good copy, with large margins, in the original pannel binding, rare, 1l. 10s. Argent. 1491

- 24 Astexani sive Astesani de Ast, Summa de casibus conscientia, an uncommonly fine and clean copy without a single stained leaf, with the Capitals tastefully ornamented, 8l. 8s. Argent. typ. Mentellianis, circa 1470

This extremely rare work does not appear in the Bibl. Spen. nor has a copy yet occurred for sale amongst the great public or private collections which have been sold in this country. The present was recently purchased on the Continent.

- 25 Aristotelis Philosophia, cum commentariis, wants three leaves. Paris, H. Steph. 1510.—Valle Laurentii Dialectice, fine copy, neat, 10s. 6d. Ap. Ascensianis, 1500

- 26 Athanasii Episcopi Alexandrini opera. Argent. 1522.—Theophylacti Archiepiscopi Bulgariae in quatuor Evangelia enarrationes denuo recognite, a good copy in the original pannel binding, with curiously engraved frontispieces.

- 27 Aquinas (Thomæ) Summa Theologiae, good copy, handsomely half bound in brown calf, 1l. 11s. 6d.

Venet. ap. Jenson, 1480

The above is a beautiful specimen of early typography, and is in excellent preservation.

- 28 Appiani Alexandrini Romanarum Historiarum, EDITIO PRINCEPS, in vellum, 1l. 11s. 6d.

Lutetia, Car. Steph. 1551

The name of Charles Stephens does not often occur in bibliography, and those who cherish scarce works, will do well to treasure the productions of this elegant scholar and printer. According to Chevillier (p. 259), C. Stephens published but two works in the Greek language:—the present edition of Appian, and a quarto Greek Testament in 1553.

- 29 Arrianus de expeditione Alexandri Magni Historiarum Libri VIII., Gr. et Lat. Vulcanii Brug. nova interpretatione, very fine copy, in ancient binding, 15s.
Excud. H. Steph. 1575
- 30 Angeloni L' Historia Augusta da Giulio, Cesare a Constantino il magno, seconda impressione e descritti Bellori, with numerous plates of medals, in vellum, 18s. Romæ, 1685
- 31 Budæi Annotationes in Pandectas. Paris, 1535.—Budæus de Philologia et de studio literarum instituendo, with a curiously engraved title-page, fine copy, neatly half bound, very scarce, 18s.
Paris, 1536
- 32 Budæi Commentarii Græcæ Linguæ Gr. et Lat. fine copy, 1l. 18s.
ib. 1548
- “The commentaries of Budæus have been justly held in respect by all his successors; his erudition and research have formed the basis of almost every subsequent lexicographical work. The student will therefore derive much useful information from any of these editions; but the present is the most beautiful.”—Dibdin.
- Budæus* was born in Paris A. D. 1467. Erasmus calls him the prodigy of France; he was a person of great talents and learning. H. Stephens, in his Thesaurus, refers to Budæus in almost every page.
- 33 Beschryvinge van Amsterdam; or History and Description of Amsterdam, in the Dutch Language, including an Account of the surrounding Country, with about 140 large and small fine engravings of the most interesting views, public buildings, streets, &c. in Amsterdam, 2 vols. LARGE PAPER, a remarkably fine set, elegantly bound in calf gilt, 1l. 18s.
Amst. 1726
- 34 Bortachini Repertor. Alphabet. de firmo utriusque Juris, a fine specimen of early typography, wants the title, 18s.
- 35 Bellori le antiche lucerne sepolcrali, figurate, raccolte delle cave solterance e grotte di Roma, with 114 beautiful engravings of busts, gems, &c. by Bartoli, morocco, 2l. 2s.
Roma, 1691
- 36 Bedæ Historia Ecclesiastica Sax. et Lat. cura et studio Johannis Smith, LARGE PAPER, neat in calf, 3l. 10s. Cant. 1722

37 Biel (Gabrielis) Inventarum generale, super quatuor libros sententiarum, good copy, in the original pannel binding, 1l. 1s. Lugd. 1514

38 Bonaventuræ (Sancti) Meditationes vitæ et passionis Jesu Christi, good copy, though slightly stained in some places, elegant in calf, 8l. 8s.

Augustæ Vindelicorum, Gunth. Zeyner, 1468

Santander styles this edition "infiniment rare," and observes that it is much more precious on account of its being the very first work printed in the city of Augsburg, which bears a certain date and name of printer.

39 Bonifacii Decretalium Compilatio, cum glossis, with ornamented capitals and curious wood cuts of genealogies, a little wormed, otherwise a fine specimen of early printing, 18s. Paris, ap. Uld. Gering et Rembolt, 1506

40 Ciceronis Opera, 2 vols. fine copy, neat, 3l. 3s.

Lutet. ap. Bad. Ascen. 1527

EDITIO SECUNDA; and the first edition printed and edited by Badus Ascensius.

41 Ciceronis Opera Omnia, cum Commentariis Aldi Manutii, 10 vols. bound in 4, a very fine set, neat in vellum, exceedingly scarce, with the original portraits, &c. of the Aldusses, 5l. 5s. Venet. ap. Aldum, 1582

Renouard says "when this edition is found complete and in good condition, it is much sought after." The Dedication of the Times, in this edition, is addressed to the famous Crichton, which Dr. Kippis seems not to have known when he wrote the life of that remarkable man in the Biograph. Britannica.

"The dedication is exquisitely pathetic." Bibl. Diet.

The work is a re-union of the Aldine editions which had been printed separately, and the last of importance which issued from the press of the younger Aldus.

42 Ciceronis Opera Omnia, cum Notis et variis Lectionibus, cura Lambini et Gothofredi, 4 parts in one, a remarkably fine copy, with a copious index and numerous marginal references, neat in white vellum, scarce, 1l. 18s. Chouet, 1634

The above is a scarce and very finely printed book. Each page is in double columns; by which means, and being printed in a small but distinct type, the whole of this learned author's works are comprised in this one volume. The title is within a curious and fine wood engraving compartment. The present copy formerly belonged to the celebrated Steph. Blancardus, whose name appears neatly written on the title page, with the date 1674.

Didac. in his Classics, says that Gothofredus has notes of former commentators, but especially of Lambinus, whose critical abilities (says the same ingenious bibliographer), well fitted him for the office of editor of Cicero.

43 Ciceronis Epistolares Familiares, cum Notis et Commentariis Scoppæ et Robortelii, old morocco, 12s. 6d. Paris, 1549

Venet. ap. Jenson, 1471

This edition was unknown to Fabricius, but is stated by Clement to be "more beautiful and magnificent than the edition of Sweynheym and Pannartz, 1472, and also equally rare."

The present copy is so exceedingly beautiful that a finer one, it is presumed, if one so fine, can hardly be expected to exist.

45 Castelli Lexicon, vol. I, good copy, but wants the title and preface, 1l. 18s.

46 Corpus Juris Civilis, cum D. Gothofredi et aliorum notis, 2 vols. fine set, very neat in calf, 5l. 5s.

Amst. ap. Bleau et Elzev. 1663

A beautiful and celebrated edition, which contains the notes of some authors not in other editions.

47 Chrysostomi (S. Johannis) Sermones de patientia Job, et aliquot de pœnitentia, latinè, Lelio Tifernate interprete, a remarkably fine copy, elegant in calf, 9l. 9s.

Norimbergæ, 1471

This edition is of the greatest rarity, and has the advantage of being the first with a certain date, which proves the antiquity of its impression. Santander.

48 Cocceii Opera Omnia, Theologica, Exegetica, Didactica, Polemica, Philologica, with plates, 12 vols. EDIT. OPT. a fine set, very neat in white vellum, 9l. 9s. Amst. 1750

49 Chronicon Nurembergense, cum figuris et imaginibus ab initio Mundi, good copy and perfect, except a few leaves of the index wanting, which are neatly supplied by M. S., calf extra, 9l. 9s. Nuremberg, Koberger, 1493

This book contains upwards of two thousand wood cuts, engraved in a most spirited manner; and in this copy they are all coloured. It is altogether a remarkable volume, being the history of the world, both sacred and profane, from the earliest time to the period of its data. In the Bibl. Spenc. no less than nineteen pages are occupied in the description of this truly singular book.

- 50 Codex Theodori Bezæ Cantabrigiensis, Evangelia et Apostolorum Acta Complectens, quadratis literis Græco-Latinis. Edente T. Kipling, S. T. P. IMPERIAL PAPER, a most splendid work, 2 vols. a fine set, half bound russia, 6l. 18s.
Cantab. 1793

The types employed in printing this superb book, were cast for the purpose of imitating the character of the original M. S. which is in the public library at Cambridge. Only 250 copies were printed.

- 51 Cartusien de Precipuis Festivitatibus et Dynckens puel de Passione dni. nri. Jhesu Christi, 2 vols. in one, Gothic Letter, in the most beautiful condition and original binding, 10l. 10s. No date, but lettered on the back 1453

The imperfect shape of the letters and the very rude stile of printing, with want of pages &c. is sufficient proof that those two rare works were executed in the infancy of printing, but most probably the date on the binding is somewhat erroneous.

- 52 Clementis Alexandrini Opera, Gr. et Lat. à Heinsio et Silbergio, good copy, 1l. 1s. Paris, 1629

The Parisian edition of 1629 is well printed, and is, upon the whole, a very respectable edition of a very learned and judicious writer." Bibl. Dict.

- 53 Concordantia Majoris cum Declinabilium (or Concordance to the Vulgate Bible) utriusque Instrumentum cum indeclinabilium Dictionum, Black Letter, scarce, neat in vellum, 18s. Basil. ap. Froben, 1521

- 54 Diodorus Siculus, Wesselingii, 2 vols. a remarkably fine set, with very large margins, handsomely bound in calf, 7l. 7s. Amst. 1746

"The splendour and critical excellence of all editions" says Harles, "are eclipsed by this of Peter Wesseling, which contains every thing to be found in preceding ones: and besides a learned preface, useful notes and various illustrations of the author, presents us with the readings of various M. S. S. and very full and perfect indexes."

"It is now very rare and dear." Dibdin.

- 55 Dionysii Harlicanassis, Antiquitatum Romanorum, libri decem, a Lappo Birago in latinum sermonem traducti, a few leaves at the end slightly wormed, otherwise a fine copy, handsomely half bound, 3l. 13s. 6d.

Tavisi, Bernardinus Celerius de Luere, 1480

This edition is exceedingly rare. It appears that the beautiful and extensive library of Earl Spencer, and some other choice collections do not contain a copy. It was printed 66 years before the EDITIO PRINCEPS in Greek. A Copy was sold, as long ago as at Dr. Asken's sale, for 5l. 10s.

- 56 Daniel Secundum Septuaginta ex Setraplis Origines, very fine copy, uncut, 18s. Rom. 1772

A work held in high estimation by our most profound scholars.

- 57 Demosthenis Opera Omnia Græce, cum Ulpiani comment. some of the leaves a little stained, otherwise a good copy, neatly half bound, 2l. 2s.

Paris, ap. Dupuys et Benenat. 1570

"This edition is a beautiful and excellent one, taken chiefly from the first of Hervægius." Dibdin.

- 58 Demosthenis Opera, Wolfiis, cum commentariis Ulpiani, FIRST EDITION, 3 vols. in one, fine copy, neatly half bound in green morocco, 1l. 6s. Basil. ap. Oporin. 1572

The above is a Latin translation of the works of Demosthenes, by Wolfe, and was intended as a companion to his edition of the same author in Greek.

- 59 Dion Cassius, Gr. et Lat. Leunclavii, good copy, old calf, 1l. 10s. Hanov. 1606

"This is a very valuable work, with the critical notes of Leunclavius, and the version of Xylander, published by the same editor." Dibdin.
A copy was sold at Bridges' sale for 2l. 9s.

- 60 Dactyliothea Smithiana, curâ A. F. Gorii, with 100 plates of Heathen Deities, Roman Emperors, &c. finely engraved, 2 vols. a very fine and large set, calf extra, 3l. 3s.

Venet. 1767

Joseph Smith, Esq. the proprietor of the gems from which these engravings were made, was British Consul at Venice; and the work is dedicated by the publisher, J. B. Pasquali, to King George the third, of whom a fine portrait is prefixed, when about 27 years of age.

- 61 Eusebii Pamphili Preparationis Evangelicæ lib. XV. et Demonstrationis Evangelicæ lib. X. gr. EDITIO PRINCEPS, 2 vols. in one, a most beautiful copy, with remarkably large margins, very neat, 2l. 2s. Lutet. R. Steph. 1544-5

An excellent edition. Bibl. Dict.

- 62 Eusebii Pamphili, Ruffini, Socratis, Theodoriti, Sezomeni, Theodori, Evagrii, et Dorothei, Ecclesiasticæ Historiæ: being a complete collection of the Ecclesiastical Historians, translated into Latin by Wolfgang Musculus, and edited by Gryneus, calf neat, 14s. 6d. Basil. 1591

- 63 Eusebii Pamphili Historia Ecclesiastica, Gr. et Lat. a Valesio, fine large copy, calf neat, 1l. 4s. Paris, 1659

- 64 Euclidis Elementa Græce, cum Procli commentariis, EDITIO PRINCEPS, three leaves at the end a little stained, otherwise a beautiful copy, half bound, 3l. 3s. Basil. ap. Ervæg. 1533

The Editio Princeps of Euclid, with the Commentaries attached, is a very rare book.

- 65 Gregorii IX. Decretalium Compilatio, cum glossis, good copy, in the original binding, 1l. 11s. 6d. Paris, ap. Uld. Gering et Rembolt, 1507

Uld. Gering was the first printer in Paris. The present is a fine specimen of early typography.

- 66 Gregorii IX. Decretalium Compilatio, cum glossis, a little stained, 1l. 1s. Venet. ap. Bap. de Tortis, circa 1490

- 67 Gregorii IX. Decretalium Compilatio, cum glossis, fine copy, in the original binding, with clasps, 18s. No date, or printer's name.

- 68 Germipolitani Homiliæ in Evangelia, good copy, in the original binding, with clasps, 10s. 6d. Colon. 1550

- 69 Homeri Opera Omnia, Gr. et Lat. cum commentariis Spondani, good copy, old calf gilt, 14s. Basil. 1583

- 70 Homeri Odyssea, 2 vols. a remarkably fine set, sewed, uncut, 1l. 18s. Glasguæ, Foulis, 1758

"One of the most splendid editions of Homer ever delivered to the world," says Harwood, "and I am informed that its accuracy is equal to its magnificence." The reader, on perusing the preface, will see with what pains this sumptuous work was executed: each sheet, before it was finally committed to the press, was six times corrected by various literary men. See De Bure.

- 71 Hieronymi Sancti liber Epist. et Tract. fine copy, handsomely half bound, 1l. 4s.

The above curious work is without date or name of printer, but appears from the execution to be one of the early editions of this celebrated author, perhaps between the years 1470 and 1480. It has a very curious title page in large church text, and a fine folio wood engraving on the back of it.

See Affo dell' Typogr. Parma, Sect. 15, p. 72.

"St. Jerome or Hieronymus was born at Stridon, on the confines of Dalmatia, about A. D. 340. He devoted himself to the study of the Heb. Ling. at Jerusalem, and then went to Antioch where he was raised to the priesthood by Paulinus, bishop of that city. He afterwards retired to the monastery at Bethlehem, where he employed himself in translating the Heb. Bible, and died there, A. D. 420, aged 80. Jerome is certainly one of the most useful of the primitive Fathers, whether Greek or Latin; and his works are considered to be very valuable. Bibl. Dict.

74 Horatii Opera, Ascensii, fine copy, neat in calf, 4l. 4s. Paris, 1519

"This splendid and uncommon edition contains the commentaries of Acron, Porphyrio, Mancinellus, and Ascensius himself; with some notes of Bonifinus and Aldus Manutius." Dibdin.

75 Horatii Opera omnia, cum commentariis variorum, viz. Erasmus, Aldus Manutius, Politianus, Sabellicus, Servius, Petrus, &c. fine copy, neat in calf, 1l. 5s. Basil. 1545

A very rare edition. See Dibdin.

76 Horatii Opera, Lambini, good copy, calf neat, 1l. 8s. Francof. ap. Wiechel, 1596

"Dionysius Lambinus, 'magnus Horatius sospitator,' was a scholar and critic of no ordinary power and acuteness; his editions, which marked a new era in Horatian criticism, have deservedly met with universal applause. He was unquestionably one of the most excellent editors of the Greek and Roman Classics." Dibdin.

77 Hippocratis Opera Gr. a Cornario, EDITIO SECUNDA, a beautiful copy, with large margins, and some curious ancient M. S. notes, brown calf extra, 1l. 6s. Basil. ap. Froben, 1538

78 Historia Augusta da Giulio Cæsare a Constantino il magno, a Bellori, with many fine engravings of medals and coins, good copy, in vellum, 1l. 1s. Roma, 1635

- 79 Hager's Explanation of the elementary characters of the Chinese; with an analysis of their ancient symbols and hieroglyphics; together with the elements of Chinese writing, (published at 2l. 2s. bds.) half bound russia extra, uncut, 1l. 10s. Lond. 1801

This is the only work on the elements of the Chinese language ever published in this country.

- 80 Hilarii Pictavorum Episcopi Opera, per Erasmus, good copy, old calf, 1l. 1s. Basil. 1570

The capitals of the above volume are of a large size and finely engraved: at page 668 is a beautiful engraving, size one inch and three-quarters square, by the celebrated Albert Durer, representing Corialanus, Veturia, &c.

Hilary Bishop of Poictiers died in 368. St. Jerome stiles him "Latinæ Eloquentiæ Rhodanus."

- 81 Isocratis Opera, Gr. et Lat. Wolfii, best edition, a few leaves slightly wormed, otherwise a good copy, neat in calf, 1l. 18s. Basil. 1570

"The merits of Wolfe are considerable: he has corrected the Greek text from the Fuggerianian M. S. and examined all the ancient editions down to the Editio Princeps. His conjectures are frequently happy, and his corrections judicious, though he sometimes deviates from the authority of the old editions. The folio edition of 1570 may be called the edit. opt." Dibdin.

- 82 Isocratis Orationes et Epistolæ, et Aristides, Gr. et Lat. curis H. Wolfii, H. Stephani, et J. Canteri, a remarkably fine copy, very neat in brown calf, 1l. 12s. H. Steph. 1593

- 83 Justiniani, Justinii Leonis novellæ constitutiones, Justiniani edicta, ex biblioth. Huldrici Fuggeri, Gr. stud. et dilig. H. Scrimgeri scoti, good copy, neat, 12s. 6d.

Excud. H. Steph. 1558

- 84 Justiniani Historia Rerum Venetarum, ab urbe condita ad annum M,DLXXV, neat in calf, 12s. 6d. Argent. 1611

- 85 Justinii Sancti Philosophi et Martyris Opera, Gr. et Lat. with fine portrait, good copy, 1l. 12s. Paris, 1615

The above was once the copy of the learned Dr. Harwood, whose autograph is finely executed on the title page. It has also various marginal notes, supposed to have been made by the Doctor.

- 86 Justinii Philosophi et Martyris Opera, Gr. et Lat. with portrait, good copy, 18s. 6d. Colon. 1686

- 87 Jamblichus de Mysteriis Ægyptiorum, Chaldæorum, et Assyriorum, necnon et alii Tractatus Philosophici, EDITIO PRINCEPS, fine copy, calf neat, 3l. 13s. 6d.
Venet. in ædil. Ald. 1497
- 88 Another Copy, a few leaves slightly stained, otherwise very good, calf neat, 2l. 2s. ib. 1497
"A rare and beautiful edition." Renouard.
- 89 Jamblichus de Mysteriis Ægyptiorum, &c. Gr. et Lat. à Gale, good copy, neat, 14s. 6d. Oxon. 1678
- 90 Josephi Opera, Gr. et Lat. fine copy, neat, 14s. 6d.
Genev. 1634
- 91 Josephi Opera Omnia, Gr. et Lat. curâ Hudsoni, LARGE PAPER, 2 vols. a beautiful set, half bound, uncut, 5l. 5s.
Oxon. 1720
- 92 Another Copy, vol. 2, 18s. ib. 1720
"It is rarely that praise goes beyond that offered by Oberthür, in this beautiful edition, which ranks in the very first class of variorum classics in folio. Copies on large paper are very rare and dear, as well as magnificent." Dibdin.
- 93 Kennicotti dissertatio generalis in Vet. Test. Hebraicum, cum variis lectionibus, ex Cod. M. S. new, bds. 10s. 6d.
Oxon. 1780
 The above is necessary to complete Kennicott's Hebrew Bible.
- 94 Kircheri Concordantiæ Græcæ Versiones LXX. Interpretum, 2 vols. good set, neat in calf, 1l. 4s. Francof. 1607
- 95 Lightfooti Opera omnia, a Leusdeno, best edition, containing his posthumous works, frontispiece and vignette, 2 vols. a fine set, neat in vellum, 2l. 10s. Ultraject. 1699
"John Lightfoot was born at Stoke, in Staffordshire, in 1602. He was a man of uncommon learning and of the most amiable disposition. By his deep researches into the rabbinical writings, he has done more to illustrate the sacred writings, and to explain the various customs &c. alluded to, particularly in the New Testament, than any author before or since. This eminent and pious writer and critic died in 1675. Bibl. Dict.
- 96 Ludolphi Saxonis, vel Carthusiani, Vita Jesu Christi, a beautiful copy, with large margins, many of the leaves being uncut, 3l. 3s. Colon. 1487

This was the copy of the celebrated W. Herbert, editor of Amer's Typographical Antiquities, whose autograph it bears.

- 97 Lucani Pharsalia, cum duobus commentis ab Omn. Leonicensino et Sulp. Verulano, very rare, fine copy, calf extra, 2l. 2s. Venet. impres. Sim. Bevilacqua, 1498

- 98 Martini Questiones Morales, good copy, very rare, morocco, 1l. 11s. 6d. Paris, 1489

- 99 Oratorum Veterum Orationes, Gr. et Lat. a fine large copy, very neat, 1l. 12s. Excud. H. Steph. 1575

- 100 Ovidii Metamorphoseon, cum commentariis et figuris pulcherrimis, neat in calf, 1l. 1s. Lug. Bat. 1510

"A rare and beautiful edition, and the first with wood cuts, which are very well executed." Bibl. Dict.

- 101 Origenis Homiliæ, Lat. containing the 16 homilies on Genesis—the 13 on Exodus—the 28 on Numbers—the 16 on Leviticus—the 26 on Joshua—and the 8 on Judges—slightly stained, otherwise a good copy, very rare, 1l. 12s. Venet. in ædil. Aldi, 1503

- 102 Origenis Opera omnia, Lat. ex variis antiq. interpretationibus edita, studio Jac. Merlini, cura Gnrl. Paroy. Vol. 3 and 4, containing the discourses on Matthew—the 39 homilies on Luke—the 10 homilies on select parts of Matthew and Mark—the 10 books on the Epistles to the Romans—the Periarchon in 4 books—and contra Celsum—fine copy, neat in calf, 1l. 1s.

Paris. J. Pavus, et Jod. Bad. Ascen. 1512

Those works of the celebrated and pious Origen, contained in these three volumes, with the exception of 'contra Celsum,' exist only in the Latin language, the Greek originals being lost."

Succession of Sacred Literature.

- 103 Pacificatores Orbis Christiani; a collection of 131 Portraits of Noble Personages, engaged in the Congress at Osnaburg, finely engraved by Matham, P. de Jode, C. Galle, &c. the finest Dutch engravers, LARGE PAPER, uncut, 4l. 14s. 6d.

- 104 Poli Synopsis Criticorum Aliorumque S. Scripturæ Interpretum, 5 vols. good set, neat, 4l. 10s. Lond. 1673

- 105 Philestrati Opera, Gr. et Lat. a Fed. Morello, fine copy, old calf, 18s. Paris, 1608

- 106 Plinii Secundi Historia Naturalis, ex recensione Nicolai Perotti, a few of the leaves a little stained, and the first initial letter cut out, otherwise a fine copy, with very large margins, 5l. 5s. Romæ, ap. Sweynh. et Pannar. 1473

This edition is very rare, and much sought after by the curious. A copy sold at Laire's sale, for 272 francs (above 11l sterling). Santander.

- 107 Plinii Historia Naturalis, very rare, without catchwords or pages numbered, a fine large copy, red morocco, gilt leaves, 5l. 5s. Tarvisii, 1479

- 108 Plinii Secundi Epistolæ, cum commentariis Catanæi, with curious cuts, good copy, half bound, very neat, 1l 4s. Venet. ap. Jo. Rub. Vercellecem 1519

- 109 Plutarchi Vitæ, Gr. ex recogn. F. Asulani, &c. very rare, fine copy, neatly half bound, 2l. 10s. Venet ap. Ald. 1519

- 110 Plutarchi Moralia, Gr. et Lat. Xylandro, stained, calf neat, 16s. Francof. 1620

- 111 Postilla Nicolai de Lira super Psalterium, una cum Hymnis et Canticis, black letter, calf neat, 15s. Lugd. 1519

"Nicholas de Lyra, a converted Jew, flourished about the year 1320. He appears to have been the first who wrote a complete commentary on the Bible; and he corrected many passages in the Vulgate version, according to the true sense of the Hebrew Text." Bibl. Dict.

- 112 Pellicani Commentar. Bibliorum, 2 vols. bound in one, good copy, calf neat, 1l. 4s. Tiguri, 1536-8

- 113 Rymeri Fœdera Conventiones Liter. et cujusunque Generis Acta Publica, with engravings, 20 vols. best edition, bds. uncut, 20l. Lond. Tonson, 1727, &c.

- 114 Rationale Divinorum, good copy, in the original binding, 1l. 4s. Argent. 1498

This is a fine specimen of early typography; and appears to be the famous work written by Will. Durand, which was first printed by Faust, at Mentz,

- 115 Sigonii Fasti Consulares, et triumphi acti a Romulo rege, usque ad Cæsarem, cum commentariis, with 15 fine spirited portraits, drawn in chalk, the size of the book, old morocco, curiously gilt, 1l. 6s. Hanov. 1609

- 116 Suid. Lexicon, Gr. EDITIO PRINCEPS, elegant in russia, gilt leaves, 7l. 7s. Mediolani, 1499

A magnificent book, and held in great estimation. This first edition contains a dialogue not to be found in any of the subsequent ones. See Bibl. Spenc. for a minute description, and Beloe's Anecd. of Lit. vol. 1, where the Dialogue is extracted. The present is an admirable copy, finely ruled throughout with red lines; and may be safely pronounced almost matchless. As long ago as at Dr. Askew's sale, a copy sold for 8l.

- 117 Sabellici Marci Antonini Eneades, ab Urbe condito ad Inclinationem Romani Imperii, 2 vols. a very large copy, neat in vellum, 3l. 3s. Venice, 1497

- 118 Another Copy, part 1, EDITIO PRINCEPS, the first leaf in MS. finely written, 18s. ib. 1487

- 119 Scapulæ Lexicon, Gr. et Lat. cum Indice Lat., EDIT. OPT., with Dr. Askew's Appendix, stained copy, neatly half bound in russia, 6l. 10s. Lug. Bat. ap. Elzev. 1652

"The editions of 1652 are most esteemed, and sell at a very high price, from their extraordinary rarity. In the year 1789 was published an Appendix to Scapula's Lexicon, in 8vo, from a MS. formerly in the possession of Dr. Askew. It is a work of great utility and repute: the second page contains an elegant inscription in Greek capitals to the memory of the Doctor." Dibdin.

- 120 Simonetæ Commentarii rerum gestarum Francisci Sportizæ, &c. EDITIO SECUNDA, fine large copy, 18s. Mediolani, ap. Zarottum, 1486

- 121 Stephani Concordantia in Novum Testamentum, Gr. et Lat. EDIT. OPT. good copy, neat in calf, 18s. Geneva, 1524

- 122 Another Copy, FIRST EDITION, neat in calf, 12s. 6d. Basil. 1521

- 123 Strabonis Geographia, Lat. a Xylandro, with maps, good copy, neat in calf, 18s. ib. 1571

- 124 Suetonii Tranquilli Duodecim Cæsares, et in eos Torrentii Commentariis, with a frontispiece and plates of coins, fine copy, 18s. 6d. Antwerp, 1578

"The notes in this edition are very valuable." Bibl. Dict.

- 125 Stephani Thesaurus Gr. Ling., cum appendice, 5 vols. bound in 4, a good set, old calf neat, 18l. 10s. Genev. et Paris, 1572

"Of Lexicographers," says Lord Monboddo, "Henry Stephens is the most eminent, who has, with infinite labour, compiled a Greek Dictionary, which he very properly entitles 'Thesaurus Græcæ Linguae,' out of which have been made all the Greek Dictionaries of any value since his time." Origin and Progress of Language, vol. 5, pa. 273-4.

"The Thesaurus of Stephens is a work of prodigious labour and extraordinary merit, and has certainly borne away the palm from every other composition of this kind." Bibl. Dict.

126 Thuani Historia sui Temporis, 5 vols. in 4, a remarkably fine set, neat in white vellum, 2l. 10s. Aurel. 1620

127 Turnebi Adversariorum, lib. XXX, 3 vols. in one, good copy, in vellum, 18s. Paris, 1580

129 Theodoreti Episcopi et Evagrii Historia Ecclesiastica, Gr. et Lat. cum annotationibus Valesii, a fine large copy, calf gilt, 1l. 4s. Paris, 1673

"This history commences A. D. 324, where that of Eusebius ends, and continues down to 429: it includes many curious particulars." Bibl. Dict.

130 Trommii Concordantiæ, Gr. Vers. LXX. Interp. LARGE PAPER, 2 vols. a beautiful set, new, calf extra, 6l. 6s. Amst. 1718

"This is an elaborate and invaluable work. The order of the Greek Alphabet is here followed. The Greek word is first given, to which are subjoined its different acceptations in Latin. Then follow the different Hebrew words, which are explained by this Greek word in the Septuagint version. At the end of the second volume there are various useful indexes. The work is elegantly printed: the Greek types are very fine, and the Hebrew (to which the points are always added) beautiful. Some copies are taken off on large fine paper, which are uncommonly splendid and very scarce." Bibl. Dict.

131 Taciti C. Cornelii Opera, à Justo Lipsio postremum recensita, ejusque auctis emendatisque commentariis illustrata: Item, Vellei Paterculi Opera, cum ejusdem Lipsii Auctoribus notis, fine large copy, very neat in calf, 1l. 4s. Antwerp. ex offic. Plantin. 1668

132 Utino (Leonardi de) Sermones quadregesimales de legibus, very rare, fine copy, in the original binding, 5l. 5s. Typis Udalr. Zel de Hanau, typogr. Colon. circa 1473

- 133 Valerius Maximus, cum Oliverii Arzinkanensis Commentario, fine large copy, but slightly wormed, in the original binding, 1l. 4s. Paris, 1517
- 134 Virgilii Opera, cum Commentariis Servii, et Castigationibus Pierianæ, (frequently wanting), 2 vols. in one, a beautiful copy, calf gilt, 3l. 3s. Paris, R. Steph. 1532
- “This book is printed in a very magnificent manner, with types cut for the purpose.” Mattaire (Vit. Steph. p. 26).
- “The castigations Pierianæ first printed in 1529, are found in a 2nd vol. accompanying the present edition; they are however very frequently missing.” Dibdin.
- 135 Virgilii Opera, cum Servii et Variorum Commentariis, item Annotationibus Pierii, Doleti, &c. good copy, half bound neat, 18s. Brix. 1546
- 136 Virgilii Opera, ex editione Burmanni, 2 vols. in one, fine copy, calf elegant, 1l. 14s. Glasg. ap. Foulis, 1778
- “This edition presents us with the text of Burman, printed in a correct and magnificent manner.” Dibdin.
- 137 Vitringæ Commentarius in Librum Prophetiarum Jesaiæ, EDIT. OPT., 2 vols. beautiful copy, very neat in white vellum, 3l. 10s. Leovard. 1714-20
- 138 Weiss Kunig. Tableau des principaux evenemens de la vie et du regne de l'empereur Maximilien I, fine copy, with 237 very fine wood engravings, folio size, calf extra, 6l. 6s. Vienne, 1799

QUARTO.

- 139 BIBLIA Hebraica, cum punctis, ab optimis impressoris Jablonski, Leusdeni, &c. recensuit Jo. Hen. Maius, 2 vols. frontispiece, very fine copy, half bound, uncut, 2l. 18s. Francof. 1716

The above is ranked by Dr. Clarke, amongst the select editions of the Hebrew Bible. The Text is chiefly from Jablonski.

- 140 Vetus Testamentum, Græcum, ex versione Septuaginta interpretum, juxta exemplar Vaticanum Romæ editum,

LARGE PAPER, Lond. excud. Daniel, 1653.—Novum Testamentum Græcum, cum notis Scaligeri, neat in white vellum, 2l. 6s. Excud. Pet. de la Roviére, 1620

* This edition is said to be the chief impression of the New Testament used by the modern Greeks, in Turkey. It is compiled from Plantin's edition of 1584." Dibdin.

142 Another Copy, very fine, with the frontispiece and plates, calf gilt, 2l. 10s. ib. 1709

* This edition appears to follow that of Paris, 1628, and the text of Walton's Polyglot. The Prolegomena of this edition I have read: they are sufficiently interesting, and contain many just critical remarks on the preceding publications. The Scholia of the Roman edition, and various readings accompany each page of the text."

Dibdin.

143 Novum Testamentum, Gr. a remarkably fine copy, calf extra, gilt leaves, 2l. 12s. 6d. Hag. 1521

"A rare edition, and much esteemed." Harwood.

144 Novum Testamentum, Heb. Gr. et Lat. a Fabricio, 2 vols. fine set, neat in white vellum, 1l. 18s. Paris, 1584

145 Novum Testamentum, Gr. ex editione Wetsteniana, FINE PAPER, calf neat, 10s. 6d. Glasg. Foulis, 1759

146 Novum Testamentum, Syriacum, cum Versione Latina, cura Leusdeni et Schaafi; item Lexicon Concordantiale Syriacum et Latinum, a Schaafi, EDIT. OPT., 2 vols. very fine set, neat in vellum, 3l. 3s. Lug. Bat. 1717

"The best edition yet published of this Syriac Testament." Michaelis.

"Annexed to this work is a very valuable Syriac Lexicon, which serves not only to explain the words, but also refers to all the passages in the New Testament where those words occur." Bibl. Dict.

147 Nouveau Testament, traduit sur l' originale Grec, avec des remarques ou l' on explique le Text, et ou l' on rend raison de la Version, par Jeau le Clerc, 2 vols. in one, fine copy, neat in calf, 12s. 6d. Amstel. 1703

This is ranked by Dr. Harwood, in the list of the best critical editions of the New Testament attached to his Greek Testament.

148 Psalterium Græce, a very fine copy, old morocco, gilt leaves, 3l. 18s. Venet. ap. Aldum, circa 1497

For an accurate description of this very rare book, see Bibl. Spenceriana. It is there mentioned that some copies, of which Earl Spencer's is one, have a manuscript line on one of the pages, apparently of equal antiquity with the book itself. The present copy possesses this singularity.

- 149 Æschylus, Gr. et Lat. cura Pauw, 2 vols. fine set, in very neat vellum, 4l. 10s. Hag. Com. 1745

"This edition is rare, and much sought after." Brunet.

- 150 Æschyli Prometheus Vincetus, cum Stanleiana Versione, Gr. Lat. & Eng. per Morell, FINE PAPER, calf neat, 18s. Lond. 1773

- 151 Antoninus Marcus, Gr. et Lat. Gatakeri, with a fine head by Faithorne, neat in calf, 8s. Lond. 1697

- 152 Aristotelis Propositiones ex omnibus libris Aristotelis Philosophiæ Moralis Naturalis, et primè necnon Dialecticæ, Rhetoricæ, et Poeticæ, good copy, elegantly half bound in calf, 2l. 2s.

Impres. Venet. per J. et G. de Gregoriis, 1493

This book was printed two years before the editio princeps in Greek.

- 153 Aurelius Victor, in usum Delph. good copy, neat in vellum, 1l. 1s. Paris, 1681

- 154 Aurelius Victor, cura Arntzenii, very fine copy, vellum extra, having been a presentation copy from the University at the Hague, 2l. Amstel. 1733

"This edition is indispensable to the collector's library." Dibdin.

Aurelius Victor was born in Africa, of obscure parents: he came to Rome in search of employment, and was raised by his merit to the most important offices in the state. He was consul with Valentinian, A. C. 369.

- 155 Augustini Gemmæ et Sculpturæ Antiquæ, Gronovii, with upwards of 250 fine engravings of portraits, gems, &c. 2 vols. in one, fine copy, neat in calf, 18s. Amstel. 1685

"The plates of this book are engraved in a masterly stile by J. B. Goldrucci. The work is held in high estimation among antiquarians." Bibl. Dict.

- 171 Dictionaire, Lat. et Fr. neat, 5s.

Paris, 1681

- 172 Diogenes Laertius de vitis, decretis et responsis celebrium Philosophorum, Gr. EDITIO PRINCEPS, a fine large copy, neat in calf, 3l. 10s.

Basil. ap. Froben, 1548

A copy of this edition was sold, so long ago as at the sale of Dr. Ashew's books for 4l. 5s.

The present has been in the possession of two celebrated literary characters, viz. Dr. Burney, and the learned Grecian Professor Porson. A MS. note in Greek verse, in the hand-writing of Porson, is loosely attached to the inside of the cover.

- 173 Dionysii Alex. et Pomponii Mel. de Situ Orbis Descriptio, a Polyhistor, Gr. et Lat. cum scholiis, &c. good copy, 1l. 1s.

Paris, ap. H. Steph. 1577

"This is the most correct and complete of all the editions of Dionysius." Bibl. Dict.

- 174 Erpenii Grammatica Arabica Golii, EDIT. OPT., good copy, neat, 1l. 10s.

Lug. Bat. 1656

- 175 Erpenii Rudimenta Ling. Arab. Schulteni, good copy, half bound, uncut, 1l. 1s.

ib. 1770

- 176 Euripides, Gr. et Lat. Musgravii, 4 vols. a remarkably good set, calf neat, 5l. 10s.

Oxon. 1778

For a copious account of this valuable work, see Clarke's Bibl. Dict.

Dr. Harwood classes this work amongst the most valuable commentaries on the New Testament.

- 179 Glassii Philolog. Sac. with a fine portrait, neat in vellum, 18s. 6d.

"This is a most excellent book." Bibl. Dict.

- 180 Gospel of St. Matthew, in the Malabar or Malay and Dutch

Languages, in parallel columns, very curious, good copy, in vellum, 12s. 1629

181 Guicciardini Belgii Descript. plates, neat, 10s. Ant. 1616

182 Gouldman's Copious Dictionary of the Latin tongue, in 3 parts, FOURTH EDITION, good copy, neat in calf, 10s. 6d.
Cantab. ap. Hayes, 1678

In this edition, the most textual, usual, and proper Hebrew roots and derivatives are inserted by W. Robertson, A. M.

183 Gouldman's Latin Dictionary, imperfect, 5s.

184 Grotii Annotationes in Vet. et Nov. Test. a Moody, 2 vols. a good set, in calf, 10s. 6d. Lond. 1727

187 Horatius Bentleii, 2 vols. good set, calf neat, 11. 1s. Cantab. 1711

188 Horatii Opera, with plates after Gravelot, a remarkably fine and large copy, red morocco extra, gilt leaves, 4l. 4s. Birming. ap. Baskerville, 1770

"The quarto edition of 1770, of Baskerville, is a very beautiful and extremely scarce book, the rarest of all Baskerville's editions. It is frequently chosen by the curious, as a repository for any modern or antique design relating to the Poet." Dibdin.

189 Homeri Opera, Rescii, 2 vols. good set, calf extra, rare, 2l. 2s. Lovan. ap. Grævio, 1535

The present is a good copy, but has interlineations with a pen, in several parts of both volumes.

190 Another Copy, very fine, 2 vols. in one, neat in vellum, 3l. 13s. 6d. ib. 1535

"Rescius was professor of the Greek tongue, and established a printing office at Louvain, in partnership with Sturmius, a scholar of considerable reputation in the 16th century. There is therefore reason to suppose that this edition of Homer is the joint production of Rescius and Sturmius." Dibdin.

191 Homeri Ilias, Gr. CHART. OPT. 2 vols. a very fine set, 4 leaves in the first volume are very neatly supplied by fac-simile MS. so as to be scarcely distinguishable from the letter-press, neat in calf, 1l. 10s. Glasg. ap. Foulis, 1747.

"Harles observes that the 2 vols. are found more frequently apart than together." Dibdin.

- 192 Hanmer's Ancient Alphabets, and Hieroglyphic Characters explained, with numerous plates, and an account of the Egyptian Priests, in Arabic and English, new, in bds. 18s. Lond. 1806

- 193 Hieronymi Prediche di Frate da Ferrara, neat in vellum, 1l. 11s. 6d. Impresso nella cipta di Firenzi ad instantia di Lorenzo Vivuoli Lano, 1496

This work of Father Jerome's does not appear to have been known to Santander. He mentions the first translation into the Italian Language, of the "Vitæ Pistole" as printed in 1497. This work, translated into the Italian, it will be seen, is one year earlier.

- 194 Hederici Lexicon, Gr. et Lat. a Patrick, wants one leaf about the middle of the book, otherwise a good copy, in calf, 14s. Lond. 1739

- 195 Herodiani Historia, lib. 8, cum Politiani interpretatione, a Henrico Stephano, margine adscripto, fine copy, neatly half bound, with the two first books of Zozimus, which have the Latin Version of Leunclavius, 18s.

Paris, ap. H. Steph. 1581

"This is an elegant, rare, and critical edition, exhibiting much purer readings, and more learned annotations than had heretofore appeared. The Greek Text is improved by the collation of an ancient MS. with the earlier editions." Dibdin.

- 196 Hippocratis de Moribus Popularibus, cum commentariis Friendi, Gr. et Lat. very good copy, neat in calf, 8s. Lond. 1717

"An excellent edition." Bibl. Dict.

- 197 Lampii Analytico Exegeticus Commentarius in Evangelium Johannis, 3 vols. fine set, neat in vellum, 3l. 10s. Amstel. 1724

The above work is a most learned and valuable criticism on the Greek of the Gospel of the Apostle John. The learned Dr. Simpson, of Hoxton, styles it "invaluable."

- 198 Longinus, Gr. et Lat. cum notis Tollii, et versione Gallica a Boileau, 16s. 6d.

Traject. 1694

"The merits of this elegant edition are well known: Fabricius and Harles have given it every praise; five MSS. were consulted in its composition; and it contains the entire notes of Robertellus, Portus, and others, with the french version of Boileau, and many notes by Tollius and Dacier." Dibdin.

199 Lucretius de Rerum Naturæ, a Fabri, good copy, calf neat, 14s. Salmurii, 1672

"This edition of Tanaquil Faber is published with some useful emendations, conjectures, and short notes, which Harles styles 'erudite'." Dibdin.

200 Lettres de Pekin, sur la Genie de la langue Chinoise, et la Nature de leur ecriture symbolique, with 28 large and curious plates, exhibiting the various Chinese characters, symbols, and inscriptions found upon ancient vases, &c. half bound in calf extra, 14s. Brussels, 1773

201 Lexicon Græco-Latinum Crispini, fine copy, calf neat, 10s. 6d. Lond. typ. H. Bynniman, 1581

The above, which is an uncommonly fine copy of a well printed book, has the curiously engraved title-page, with Bynniman's colophon at the end, and is embellished with the Earl of Leicester's arms, as mentioned in Amer's Typographical Antiquities.

202 Mamotrectus seu expositio vocabulorum quæ in bibliis, in hymnis ecclesiasticis et homiliis occurrunt, fine copy of a curious and rare work, yellow morocco extra, gilt leaves, 2l. 2s. Venet. ap. Franc. Hailbrun, et Nic. de Franckford, 1476

203 Meermann's Origines Topographicæ, with fine portraits of Meerman and Koster, by Houbraken, &c. and all the plates perfect, as described by Horne, being curious and interesting fac-similes of the earliest block books, &c. 2 vols. in one, fine copy, neat in calf, 1l. 16s. Hag. Com. 1765

204 Another beautiful Copy, LARGE PAPER, with the portraits and all the plates complete, ruled throughout with red lines, calf extra, gilt leaves, 3l. 13s. 6d. ib. 1765

"This is an erudite and excellent work." Dibdin.

"A work highly esteemed by all Bibliographers. It is most beautifully executed, of rare occurrence, and when perfect, bears a high price." Horne.

- 205 Marchand Histoire de l'origine et premiere progrès de l'Imprimerie, the two parts bound together, with a curious frontispiece, containing portraits of the earliest printers, a remarkably fine and large copy, neat in white vellum, 1l. 8s. Haye, 1740
- 206 Morellii Thesaurus Græcæ Poesios, sive Lexicon Græcoprosodaicum, with the curious portrait of Morell, by Hogarth, fine copy, neat in rough calf, 2l. 10s. Eton, 1762
- "This is a work of universally acknowledged excellence, and is not now to be found without difficulty. There is a portrait of Morell, by Hogarth, prefixed." Dibdin.
- 207 Noldii Concordantia Particularum Ebræo-Chaldaicarum, cum notis Tympii et Michaelii, with a fine head, good copy, calf gilt, 1l. 12s. Jenæ, 1734
- 208 Ovide Metamorphoses en Rondeaux, with numerous beautiful vignettes, fine copy, neat, 18s. Paris, 1676
- 209 Origen contra Marcionitas, &c. Gr. et Lat. a Wetstenio, good copy, old calf, 7s. 6d. Basil. 1674
- The above was the copy of the learned Dr. Harwood, whose autograph, finely written, appears on the title-page.
- 210 Origen contra Celsum, ejusdem Philocalia, a Spencero, fine and large copy, neatly half bound, 7s. 6d. Cantab. ap. Field, 1658
- 211 Another copy, very good, neat, 7s. ib. ap. Hayes, 1677
- 212 Pallas Reise in die sudlichen Provinzen des Russischen Reichs, with coloured plates, bds. 7s. 6d. Leip. 1799
- 213 Phædri Fabulæ, Hoogstratani, with fine impressions of the portraits, the numerous other plates, vignettes, &c. good copy, 1l. 11s. 6d. Amst. 1701
- "I have always considered this a correct and very sumptuous edition. It is ornamented with a great number of small plates or medallions, in which the subject of the fable is very ably and spiritedly executed. The type is peculiarly rich and bold, and is hardly equalled by any Dutch edition of a classic. It has some perspicuous notes and an excellent index." Dibdin.
- 214 Postilla sive expositio epistolarum et evangeliorum dominicalium, necnon de sanctis et eorum communi, una cum ferialibus, tam de toto tempore, anni quam etiam eorundum, 4l. 4s. Imp. per Julianum Notarium, Lond. 1509

The present is a good copy, but wants one leaf, viz. folio 37, and likewise the cut of Christ and the twelve Apostles, which last imperfection is supplied by a fac simile drawing. It is a very rare book. See Herbert's edit. of Ames's Typogr. Antiq. vol. 1, pa. 305, where he refers to a copy in the Publ. Libr. Camb.

215 Plinii (Secundi) Epistolæ et Panegyricæ, cum commentariis Catanei, good copy, neat in calf, 10s. 6d. Genev. 1625

216 Plinii Epist. et Panegy. ex recensione Cortii et Longolii, FINE PAPER, half bound, calf extra, uncut, 1l. 5s.

Glasg. up. Foulis, 1751

"The Glasgow edition by Longolius and Cortius in 4to, 1751, is an elegant and esteemed one." Dibdin.

217 Quinctilianus de Institutione Orator. cura Gibsoni, good copy, calf neat, 9s. Oxon. 1693

"A very excellent edition." Bibl. Dict.

218 Richardson's Specimens of Persian Poetry, with an English translation and paraphrase, by Rousseau, new, bds. (sells at 10s. 6d.) 7s. Lond. 1802

219 Robertsoni Thesaurus Ling. Gr. cum additionibus a Hill, fine copy, neat in calf, 1l. 4s. Cant. excud. Hayes, 1676

220 Another copy, MS. title, 14s.

"See Harles, for a eulogy on this work. It is rare, and well spoken of by the generality of bibliographers." Dibdin.

221 Sallustii Opera, cum notis Wassii et variorum, fine copy, very neat in calf, 1l. 1s. Cantab. 1710

"An excellent edition, the merits of which have been long acknowledged by the literary world. Wasse compiled the text from a careful investigation of nearly 80 MSS. and some very ancient editions, and his notes contain many original remarks, &c. A Lexicon Sallustianum is added to the work." Dibdin.

222 Schultens Origines Heb. sive Heb. Ling. Antiquissima Natura et Indoles ex Arab. Penetralibus Revocata, 2 vols. fine copy, neat in vellum, 1l. 14s. Franck. 1724-38

Schultens was a very profound scholar: he was born at Groningen, in 1680; and was professor of the Oriental Languages at Franeker, and next at Leyden, where he died in 1750.

223 Suetonius, ex recensione Grævii, cum commentariis Torrentii et Casauboni, et aliis, good copy, neat in vellum, 15s. Traject. 1672

The commentaries attached to this edition are very valuable: that of Casaubon, in particular, is highly esteemed.

- 224 Sewel's Dutch and English, and English and Dutch Dictionary, FIFTH EDITION, frontispiece, 2 vols. bound in one, good copy, calf, 1l. 6s. Amst. 1754

- 225 Sobrino's Spanish and French Dictionary, good copy, neat in calf, 6s. Brussels, 1761

- 226 Terence, with the Latin Text on one page, and an English translation opposite, by Bernard, FIRST EDITION, very scarce, 18s. Cantab. 1598

- 227 Another copy, bad condition, 3s. ib. 1598

The above work is a good specimen of early Cantabrigian printing. The Latin text is printed in the Italic character, and there are a number of marginal notes.

- 228 Targum (a D. Wilkins) Shel debrey Layenim rashonim veacheroun, &c. Paraphrasis Chaldaica in librum priorem et posteriorem Chronicorum, auctore Rabbi Josepho, Rectore Academ. Syr. Nunc demum e manuscripto Cantabrigiense descerpta, ac cum versione Latina, in quædam missam, very rare, 4l. 10s. Amstel. 1715

"The MS. from which this work was taken, was written A. D. 1447. It is elegantly printed, with the Chaldee text on the right hand page, and the Latin translation on the left. The Chaldee has the vowel points, and the text and version are divided into verses. The whole of the valuable Targums, except this present one, (the MS. of which was not then discovered,) are printed in the London Polyglot. Without this work, therefore, this inestimable Polyglot may be considered as incomplete. Wilkins's edition is very scarce. Rabbi Joseph, the author, surnamed the blind, flourished in the fourth century." Bibl. Dict.

- 229 Thesaurus Ling. Lat. compendarius, being the Latin and English part, good copy, with MS. title, calf gilt, 8s. 6d.

- 230 Veneroni Dictionnaire Italien et Francois, 2 vols. in one, fine copy, neat in calf, 14s. Amst. 1729

- 231 Vitringæ Observationes Sacræ, 2 vols. a fine set, calf, very neat, 1l. 10s. Eranc. 1712

- 232 Virgilii Opera, in usum Delph. GENUINE EDITION, fine copy, very neat, 2l. 2s. Paris, 1675

- 233 Virgilii Opera, with the frontispiece, fine copy, neat, 1l. 4s.
Cantab. Tonson, 1701

“ This edition is an honor to the University and to the Editor: it is as correct as it is superb.” Harwood.

- 234 Virgilii Opera, cum comment. Servii, a Danielis, good copy, old red morocco, 14s.

- 235 Virgilii Opera, GENUINE EDITION, a remarkably fine copy, russia extra, 3l. 13s. 6d. Birming. ap. Baskerville, 1757

“ I have always considered this beautiful production as one of the most finished specimens of typography. It is said to be the earliest publication of Baskerville, and all the care and attention of that ingenious printer were devoted to render it unrivalled. He secured his reputation by it. The work is esteemed by all collectors, and is frequently converted into a repository for any curious or elegant design, illustrative of the subject of the Poet.” Dibdin.

See also Brunet Diction. Bibliograph. vol. 2, pa. 646.

- 236 Virgilii Opera, codex antiquissimus in Bib. Medicis Laurentia ad Servitum, fine large copy, calf extra, 1l. 14s.

“ This is a fac-simile of the famous codex Medicus, on which Heinsius has written a learned dissertation, which is inserted by Burman, in the first volume of his own edition. The original MS. is conceived to be more ancient than the Vatican one. It appears to have formerly belonged to Rodolphus Pius, a cardinal in the time of Pope Paul III., who bequeathed it to the Vatican, from which library it is supposed to have been fraudulently conveyed to the Medicean.”

Dibdin.

- 237 Virgilii Bucolica et Georgica, ex antiquis monumentis illustrata cura H. Justice, fine impressions of the plates and heads, LARGE PAPER, new, neatly half bound, uncut, 14s.

The above splendid edition by Justice, the whole text of which is engraved on copperplates, is rarely to be met with on LARGE PAPER.

- 238 Vaillant Numismata Imperatorum Romanorum, præstantiora a Julio Cæsare, ad Posthumum et Tyrannos, with nearly 200 plates of coins, and many MS. additional notices of coins, 2 vols. in one, neatly half bound, 16s.

Paris, 1674

- 239 Venemæ Commentarius ad Danielis, cap. XI. et XII., a beautiful copy, very neat in vellum, 12s. 6d. Leov. 1752

- 240 Venemæ Commentarius in Psalmos, 6 vols. very fine set, new, uncut, 3l. 18s. ib. 1762

An excellent and very valuable critical work on the Psalms.

- 241 Valerius Flaccus, cura Burmanni, with portrait of Burman, by Houbraken, large and beautiful copy, elegant in vellum, being a presentation Copy from the University at Leyden, 2l. Leyden, 1724

"To this edition the critic and student must look for a clear and accurate illustration of the author. In compiling it, Burman consulted many ancient editions and MSS. The Notes are copious and erudite. It has also a catalogue Argonautorum from the ancient writers, very carefully compiled, and an admirable preface by Burman. There is also a copious index verborum." Dibdin.

"This is a superb and elaborate edition of Valerius Flaccus, an author who will impart very great pleasure and improvement to every scholar who peruses him." Harwood.

- 242 Valerius Maximus, cura Torrenii, frontispiece, 2 vols. in one, fine large copy, elegant in prize vellum, 2l. Leidaë, 1726

"This edition is one of the best edited and most valuable of the Dutch classics. The text of the author is very neatly and accurately printed, and the critical and explanatory notes are excellent." Harwood.

"An excellent and copious index verborum accompanies this valuable edition." Dibdin.

- 243 Vinnii in quatuor libros institutiones imperialium commentarius, academicus et forensis, fine copy, neat in calf, 9s. Amstel. ap. Elzev. 1665

- 244 Wilmeti Lexicon Ling. Arab. in Coranum Harirum et Vitam Timuri, new, bds. 1l. 1s. Lug. Bat. 1784

"This accurate and elaborate work will be found a useful substitute for Golius's Lexicon, now extremely scarce. It gives an ample explanation of all the words in the Koran, the Hariri, and Arab Shak's Life of Teemour, said to form the grand Arabic classics in Theology, Rhetoric, and History; and to afford the best specimens of the different styles of the Arabic writers, in these departments of literature." Bibl. Dict.

- 245 Whiter's Etymologicon Magnum, or Universal Etymological Dictionary, with Illustrations drawn from various Languages, part 1, being all that has yet appeared, new, bds. 14s. 6d. Camb. 1803

MANUSCRIPTS, MISSALS, &c.

- 246 Hebrew Manuscript, with points, containing the books of Joshua, Judges, first and second of Samuel, and first and second of Kings, complete, neatly written in a very large hand, on vellum, forming a thick volume, size—atlas folio, 6l. 6s.

The above fine and curious MS. appears, from its execution, to be of very ancient date, probably from five to six hundred years old, or upwards. It is a circumstance of rare occurrence to meet with ancient copies of these historical books of the sacred volume, written in the original Hebrew. There are masoretic notes, also executed in the original Hebrew, in the margins of most of the leaves.

- 247 Valerius Maximus, a manuscript finely written, calf extra, 2l. 10s. Dated 1428

- 248 Biblia Sacra Latina, vulgatæ Editionis, a manuscript on vellum, beautifully executed, in double columns, and the capitals finely ornamented, splendidly bound in blue morocco, gilt leaves, 10l. 10s.

This fine and curious work, containing in addition to the Old and New Testaments, a concordance and harmony of the four evangelists. The vellum, on which it is written, is particularly fine and thin.

- 249 Missal, with the Calendar, in Flemish, a remarkably fine and beautiful manuscript, on vellum, with exquisitely beautiful miniatures and borders, richly illuminated in gold and colours, in the original morocco binding, with clasps, 7l. 7s.

- 250 Missale Romanum, cum Calendario, a most beautiful manuscript, supposed to be of the 14th century, with twenty large and richly illuminated miniatures and borders, in gold and colours, 10l.

- 251 Missale Romanum, cum Calendario, printed on vellum, with numerous fine small miniatures and borders on every leaf, 5l. 1497

- 252 Missale Romanum, cum Calendario, printed on vellum, with borders round every page, and numerous fine spirited wood cuts, and ornamented capitals, 3l. 10s.

- 253 Missale Romanum, cum Calendario, a manuscript on vel- lum, with miniatures, borders, and capitals finely illuminated in gold and colours, 4l. 10s.

- 254 Horæ Beatæ Marie Virginis, a fine manuscript on vellum, forming a very thick volume, with the capitals and sides of the pages tastefully and richly ornamented in gold and colours, 4l. 4s.

OCTAVO.

- 255 BIBLIA Hebraica et Novum Testamentum, cum interlineare interpretatione Montani, 5 vols. a good set, very neat in calf, 3l. 13s. 6d. Antwerp, Plantin, 1613

- 256 Another Set, good as new, very neat in white vellum, 4l. 4s. ib. 1610

"The most useful of all Hebrew Bibles, for a person who understands any thing of Latin, is the Bibl. Heb. Interlin. of Montanus." Bibl. Dict.

See Note under Bibl. Heb. Mont. folio.

- 257 Biblia Hebraica, ab Athiæ et Leusdeno, 2 vols. elegantly bound in black calf, 2l. 12s. 6d. Amst. 1667

- 258 Biblia Hebraica, cum punctis, studio et labore Everhardi Vanderhooghti, 2 vols. fine set, very neat in calf, scarce, 3l. 13s. 6d. Amstel. et Ultraj. 1705

- 259 Another Set, very fine and large, neatly half bound in 4 vols. with engraved title to each, 4l. 4s. ib. 1705

"Vanderhooght's Hebrew Bible is an excellent work; the paper is fine, and the press-work well executed. In the margin there is abundance of Latin Scholia, which give the contents of almost every paragraph. All the Mazoretic sections, large and small letters, keri, &c. are distinctly noted. This work may be pronounced the most elegant and perfect Bible ever yet published on the Mazoretic plan. It is now become scarce." Dr. Clarke.

- 260 Biblia Hebraica, ad Præstantiores edit. ³accurata, accessit Dictionarium omnium vocum Veteri Testamenti Hebraicarum et Chaldaicarum, &c. a Simonis, with frontispiece and some other plates, 2 vols. in one, fine copy, new, uncut, 1l. 12s. Amst. ap. Wetst. 1753

- 261 Another Copy, FINE PAPER, 2 vols. elegant in russia, by Staggmeier, 2l. 16s. Halæ, 1767

Simon's Bible is correctly printed, and the Hebrew types are very fine. It is accompanied with all the Mazoretic Notes that are found in Vanderhooght, and what renders it peculiarly useful, a dictionary, in which all the Hebrew and Chaldee words occurring in the Bible are explained in Latin, and also an explanation of all the Mazoretic Notes.

- 262 Biblia Hebraica, cum punctis, et variis lectionibus, Reincei, Kennicotti, et de Rossi, edid. Doderlein et Meisner, SECOND BEST PAPER, 2 vols. in one, new, in bds. 1l. 7s.
Lipsiæ, 1793

- 263 Biblia Hebraica, sine punctis, good copy, half bound in brown calf, 1l. 8s. Antw. ex officin. Plantin. n. d.

This edition is valuable and curious, not only on account of its accuracy, but from the clearness of the type, and fineness and thinness of the paper, the whole volume being only half an inch thick exclusive of the boards.

- 264 Biblia Sacra, Septuaginta Gr. 4 vols. a remarkably fine set, calf extra, 5l. 5s. Argent. 1526

Dr. Clarke stiles this "a rare and curious edition," and Dibdin observes that "it is esteemed a work of great rarity, the type and paper are very good, and the punctuation is, in most places, remarkably judicious." It is the second edition of the valuable Septuagint translation.

- 265 Biblia Gr. Septuaginta, cum Scholiis et variis lectionibus, &c. good copy, printed in a large good greek character, calf, 18s. Lond. Daniel, 1653

- 266 Biblia Sacra, Septuaginta Gr. with a Latin version, including both the Apocrypha and the New Testament, 5 vols. a most beautiful set, handsomely bound in brown calf, 4l. 4s. Basil, per Nicol. Brylingerum, 1550

"The Greek and Latin is printed in opposite columns: the Greek text is printed from the Aldine edition; the Latin from the Complutensian. Each of the volumes has a different title-page, with a tolerably elegant wood-cut. This edition was reprinted, with a fresh title-page only, in 1582, by the heirs of Brylinger: both editions are rare." Dibdin.

- 267 Biblia Sacra, vulgatæ editionis Sixti V. Pont. M. jussu recognita, et Clementis VIII., auctoritate edita, a very fine copy, beautifully printed in compartments, with marginal references, and forming a very thick volume of about 950 pages, uncut, scarce, 16s.

Colon. sumpt. Balthaz. 1743

268 Another Copy, very fine, and neatly bound, 16s. ib. 1743

Roth. typ. R. Lallemant, 1773

De l'Imprimerie de Francois Estienne, 1567

271 Bible la sainte, qui contient le Vieux et le Nouveau Testament, new, very neat in calf, 10s. 6d. Lond. 1811

272 Bible, in Welch, both the Old and New Testament, with the Psalms in metre, the Book of Common Prayer, and Marginal References in the same language, 9s.

Lond. Basket, 1752

273 Novum Testamentum, Gr., cum notis et animadversionibus, R. Stephani, J. Scaligeri, et J. Casauboni, purple marocco extra, gilt leaves, 8s. 6d. Lond. ap. J. Billium, 1622

274 Novum Testamentum, Gr., good copy, neat in calf, 8s. 6d. Cantab. ap. Buck, 1632

"This is a very beautiful and accurate edition, and has received the commendation of learned men." See Dibdin.

276 Another Copy, very good, but wants the preface, 10s. ib. 1675

"This excellent edition, by the celebrated Fell, was once the most popular edition of the New Testament, and is yet an indispensable work to every man engaged in sacred criticism." Dibdin.

277 Novum Testamentum, Gr., a remarkably fine copy, very neat in calf, very scarce, 11. 1s.

Lond. impensis Tonson, 1728

"This beautiful and correct edition is taken from Buck's Cantab. 1722. It is now rare, and copies in fine condition sell high." Dibdin.

278 Novum Testamentum, Gr. cum notis Lat. Stockii, with the frontispiece, fine large copy, 2 vols. in one, neat in calf, 2l. 2s. Joux, 1731

"Formed on the second of Curcellous, with numerous philological notes, and parallel passages,—arranged below the Greek text. It is a rare and excellent edition." Dibdin.

279 Novum Testamentum, Gr. juxta Millium et Kusterum, LARGE PAPER, very neat in calf, and completely interleaved with fine writing paper, forming 2 thick vols. a beautiful copy, 18s. Glasg. in ædib. R. Urie, 1750

280 Another, a remarkably fine copy, LARGE PAPER, in 1 vol. handsomely bound in calf, 12s. ib. 1750

"This is an elegant little edition of the Greek Testament. Copies on large paper are very scarce, and sell high." Dibdin.

281 Novum Testamentum, Gr. a Milli, fine copy, 18s. 6d. Oxon. typis J. Baskerville, 1763

282 Novum Testamentum, Gr. cura Hardy, EDIT. OPT. 2 vols. a remarkably fine set, calf extra, 2l. 6s. Lond. 1768

See Dibdin, for a long critique on this edition, which he concludes in the following words:—"The work sells extravagantly dear, probably from the few copies which were struck off."

283 Novum Testamentum, Gr. cum variis lectionibus Griesbachii, 2 thick vols. new, uncut, 2l. 6s. Hake, 1796-1806

"This is a very excellent work, and in great repute abroad, being the standard book among the students at the Universities. The value of Griesbach's edition, says Marsh, is so decided, that it would be superfluous to expatiate on its merits." Dibdin.

284 Novum Testamentum, Gr., according to the text of Mill and Stephens, and the arrangement of Reeves' Bible, with printed marginal notes in English, 2 vols. in one, bds. uncut, 10s. 6d. Lond. 1803

285 Novum Testamentum, Gr., ex recensione Griesbachii, cum selecta lectionum varietate, 2 vols. new, bds. uncut, 14s. Lipsiæ, 1805

This edition, which is finely printed, and without contractions, is supposed to possess a good deal of the merit of Griesbach's larger work.

286 Novum Testamentum, Gr., with an interlineary Latin version by Montanus, MS. title, good copy, large print, forming a thick vol. of 1082 pp. calf, 9s.

- 287 Novum Testamentum, Gr. et Lat. studio et industria Erasmi Roteradami accurate editum, adjectis argumentis cum concordantiis in margine, &c. 2 vols. fine set, neat in calf, very scarce, 14s. Lipsiæ, typ. Voegellianis, 1564

"A neat and accurate edition, said, by Pritius, to have been compiled by Camerarius, who collated the Greek text of Erasmus with the Latin Vulgate, and Beza's annotations. It is formed on Crispin's edition; and consequently on those of R. Stephens." Dibdin. See also Masch, t. 1, p. 220.

- 288 Novum Testamentum, Gr., with two Latin versions, the vulgate and Beza's, in parallel columns, and numerous printed marginal notes, 2 vols. a good set, the title of the first a little injured, calf, scarce, 9s. 1565

- 289 Novum Testamentum, Gr. et Lat. Theo. Beza interpret. good copy, finely printed, with marginal notes, MS. facsimile title, scarce, 8s. 6d. Excud. H. Steph. 1567

- 290 Novum Testamentum, Gr. et Lat. Theodora Beza interprete; additæ sunt ab eodem summæ brevis doctrinæ unoquoque Evangeliorum et Actorum loco comprehensæ, &c. 2 vols. bound in one, neat in rough calf, 10s. Ex typograph. Jac. Stoer, 1611

The above volume is begun by about 30 pages of a curious introduction by Locilerius Villerius. It may therefore probably be called Villerius' edition. Soon after the introd. follows a curious exhortation to the reader, in Greek verse, by Henry Stephens. The work is very neatly printed, and has a Latin translation on each side of the Greek. There are also many printed marginal notes.

- 291 Another Copy, with the ancient and modern Latin versions, and numerous printed marginal notes; also the introduction of Villerius, and H. Stephens' Exhortation in Greek verse, 3 vols. old calf, 8s. 1580

This copy has Stephens' device in the title-page.

- 292 Novum Testamentum Latinum, ex. Sebast. Castalionis Interpretatione, 2 vols. in one, finely printed, calf gilt, scarce, 7s. Glasg. Foulis, 1758

- 293 Nouveau Testament en Francois et Hollandois, or the New Testament in the French and Dutch Languages, in parallel columns, with the Psalms, likewise in the same, a remarkably fine copy, neat in strong calf, with clasps, scarce, 6s. Amst. 1649

- 294 Nouveau Testament, large print, good copy, neat, 3s. 6d.
Lond. 1734
- 295 Nouveau Testament, with the books of the Apocrypha, &c. also in French, and marginal notes, neatly printed,
but with MS. title, in old vellum, 2s.
- 296 Novum Testamentum, Syriacum, Punctis vocal. animatum, cum Lexico et Institutionibus L. Syriacæ, &c. ab. Egidio Gutbirio, scarce, a thick vol. new, uncut, 14s. Hamb. 1663
- 297 Another, good copy, with Lexicon, neat in calf, 15s.
Francof. 1731
- 298 Psalmi Davidis Proverbia Solomonis Ecclesiasticis et Can-ticum Canticorum Hebraice, cum interlineari versione
S. Pagnini, neat in vellum, 12s. 6d.
Paris, ap. Cramoisy, n. d.
- 299 Augurelli Opera Poetica, ex recensione Aldi Manutii, good copy, elegant in russia, marbled leaves, 1l. 5s.
Venet. in æd. Aldi, 1505

“A very rare edition.” Renouard.

This Poet, a learned Italian, was born at Rimini about 1441, and studied at Padua. From his abilities and stature he received the singular designation of the little man with the great mind. He wrote several works of minor importance, beside the above, and it is said that he was addicted to the folly of Alchemy. On this account, in relation to his poem on the Philosopher's Stone, call'd Chrysopoeia, which he dedicated to Pope Leo X., it is said the Pope sent him, in return, a large empty purse, with the shrewd observation that, “he who knew how to make Gold, only needed a place to put it in.” Probably however this story may be an invention, as it appears, that in the poem in question, he protests that he is no believer in the pretended art, but merely takes it as a topic of fiction. He was a good Grecian, and well acquainted with the studies of Philosophy and Antiquity. He obtained the public Professorship of the Belles Lettre, at Trevisa, where he died in 1524.

- 300 Aschami et Sturmii Epistolæ, with a beautiful impression of the frontispiece, containing full length portraits of Ascham and Queen Elizabeth, good copy, neat in vellum, 12s.

Chaldee, Syriac, Samaritan, Rabbinical, Arabic, Ethiopic, and Persian, each with Latin, fine copy, neat, 15s.
Francof. 1730

"This is a useful Grammar of 8 of the principal oriental languages. A complete copy is not very common." Dr. Clarke.

The above is also considered to be a valuable accompaniment to the celebrated Polyglot of Dr. Walton.

303 Analyse Raisonnée des Langues Angloise et Francoise, ou Grammaire comparée des ces deux langues, moyen facile et sûr pour apprendre l'une et l'autre, par Salavy Du Fresnoy, fine copy of a valuable grammar, Eng. and Fr. new, uncut, 4s. Paris, 1806

304 Aristotelis Opera, Gr. et Lat. cura Buhle, vol. 3, containing the Topicorum in 8 books, and de Sophist. Elenchis, CHART. MAX., fine copy, new, bds. 10s. Bipont 1791

"This beautiful and very excellent edition of Aristotle, by Buhle, exceeds, in utility and typographic elegance, all that have preceded it." Diddin.

Excud. H. Steph. 1570

The above is from the Library of the celebrated Dr. Harwood, whose autograph, (very fine, as usual,) appears about the centre of the title-page. The volume consists of about 470 pages.

306 Augustinus (Aurelius) de Civitate Dei, lib. 22, cum Ludovici Vivis commentariis illustrati, et indice, &c. wormed in some places, half bound, very neat, 7s.

Excud. Jacob. Stoer, 1596

307 Aulus Gellius, à Phil. Beroaldô, printed in the Italic letter, with engraved capitals, fine copy, neatly half bound, 10s. 1513

308 Auli Gellii, Noctes Atticæ, a most beautiful copy, handsomely bound in red morocco, gilt leaves, 2l. 2s.

Venet. in ædib. Aldi, 1515

This scarce work, by the elder Aldus, is furnished with copious and useful indexes.

"Fine copies are becoming very scarce." Diddin. See also Clement, tom. 9, pa. 120.

- 309 Æliani Variæ Historiæ, lib. 8, Gr. et Lat. cum notis variorum, et Perizonii, good copy, neat in calf, 10s. 6d.

Lug. Bat. 1701

"The abilities of Perizonius are highly spoken of by Fabricius and Harles: his name will be dear to posterity so long as Ælian shall be remembered." Dibdin.

- 310 Ainsworth's Dictionary, Latin and English, and English and Latin, fine copy, new, (sells at 16s.) 14s. Lond. 1808

- 311 Antoninus (Marcus) Gr. et Lat., fine large copy, very neat in calf, 8s. Oxon. 1704

"An excellent edition." Harwood.

- 312 Auli Persii Flacci Satirarum Liber, Casaubonus recensuit, et commentario libro illustravit, good copy, neat in calf, scarce, 7s. Lond. 1647

"By far the best edition of this author extant." Kett's Elements.

For a high character of this comment on Persius, see also J. Scaliger's Epistles to Casaubon.

- 313 Appendix ad Scapulam, bds., new, scarce, 12s. ib. 1789

This appendix to the popular work of Scapula, published by Dr. Burney, will be found to supply some very valuable addenda to that important book.

- 314 Bartram Voyage de l'Amérique, with fine plates of rare plants, &c. 2 vols. calf extra, 10s. Paris, 1799

This was Prince Talleyrand's copy.

- 315 Buxtorfi Thesaurus Grammat. Linguae Sanctæ Hebraicæ, good copy, in old calf, 7s. Basil. 1620

- 316 Another Copy, neat in vellum, 6s. 6d. ib. 1629

- 317 Barker's Hebrew and English Lexicon, and compendious Grammar of the Hebrew Language, new, bds., (sells at 10s. 6d.) 9s. Lond. 1811

- 318 Bernardi (Sancti) Sermoni vulgari devotissimi di necessari alben vivere: ridocti in lingua Toscana, with a curiously engraved frontispiece, and colophon, remarkably fine copy, neat in vellum, very rare, 18s. Impresso in Firenze, 1495

See Dr. Clarke's Bibl. Dict., vol. 1, p. 179.

Bernard, stiled St. was born in Burgundy, A. D. 1091, and died in 1153. He was canonized in 1174, by Pope Alexander, II,

- 319 Bibliotheca Maphæi Pinellii Veneti, cum annotationibus illustrata, a Morellio, 6 vols., with the prices, a fine set, bds., uncut, scarce, 2l. 18s. Venet. 1787

"The complete analysed Catalogue of Pinelli is in 6 vols. 8vo, Venez. 1787, and besides containing a full description of the books, has the advantage of an alphabetical index, which occupies the whole of the 6th volume. This work is an elegant and interesting publication." Dibdin.

The above have much the appearance of 4to volumes, being very large and broad, with very extensive margins.

- 320 Bournii (V. of Trin. Col. Cambr.) Poemata, Lat. and Eng. in opposite columns, very fine copy, neatly printed, with cuts, calf extra, 5s. Lond. 1734

- 321 Boyer's French Grammar and Vocabulary, with familiar Phrases and Dialogues, and a collection of Proverbs, Fr. and Eng., twenty-fourth edition, neat, 3s. Lond. 1779

- 322 Breviarium Romanum, ex decreto Sacrosancti Consilii Tridentini restitutum, S. Pii V. Pont. Max. Jussu editum, et Clementis VIII. auctoritate recognitum, printed in red and black letters, with a number of curious wood cuts, old calf, scarce, 6s. Paris, 1613

- 323 Ciceronis Epistolæ Familiæ accuratius recognitæ, fine copy, neat, 10s. 6d. Venet. ap. Aldum, 1512

- 324 Ciceronis Officiorum, lib. 3.—Cato Major, sive de senectute.—Lælius sive de Amicitia.—Somnium Scipionis ex VI. de Rep. excerptum, fine copy, neat, 9s. ib. 1517

- 325 Ciceronis Orationum, 3 vols., fine copy, neat, 1l. 8s. ib. 1519, &c.

- 326 Ciceronis Epistolarum ad Atticum, ad Brutum, ad quintum fratrem, lib. XX., nuper exacta recogniti cura, fine copy, neat, 10s. 6d. ib. 1521

- 327 Ciceronis Opera Philosophica, 2 vols., fine copy, neat, 1l. 1s. ib. 1552, &c.

- 328 Ciceronis Opera Rhetorica, cum correctionibus Pauli Manutii, 2 vols. in one, neat, 18s. 6d. ib. 1559

The second volume contains de Oratore lib. III.—Orator et de Claris Oratoribus.

- 329 Commentarius Pauli Manutii in Epistolas Ciceronis ad Atticum, fine copy, neat, 9s. 6d. ib. 1561

- 330 Ciceronis Epistolæ ad M. Junium Brutum, et ad Q. Ciceronem fratrem, P. Manutii commentarius, fine copy, neat, 7s. 6d. Venet. ap. Aldum. 1563

The rarity, value, and critical accuracy of the above Aldine editions of Cicero, are well known. It is a circumstance of no common occurrence to meet with so many of them collected together. The four last, it will be observed, by the dates, are by P. Manutius, the son of Aldus, respecting whom Dibdin speaks as follows: "This admirable edition of Cicero, by Paul Manutius, son of Aldus, is deservedly held in high estimation. No man had a juster conception of the beauties of this great Roman orator and philosopher, and no man has more successfully imitated his style than this learned Printer. The authorities are numerous that point out its excellence and merit."

"To obtain a complete and fine copy of the Aldine edition of Cicero is a circumstance of very rare occurrence." Rcaouard.

It will be seen that the foregoing are the whole of Cicero's Works, which, if taken together, will be sold at 5l.

- 331 Cicero de Legibus, Paris, ap. Col. Sorbonnæ, 1530.—De finibus, Par. 1536.—Questiones, Par. 1538.—Fine copy, elegant in russia extra, 14s.

- 332 Ciceronis Epistolæ ad Atticum, ad M. Brutum, ad Quintem Fratrem; summâ diligentia castigatæ, cum Scholiis P. Manutij, some of the leaves a little wormed at the outside corner, otherwise a fine large copy, neatly half bound, scarce, 10s. Paris, ex offic. R. Steph. 1543

"This elegant edition of 1543 is rendered of some value with the curious, as being the first work in which Robert Stephens made use of the Italic character." See Mattaire.

- 333 Cicero de Philosophia, cum scholiis Pauli Manutii, index rerum et verborum, fine copy, scarce, neat in calf, 10s. 6d. Venet. ap. Aldum, 1565

- 334 Ciceronis Opera Philosophica, cum Fragmenta, 4 vols. in one, fine copy, neat, very scarce, 18s. Francof. ap. Wechel, 1589 & 1590.

"A very good edition, with learned notes and commentaries." Dibdin. The above contains all the philosophical writings of Cicero, with the "Offices" complete.

- 335 Ciceronis Orationes ex emendatione Dionys. Lambini, finely printed in the Italic character, with printed marginal notes, 3 vols., a fine set, calf extra, very scarce, 1l. 7s. Lutet. et. Argent. ex. offic. J. Duprux, 1572 & 1591

"Consult Ernesti Fabr. where the critical merits of Lambinus have received a warm and deserved encomium. His abilities and various erudition well fitted him for the office of editor of Cicero." Dibdin.

- 336 Cicero de Legibus, lib. 3, in eosdem commentarii Adv. Turnebo, the beginning a little stained, otherwise a good copy, neat in calf, very scarce, 6s. Ap. Com. 1596

The critical merits of Turnebus are well known to the learned; his works are not only in general scarce, but particularly useful, on account of the accuracy and ability of the author.

- 337 Cicero de Claris Oratoribus, cum notis variorum et Proust, with fine head of Cicero, good copy, very neat in calf, 16s. Oxon. 1716

"An excellent edition, and difficult to be found to complete the 8vo collection, cum notis variorum." Bibl. Dict.

- 338 Cicero de Divinatione et de Fato, cura Davisii, very fine copy, neat in calf, 7s. Cantab. 1721

"A very correct edition." Dr. Clarke.

- 339 Cicero de Naturâ Deorum cum notis Pauli Manutii, Lambini, et variorum, cura Davisii, CHART. OPT., a particularly fine copy, calf neat, 9s. ib. 1733

"This edition is ranked by Dibdin amongst the best critical editions of the 'de Natura Deorum.'"

- 340 Cicero de Officiis, item Cato Major, Lælius, Paradoxa, et Somnium Scipionis, ad optimorum exemplarium fidem recensiti, good copy, neat, 3s. Lond. 1740

- 341 Cicero de Officiis, cum notis Pearcii, EDIT. OPT., one of the leaves slightly injured, otherwise a good copy, neat, 5s. Cantab. 1777

"The editions by Pearce are beautifully and accurately printed. The pious and learned editor was uncommonly attached to this work of Cicero." See Dibdin.

- 342 Cæsaris Commentarii, with curious maps and plates, fine copy, very scarce, neat in calf, 12s. Lugd. ex offic. Gul. Huyon, 1519

- 343 Cæsaris Commentarii, with plates, a remarkably fine and large copy, purple morocco, very scarce, 14s. Paris, ap. Joan. Lodoicum, 1539

The two preceding editions of Cæsar are both finely printed in the Italic character. The title to the first is within a curiously engraved compartment, in red and black letters. It has an introduction by Jucundus, but his name does not appear on the title-page. The second has also a similar introduction or preface by the same writer, and an address to the reader by the elder Aldus; likewise a number of printed marginal notes. The type of both copies may perhaps vie with that even of the elder Aldus himself.

- 344 Cæsar's Commentarii, with plates, a finely printed book,
5s. Lutet. ap. R. Steph. 1544

- 345 Cæsar's Commentarii, cum Eutropii Epitome belli Gallici, ex Suetonii Tranquilli Monumentis que desiderantur, with cuts, fine copy, neat in calf, 6s.
Lutet. ap. R. Steph. 1544

- 346 Cæsar's Commentarii et Eutropii Epitome, with wood cuts, and some MS. interlineations in the early part, scarce, 6s.
Antwerp, ex offic. Joan. Loc. 1551

- 347 Cæsar's Commentarii, novis emendationibus illustrati, cum Scholiis Aldi Manutii et Fulvii Ursini, with plates, good copy, very neatly half bound extra, scarce, 16s.
Ant. excud. C. Plantin. 1574

"This edition" say the Bipont editors "contains every thing to be found in the Venetian edition of 1560, and presents us with many valuable remarks from the labours of Fulvius Ursinus, the editor." See also Harles, who praises this edition for its critical utility.

- 348 Cæsar's Opera, cum notis Clarkii, with head and maps, good copy, 7s.
Lond. Tonson, 1720

This edition is given by Dr. Harwood, in his list of the best large and small editions of the Classics, as the best small edition of Cæsar, ranking it with that by Oudendorp, in the 4to size.

- 349 Cæsar's Commentarii, with an English translation by Towers, new, neat, 8s.

Basil. 1539

According to Wesseling, this work is much preferable to some editions which profess to give a very accurate text. Dr. Harwood observes "it may justly be classed among the rare books."

- 376 Diogenes Laertii de Vita et Moribus Philosophorum lib. x. cum indice locupletissimo, Lat. a Ambrosio, printed in the italic character, half bound, neat, 4s.
Lugd. ap. Seb. Gryphum, 1557

"Diogenes Laertius was an Epicurean Philosopher, born in Cilicia; he flourished about A. D. 193. His lives of the Philosophers, which is the only original thing of the kind we have to depend on, is, in many respects, very valuable..” Dr. Clarke.

- 377 Diogenes Laertius, Gr. et Lat. containing also the notes of Casaubon, good copy, neat in calf, scarce, 14s.

Excud. H. Steph. 1594

“These editions of 1570 and 1594, by H. Steph. are more correct than the preceding. The first contains the Latin version of Ambrosius, the annotations of Stephens, and the fragments of Pythagoras, collected from Stobaeus, which are placed at the end of the volume. The edition of 1594 is more correct than that of 1570, and contains, in addition, the learned notes of Casaubon.” Dibdin.

- 378 Diogenes Laertius, Gr. et Lat. cum notis Casauboni, et Eunapius de vitis Sophistarum, with the version of Junius, &c. title a little defaced, otherwise a good copy, calf, 7s. 6d. Genev. 1615

- 379 Another Copy, containing every thing as above, calf, 7s. 6d. Col. Allob. 1616

“This edition is published on the basis of the second of H. Stephens, but the notes of Casaubon are somewhat more numerous. Subjoined to it, is a tract of Hesychius, in Greek, ‘De Philosophia,’ with the Latin version of Adrian Junius: some copies of this work have ‘Eunapius de Vitis Sophistarum’ with the version of Junius. In Catal. Thottican. t. 4, 268, this edition is dated 1616, as it is in Mattaire, t. 3, 869; but they are both exactly the same work. Bibliographers promiscuously refer to either.” Dibdin.

- 380 Dionysii Orbis Descriptio, annotationibus Eustathii et H. Stephani, necnon Gulielmi Hill commentario critico et geographico, ac tabulis illustrata, with plates, EDIT. OPT. good and large copy, calf, scarce, 7s. Lond. 1688

- 419 Græcæ Grammaticis Rudimenta, in usum Scholæ Westmonasteriensis, good copy, 3s. Lond. Osborn, 1720

- 420 Greek Rudiments, Eng. and Gr., in which all the difficulties of that Language are adapted to the capacities of children, after the plan of Ruddiman's Rudiments, with a curious preface on the manner of teaching the greek language, by Barclay, fine copy, neat, 3s. 6d. Edinb. ap. Ruddiman, 1754

- 421 Greek English Lexicon, containing the derivations and various significations of all the words in the New Testament, with a complete Index in Greek and English, whereunto is added a Praxis, or an explication of the 2nd of Romans, and the Greek dialects contained in the New Testament, by T. C. (T. Caryl), good copy, scarce, 8s. Lond. 1650

With the above which forms a thick volume of upwards of 600 pages, is bound up an English Greek Grammar, by J. C. supposed to be J. Caryl, brother to the author of the former work. The grammar contains 64 pages.

- 422 Hippocratis de Officina Medici, et de Fractis, Libri duo, edente Bosguillon, new, sewed, 4s. 6d. Paris, ap. Renouard, 1816

- 423 Horatii Opera, et Juvenalis Satyræ, EDIT. OPT., fine copy, half bound, very neat, rare, 1l. 4s.

Paris, ap. Colinæum, 1528

"A very correct edition." Dr. Harwood.

"According to Maittaire, Vit. Typog. Paris, p. 5, this edition of Horace, 1528, is the first of Colinæus's publications printed in the Italic letter. To the curious this will be an additional incitement to value the work." Dibdin.

A Copy of the Juvenal alone was sold at Croft's sale for 15s.

- 424 Horatii Poemata, ratio mensuum quibus Odæ ejusdem poetæ tenentur, centimetrum Marii Servii, variz lectiones ex vetustiss. codicibus, good copy, in the Italic character, calf, scarce, Paris, ex offic. R. Steph. 1544.—Acronis Grammatici Commentariorum in omnia Horatii, with an introductory epistle by Michael Bentin, last leaf of Index to comment wanting, 16s. Basil, 1527

The whole of this curious grammatical commentary, bound up with this edition of Horace, is furnished with marginal notes, &c. and contains upwards of 400 pages. Acro flourished about the seventh century.

De Bure, No. 2716, observes that the edit. princeps, and this 8vo edition, by Michael Bentin, printed at Basil, 1527, are the editions of this commentary most valued; he also remarks that this latter is an uncommon book.

A Copy of the editio princeps of this commentary brought at Dr. Ashew's sale, 6l 10s.

- 425 Horatii Opera, cum Juvenal et Persius, fair copy, neat in calf, scarce, 10s. Lutet. R. Steph. 1549

- 426 Horatii Poemata, cum scholiis sive annotationibus à Johanne Bond illustrata, a remarkably fine copy, calf extra, scarce, 8s. Lond. imp. G. Bishop, 1606

- 427 Horatius, cum notis variorum et Johan. Bond, EDIT. OPT., fine copy, neat in calf, 18s. Lug. Bat. 1670

An edition of great merit, according to the learned Mitscherlich.

- 428 Horace, translated into English, with the Latin text on the opposite page, and a collection of interesting notes in English, by Dunster, 4s. 6d. Lond. 1719

- 429 Horace, with an English translation and notes, by Watson, 2 vols. good copy, scarce, bds. 15s. Lond. 1747

"The English notes of Watson are called by Dr. Harwood 'the best commentary yet published on Horace.' The work is famous for exhibiting Dr. Douglas's collection of the editions of Horace, which from the year 1476 to 1739, amounted to about 450 in number." Dibdin.

- 430 Horatii et Virgilii Opera, Sandby, with numerous fine engravings, ROYAL PAPER, 4 vols. fine set, very neat in calf, 8l. 14s. Lond. 1749-50

Dibdin, in regard to the Virgil in this collection, says, "this is a very beautiful edition: the numerous plates, from antique gems, &c. are very elegantly executed, and the type and paper are worthy of the engravings." For an accurate account of the Horace, see also the same author, who observes that "he has always considered this work as a very pleasing and respectable production, and in point of accuracy preferable to its rival,—the edition of Pine."

- 431 Horatii Opera, stud. soc. Bipont, good copy, half bound, neat, 7s. Bipont, 1783

- 432 Horace, translated into English prose, with the original text, critical notes, &c. by Davidson, 2 vols. new, bds. (sells at 1l. 1s.) 18s. Lond. 1811

- 433 Horatii Opera, in usum Delph. new, (sells at 12s.) 9s.

- 434 Hómeri Ilias, a particularly fine copy, with large margins, neat in calf, 1l. 8s. Paris, ap. Turnebum, 1554

- 435 Another fine Copy, neat in calf, 1l. 5s. ib. 1554

"This is the excellent and elegant edition of Turnebus, and particularly valuable as being the only volume of Homer ever published by that learned printer. 'Many errors propagated in former editions,' says Heyne, 'are avoided in this.' Turnebus diligently investigated the Roman edition of 1517; and the various readings collected at the end of the volume show a judgment far above mediocrity." In the Bibl. Bridg. p. 199, a Copy of this edition by Turnebus, containing the Batrychom. and Hymns, cum figuris, sold for 6l. 6s. Dibdin.

- 436 Homeri Ilias, cum interp. Lat. adjectæ sunt breves notæ marginales, good copy, neat, 6s. 6d.

Cantab. ap. Field, 1664

The accuracy of the celebrated Field, as a printer of classics and other works, is well known.

- 437 Homeri Ilias, Gr. et Lat. fine copy, neat, 5s. Lond. 1736

- 438 Homeri Ilias, Gr. et Lat. cum annotationibus, edidit. S. Clarke, vol 1, calf, 6s. ib. 1740

- 439 Homeri Iliados, lib. i., v., ix., cum scholiis brevioribus, et indice omnium fere vocum Græcarum, necnon thematicum præcipuorum, good copy, in old binding, 3s. ib. 1759

The index or grammatical analysis of the words contained in this work, occupies nearly half the volume, and appears to be a complete clavis.

- 440 Hagenbuchius Novi Testamenti Glossarium Græco-Latinum, new, sewed, 3s. Tig. 1744

- 441 Herodoti Halicarnassensis Historia, ex edit. Gronovii, FINE PAPER, 9 vola. a remarkably fine set, calf neat, 3l. 12s. Glasg. 1761

"This edition of Herodotus is beautifully printed, and reflects distinguished honour on the University of Glasgow." Dr. Harwood.

- 447 Hill's Hortus Kewensis, with 20 copper-plates of various interesting plants, very fine copy, neatly half bound in calf, 7s. Lond. 1769

- 448 Hesiodi Ascræi Opera quæ extant, Gr. et Lat. in eadem doctorum virorum annotationes et lectiones variæ, e MSS. Palat. a very scarce edition, half bound in brown calf extra, 8s. 6d.

e typograph. H. Commelin. Heidelb. 1591

"This edition of 1591, contains the commentaries of various learned men, with the readings from MSS. in the Palatine library." Dibdin, vol. 1, p. 364.

- 449 Hesiodi Opera, Gr. et Lat. cum indice omnium vocum Græcarum, necnon Grammatica difficiliorum Analytis, a Geo. Pasore, fine copy, neat in vellum, scarce, 6s.
Amstel. Sump. H. Laurentii, 1682

About half the above volume, which is neatly printed, is occupied by Pasor's Grammatical Analysis of all the principal words in Hesiod.

- 450 Hesiodi Opera, Gr. et Lat. ex recensione J G. Grævii, fine copy, in vellum, scarce, 8s. 6d. Amstel. ap. Elzev. 1667

"Grævius has presented us with an original edition; and partly by the help of MSS. and a careful examination of ancient editions, and partly by his own critical acumen, has rectified the text, and supplied some deficiencies, (especially in the scholia,) of Trincavellus'. The latin version is corrected, and subjoined to the work is a 'The-saurus Eruditionis Græcæ.' " Dibdin.

- 451 Hesiodi Ascræi Opera, quæ extant, cum notis et Pasoris indice, opera et studio Corn. Schrevelii, good copy, neat, 6s.

Genev. Chouet, 1651

459 Another, good copy, very neat in calf, 6s. ib. 1651

"This work is greatly praised by John Fabricius, as containing a very useful and incomparable index; also the annotations and emendations of Wolf, among many valuable tracts and commentaries." Dibdin.

460 Isocratis Orat. ad Dominicum, et Panegyricus, cum Demosthenis Orat. Olynth., fine copy, neatly printed, 2s.
Lond. Sumpt. B. Barker, 1725

461 Justini Historia, a Jacob Bongarsio, curious title, &c. a little injured at the edges, and appears to want a leaf or two of the various readings at the end, otherwise a good copy, very scarce, half bound, calf extra, 16s.
Paris, Du Val, 1581

"A rare and valuable edition, collated with the best manuscripts." Dr. Clarke.

"According to Ernesti, Bongarsius, who was the editor, (and whose name appears in some complimentary verses on the Historian by R. Massacus,) has deserved well of his author, by printing this valuable edition from the Cuicean, Puteanean, and six other MSs., accompanied with learned notes, chronological tables, and various readings. A copy of this edition, which was printed by Du Val, is in the Bibl. Harleian., &c. It was neither in the Pinelli nor Crevenna catalogue, and has escaped the notice of De Bure." Dibdin.

462 Justini Historia, cum notis variorum et J. G. Grævii, a remarkably fine copy, neat, 12s. Lug. Bat. 1701

463 Another very good Copy, cum notis variorum et Grævii, calf neat, 8s. Traj. ad Rhen. 1708

"These editions (of 1683, 1701, 1708, &c.) containing the variorum notes and those of Grævius, are much superior to the variorum editions preceding. Grævius was the first man who, on the basis of the Aldine edition, as reprinted by the Juntae, corrected the errors of other editors, and formed the text of Justin, by sober and critical rules. The editions of 1683, 1691, 1701, and 1708, are preferable, as they contain the notes of Faber, Vorstius, and Schaeffer." Dibdin.

English, Greek, and Latin, in parallel columns, with many curious plates, good copy, neat, 6s. 6d. Lond. 1670

This curious work has not only been printed in twelve European languages, but also in Arabic, Persic, Mogul, and Turkish. The author was a protestant divine, born in Moravia in 1592, and died in 1671, aged 80 years. He was a very eminent grammarian, and attempted several improvements in the mode of educating youth.

- 465 Johnsoni Noctes Nottinghamicæ, the original edition, very scarce, Nottingham, 1718.—Also bound with it, Sa-bourn's Latin Grammar, whereto is prefixed, an Essay on the true method of teaching the Latin tongue, from a treatise by Roger Ascham, both these works are very good copies, neat in calf, 14s. Lond. 1738

- 470 Lennep et Valkenaer de Analogia Lingua Gr. cura Scheidii, *fine large copy, neat in vellum, scarce, 18s.
Traject. ad Rhen. 1790*

"The well-directed labours of Hemsterhuis, Valckenaer, Damm, and Lennep," observes Knight, in his Analytical Essay on the Greek Alphabet, "and after them of Villoison and Lord Monboddo, have dispelled the clouds of grammatical jargon that obscured the most important part of the Greek tongue. Those who wish to know the progress and details of these great discoveries," he adds "will consult the printed works of these learned persons, particularly the Analogia Græca of Lennep."

- 471 Luciani Opera Omnia, Gr. et Lat. una cum Gilb. Cognati

Lond. 1778

~ 474 Lucretii Opera, cum interpret. et notis Th. Creech, EDIT.
OPT., 9s. Oxon. 1695

"If ever there was a man fitted for the illustration of this poet, from his taste, enthusiasm, and fondness for the Epicurean philosophy, it was Thomas Creech; whose erudition, research, and correctness in this excellent and scarce work, are acknowledged by every critic from Ernesti to Eichstadt." Dibdin. See also De Bure, who is particular in his account of this valuable edition.

475 Leusdeni Compendium Græcum novi Testamenti, una cum versione latina, fine copy, 3s. 6d. Lond. Osborn, 1729

476 Livii (T. P.) Historiarum Libri, qui supersunt omnes cum integris J. Freinshemii Supplementis; præmittitur vita cedit index studiis Societ. Bipont. Editio accurata. 13 vols. a very fine set, very neatly half bound in calf, and lettd. in 3 places, new, uncut, 4l. 10s. Biponti, 1784

Each of the first twelve volumes of this valuable work is ornamented with a portrait of some eminent Roman character.

"This edition is deserving of much praise." See Dibdin's Classics.

477 Les Lois de la Nature dévoilées, ou Explication des Lois
simples, constantes et generales, établies par le Createur pour donner le mouvement et la vie, de l' Instant où apres la Creation il eut allumé le feu du Soleil et devisé la lumière d' avec les Ténèbres; avec Figures, par J. M.
Huet, M. D, a fine presentation copy, new, uncut, 7s.
Lond. 1800

The above is a large volume of upwards of 500 pages, and is very neatly printed on thick wove paper.

478 Longinus, Gr. et Lat. cura Hudsonii, fine copy, very neat in calf, 6s. Oxon. 1730

"The 2 latter of Hudson, of 1718 and 1730, are the more enlarged editions. The text of Longinus is carefully corrected, and is accompanied by short judicious notes. There are useful indexes, and prefixed to the work is a 'Notitia de Longino ejusque scriptis.'
Some various readings from a MS, of Dr. Moore, then Bishop of Bly, close the volume." Dibdin.

- 479 Luciani Dialogi selecti, Gr. et Lat., ed. Leedes, good copy, neatly printed on fine paper, but with MS. title, and poor binding, 2s. 6d. Lond. 1768

- 480 Luciani Dialogi Selecti, Gr. cum nova Versione Latina et notis.—Ab uno e Patribus (Steph. Moquot) Societatis Jesu, good copy in calf, a scarce edition, 5s.

Lugd. ap. Obert, 1636

The above volume contains upwards of 500 pages. It is divided into 3 parts, with three distinct titles, though bound together in this one volume. The Latin translation is printed on pages opposite to the Greek, and the critical observations are at the end of the book.

- 481 Mangelsdorfii Lexicon Latinæ Linguæ nova Ratione digestum, &c. cum Præfat. Reizii, fine copy, calf gilt, scarce, 16s. Lipsiæ, 1777

The above appears to be a learned and very interesting work: it forms a large volume of upwards of 1200 pages.

- 482 Memoires Historiques et Politiques de la Grand Bretagne, et de l' Irlande, sous les regnes de Charles II., Jaques II., Guillaume III., et Marie, trad. du Chevalier d' Alrimple, 2 vols. fine set, calf extra, 7s. 6d. Paris, 1783

The above is from Prince Talleyrand's Library.

- 483 Mair's Tyro's Dictionary, Latin and English, designed as an easy and speedy method of introducing youth to a general acquaintance with the structure of the Latin language, good copy, neat 3s. Edin. 1763

- 484 Marziale Tradotti da Graglia, with the original Latin text, and notes in Italian and English, vol. 1, fine copy on royal paper, neat in calf, 7s. Lond. 1782

- 485 Maximi Tyrrii Philosophi Platonici Sermones, sive Disputationes XLI., ab Henr. Stephano quam plurimis in locis emendata, fine copy, handsomely half bound in brown calf, extra, scarce, 8s. Paris, ex offic. H. Steph. 1557

"Maximus Tyrius was a Platonic Philosopher, and flourished under the Emperors Marcus Aurelius and Commodus, about A. D. 180. He is an eloquent and pleasing author." Dr. Clarke.

"This amended Latin version of Paccius," says Dibdin in his Classics, "seems to have been taken from a better MS. than the Greek one; it was brought by Lascaris, with many others, from Greece, to the Medici family."

486 Michaelis (J. G.) Observationes Sacræ, in quibus diversi Sacræ Scripturæ utriusque federis locis selectoribus ex lingua Ebræa, &c. : cum exercitatione de Sacrificio Cordis et Cerebri, fine copy of a valuable work, very neat in white vellum. 7s. Traj. ad Rhen. 1738

487 Milner's Practical Grammar of the Greek tongue, wherein the Rules are expressed in English, in the method of text and notes; with a large explanation of elliptical constructions, and a particular account of Dialects; to which is added a Vocabulary, containing one list of anomalous verbs, and another of all the verbs in the New Testament, 2nd edition, enlarged more than one third, fine copy, neat in calf, scarce, 5s. Lond. 1740

"The 2nd edition of 1740 is the best." Dibdin.

"An excellent edition, which comprises Firmicus Maternus and St. Cyprian de Idolorum Vanitate." Clarke's Bibl. Dict.

489 Musæum Criticum, or Cambridge Classical Researches, finely printed, No. 5, new, uncut, (sells at 5s.) 4s. Cantab. 1815

490 Neilson's (W. D. D.) Greek Exercises in Syntax, Ellipsis, Dialects, Prosody, and Metaphrasis; to which is added a concise, but comprehensive Syntax, with improvements, new, bds., 6s. Edinb. 1809

491 Neilson's Key to his Greek Exercises, new, bds. 4s. ib. 1809

492 Nonni in Joannem Metaphrasin excercitationes, sive Aristarchus Sacer, à Dan. Heinsio, Gr. et Lat., EDIT. OPT., fine copy, and very scarce of this edition, neat, 10s. Lug. Bat. ap. Elzev. 1627

493 Another very good Copy, also the best edition, neat, but cut closer than the other, 9s. ib. 1627

"From the many editions through which this work has passed, the public opinion of its worth may be fairly estimated.

Nemus was a native of Pannopolis, in Egypt, and flourished sometime in the 5th century. His Paraphrase, (the above) of St. John's Gospel, in Greek hexameter verse, is all that remains of his works.

He has some important various readings, which have been carefully selected by Mill, Wetstein, Bengel, and Griesbach. The edition of Elzevir, Lug. Bat. 1627, is the EDIT. OPT." Dr. Clarke.

- 494 Nemesius Emesenus de Natura Hominis, Gr. et Lat. post editionem Antverp. et Oxon.; animadversiones, &c. ad-jecit Matthæi, fine copy, and scarce of this edition, new and neat in bds., 10s. Halæ, 1802

The above is considered to be an excellent edition of this work: it is valued by Dr. Clarke, in his Bibl. Dict. at 15s.; see vol. 5, p. 119.

- 495 Ockleii Introductio ad Linguas Orientales, good copy, half bound, 5s. Cantab. 1706

This copy has the autograph of the antiquarian T. B. Richards.

- 496 Ovidii Metamorphoseon, lib. XV. recens. Bersman et varior. with numerous curious wood cuts, good copy of a scarce edition, neat in vellum, 8s. Lips. 1596

- 497 Ovidii Metamorphoseon, with a literal English translation, by Clarke, fair copy, 5s. Lond. 1769

- 498 Another Copy, new, neat, 8s. Glouc. 1790

- 499 Ovidii Metamorphoseon, with the order of construction in parallel columns, and numerous select and valuable notes in English, good copy, but with MS. title, very neat in calf, 6s.

- 500 Oppiani de Piscibus lib. 5. Eiusdem de venatione lib. 4. Oppiani de piscibus, Laurentio Lippio interprete, lib. 5, the four last leaves perforated in one place by a worm, otherwise a most beautiful copy of a very rare edition, neat in calf, 1l. 10s. Venet. in ædib. Ald. 1517

This edition contains, for the First time, the Greek text of the four books upon hunting.

- 501 Oclandi Anglorum Prælia, ab A. D. 1327 ad 1558. Item Elizabetha de pacatissimo Angliæ statu, imperante Elizabetha, compendiosa narratio. Item Kettus sive de Furoribus Norfolciensium Ketto Duce, good copy, half bound, neat, 15s. Lond. imp. Newbury et Bynnenman, 1582

The above is a curious and scarce book. It is printed in the Italic character. The Anglorum Prælia, as well as the Eirenarchia or Elizabetha is in Latin verse, with marginal notes. Ames, in his Typogr. Antiq., after giving an account of the contents of this book, copies, at full length, the very curious letter in English, which follows the title-page, addressed to the Bishops of the Realm, directing that the Angl. Prælia should be publickly read and taught in all grammar and free schools within their several dioceses.

502 Offor's Easy Introduction to Reading the Hebrew Language, with a copious Hebrew and English vocabulary, containing all the words of common occurrence in the Old Testament, with their pronunciation, printed on fine wove paper, new, sewed, 1s. 6d. Lond. 1814

503 Pauli Epistolæ ad Romanos, Titum, et Philemonum, Gr. et Lat., cum varias lectiones, ex codd. MSS. Mosqq., nunquam antea examinatis Scholia Græca, et Animadversiones criticas adjecit C. T. Matthæi; with 2 plates, containing fac-similes of six ancient MSS., new, and very neat in calf, scarce, 8s. Rigae, 1782

504 Pasoris Lexicon Græco-Latinum, in Novum Testamentum, cum Indice Græcarum, et Latinarum Novi Testamenti vocum accuratissimo; item Etyma Nominum Proprium; itemque Analysis Hebræorum, Syriacorum, et Latinorum Vocabulorum, quæ in Novo Testamento uspiam occurrunt, good copy, calf, 4s. 6d. Genev. 1633

505 Another good Copy of the same work, calf, 5s.
Genev. Sumpt. S. Chovet, 1662

506 Another, binding loose, otherwise a good copy, 3s. 6d.
Lond. 1650

507 Persius, (The Satires of,) translated into English verse, with Notes by W. Drummond, M. P., F. R. S.; the Latin text and English version in opposite columns, handsomely printed on fine wove paper, hot pressed, new in bds. (pub. at 7s.), 5s. ib. 1803

"An elegant and faithful translation." Dr. Clarke.

508 Persii Satyræ, or the Satires of Persius, with an English translation, &c. by Stirling, good copy, sewed, 1s. 6d.
ib. 1736

509 Phœdri Fabulæ, cum notis variorum et Laurentio, with good impressions of the numerous plates, fine copy, neat, scarce, 16s. Amst. ap. Janson, 1667

510 Another good Copy, of the same scarce edition, very neat, in white vellum, 16s. ib. 1667

Both these copies have the rare plate at page 276, which Dibdin and De Bure observe is so frequently wanting.

"It is the first of the variorum editions, and the most esteemed." See Harwood, De Bure, &c.

- 511 Palairët's new Royal French Grammar, containing Rules for the pronouncing and writing of the French tongue, with phrases, dialogues, fables, &c. 15th edit. 2s. ib. 1793

- 512 Pomponius Mela de Situ Orbis, a very fine large copy, EDIT. OPT., neat in vellum, 16s. Lug. Bat. 1722

"Of these several editions of Pomponius Mela cum not. varior., I can recommend that printed Lug. Bat. 1722, as a very correct and excellent edition." Dr. Harwood.

- 513 Pomponius Mela de Situ Orbis, cum notis variorum et Gronovii, many plates, fine copy, in calf, scarce, 7s. 6d. Lug. Bat. 1696

To the above are annexed the fragments of Ethicus, Julius Honorius, &c. &c. See Harwood, 4th edit., p. 242.

- 514 Phædri Fabularum, with the Notes of Peter Danet, for the use of the Dauphin, translated into English; also Key and parsing Index, &c., by Bailey, 16th edition, new, neat, 4s. 6d. Lond. 1792

- 515 Philostrati Lemnii Senioris Historiæ de Vita Apollonii, Rhinuccino Interprete, cum Eusebii Cæsarensis adversis Hieroclen, &c. good large copy, with printed marginal references, some of the leaves uncut, in loose vellum, a scarce and curious edition, 6s. Colon. ex. J. Gymin. 1532

- 516 Plauti Comediæ, ex recensione Brunckii, 2 vols., best paper edition, fine set, neat in calf, double lettered, EDITIO ACCURATA, 1l. 8s. Biponti, 1788

The following is Dibdin's account of this valuable edition: "Bipont 8vo, 1779-1788, 2 vols. "The 2nd edition is greatly preferable to the 1st, not only from its typographical beauty, but from having the text corrected by Brunck, who sent the editors a copy of Plautus 'in verbatim antiquam restitutum.' The assistance Brunck afforded the editors, is stated by them in their 'admonition to the reader' (preceding the index of editions,) in very grateful terms. This second Bipont edition is printed in a more delicate and beautiful manner, than are the generality of Bipont Latin Classics." Dibdin, vol. 2, p. 145.

- 517 Plinii (Cæcilii Secundi) Epistolæ et Panegyricus, notis illustrata, very good copy in old calf, 4s. 6d. Oxon. 1677

This Copy has the autograph of Herbert Randolph.

- 518 Plutarchi de Iside et Osiride, Gr. et Eng., recensuit S. Squire, A. M., best large paper, very fine copy, calf, lettered, 12s. Cantab. 1744
- 519 Poetæ Minores Græci, accedunt Observationes Wintertoni in Hesiodum, scarce, binding loose, 3s. 6d. Cantab. ex offic. Hayes, 1700
- 520 Pomponii Melæ de Situ Orbis, cum notis variorum et Gronovii, many plates, fine copy, in calf, scarce, 7s. 6d. Lug. Bat. 1696
- To the above are annexed the fragments of Ethicus, Julius Honorius, &c. See Harwood, 4th edit. p. 242.
- 521 Psålmæ Davidis, Annotationes in eisdem ex Hebræorum commentariis, fine copy, ruled, of a very scarce edition, with printed marginal notes—bound with it is Cantica quæ in Bibliis sparsim leguntur, calf, 5s. Both, Lutet. ex offic. R. Stephani, 1546
- See Dr. Clarke, vol. 5, p. 286.
- 522 Praxis Grammatica ad quosdam Scriptores Græcos congruens et apta, viz. xii. priores Luciani Dialogos, et Isocratis ad Demonicum Orationum admonitoriam, cum interpretatione, &c. fine copy, neat, 2s. 6d. Lond. 1739
- 523 Aliud Exemplar, good copy, 2s. ib. 1739
- 524 Phædri Fabulæ, with an English Translation by Stirling, 1s. 6d. ib. 1766
- 525 Petavii (D.) Rationarium Temporum, in quo ætatum omnium sacra profanaque Historia Chronologicis profanationibus munita summatim traditur, 2 vols. fine set, with many fine plates, neat in calf, 10s. Lug. Bat. 1710
- 526 Parfait Maitre de Langue Francois, ou l' Art de Parler avec Elégance, Facilité, et Clarté, applicable à toutes les Langues, &c. fine copy, new, uncut, 9s. Paris, 1812
- 527 Parkhurst's Hebrew and English Lexicon, without points, in which the Heb. and Chaldee words of the Old Testament are explained in their leading and derived senses. The derivatative words are arranged under their respective primitives, and the meanings assigned to each authorized by references to passages of scripture, and frequently illustrated and confirmed by citations from various authors ancient and modern. Prefixed is a Heb. and Chaldee Grammar, 6th edit. improved, with plates and fine head of the author, (pub. at 1*l.* 10*s.*) *fine copy, new and neat, in bds., 1*l.* 4*s. London. 1811

The Lexicon of Parkhurst is undoubtedly the very best of the kind that has yet appeared.

- 528 Parkhurst's Gr. and Eng. Lexicon, &c. to the New Testament, and plain and easy Gr. Grammar adapted to the use of learners and those who understand no other language than English, royal 8vo, 7th edition, *with portrait, and plates, new and neat, in bds., (published at 1*l.* 11*s.* 6*d.*) 1*l.* 2*s. Edin. 1813

"The Lexicon of Parkhurst is justly popular in this country, and the frequent references to, and extracts from, the best historical, and antiquarian writers, render its perusal extremely amusing. Prefixed to the Lexicon is a short but judicious grammar."

Dibdin, vol. 2, p. 396-409.

- 529 Pasoris (Georgii) Grammatica Græca Sacra Novi Testamenti. In gratiam S. Literatum et Linguae Græcæ Studiosorum nunc primum edita, *fine copy, neat in vellum, very scarce, 12*s. Groningae, 1655

- 530 Another very fine Copy, *half bound, brown calf, extra, very neat, 12*s. ib. 1655

"A very scarce and excellent book. Consult Dr. Gerdes' Florilegium librorum rariorum." Harwood.

- 531 Penn's (Guillaume) Point de Croix, point de Couronne. Discours dans lequel en expliquant la Nature et la Discipline de la Sainte Croix de Christ, auquel il y a ajouté les Temoignages de plusieurs Personnages savant et célèbres, *a beautiful copy, printed on fine wove paper, very neat in calf, lettered, 7*s.* 6*d. London. 1793

- 532 Philomathi Musæ Juveniles, et acclamationes in Maximi Viri Philomathi Musas Juveniles, par *Alexandri Pollini, Florentini, good copy, very neatly printed in the Italic character, frontispiece, in vellum, scarce, 5*s.

Antwerp, ex offic. Plantin, Balhaes, Moletii, 1653

- 533 Plinii (Cæcili Secundi) Epistolæ et Panegyricus curante Joanne Petro Millero, a very fine copy, neatly printed in double columns, on fine paper, similar to the succeeding work, except that both the Epistles and Panegyrics are accompanied by a French translation by M. Desucy, de l'Académie Française, in parallel columns, handsomely bound in calf, lettered, very scarce, 12s. Berolini, 1750

- 534 Plinii Secundi Historiz Naturalis libri 37. Accedit Chrestomathia Indicibus aliquot copiosissimis exposita curante Joanne Petro Millero, neatly printed, in double columns, on fine paper, and a very fine set, good as new, 5 vols. handsomely bound in 3, in calf, very neat, and gilt, scarce, 1l. 8s. Berolini, 1768

The above two numbers are together a particularly fine and commodious set of the whole works of both the elder and the younger Pliny. Pliny the younger was sister's son to Pliny the elder, and was born at Como, a town on the lake Larius, A. D. 62. The famous Quintilian was his instructor in Rhetoric. He was made Consul by Trajan, A. D. 100, and afterwards Proconsul of Bithynia, whence he wrote that famous letter in behalf of the persecuted Christians, which is still extant in his Epistles, with the emperor Trajan's rescript; the only genuine piece of Ecclesiastical antiquity relative to the times immediately succeeding the Apostles, it being written about 40 years after the death of St. Paul. When Pliny died is uncertain, it is thought his death happened a little before, or soon after the death of Trajan, about A. D. 116.

- 535 Histoire Naturelle des Animaux par Pliné, with the Latin text, finely printed, the French Translation being on the opposite page, by P. C. B. Gueroult, Professeur des Langues, 3 vols., a very fine set, handsomely half bound in calf, extra, gilt, scarce, 1l. 4s. Paris, 1802

- 536 Poetæ Minores Græcæ, curâ Wintertoni, EDIT. OPT., good copy, but the bottom ends of a few of the leaves are a little stained, and a small part of one or two leaves at the end a little injured, handsomely half bound, in brown calf, extra, very neat, and scarce of this best edition, 10s. 6d. Cantab. ap. T. Buck, 1652

"This edition of the Minor Greek Poets printed in 1652 by the celebrated Buck, printer to the University, is the most elegant book the Cantabrigian press ever delivered to the public. It is also as correct as it is beautiful." Dr. Harwood.

- 537 Another Copy, curâ Wintertoni, half bound, very neat, ADIF. PRINC., 4s. 6d. Cantab. 1635

- 538 Another, by Winterton, 3s. 6d. ib. ex offic. Hayes, 1760

- 539 Pye's (C.) Classical and Historical Dictionary of Ancient Geography, exhibiting the modern in addition to the ancient names of places, &c. Designed for the use of schools, and of those who are reading the Classics or other ancient Authors, (pub. at 7s.) new, neat in boards, 5s. Lond. 1803

- 540 Porte-feuille de Buonapartè, taken at Charleroi, June 1815, swed, new, 1s. 6d. La Haye, 1816

- 541 Primatt's (W., M. A.) Accentus Redivivi, or defence of Greek Accents, shewing them to be conformable to all Antiquity, &c. beautiful copy on large and thick paper, with a curious folding plate, scarce, very neat in calf, 12s. Camb. 1764

The above was a presentation copy, as a prize from the University of Dublin, to Gabriel Alaturin.

N. B. This work ranks among the most respectable publications on the subject of Greek accents; and the objections of Meherchus, Vossius, Henninus, and other writers on their side of the question are generally allowed to be treated with much candour and able criticism.

- 542 Psalterium Harmonicum, in Hebrew, Greek, Latin, and German, by Hutter, good copy, neat in vellum, a scarce and curious work, 16s. Norimberg, 1602

- 543 Quintilian's Declamationum et dialogo de causis corruptæ Eloquentiæ. Quæ omnia notis illustrantur, a fine copy, very neat in calf, 5s. Oxon. 1692

- 544 Another very good Copy of the same edition, neat in calf, 4s. 6d. ib. 1692

"A beautiful edition." Dr. Clarke.

- 545 Quintilian's (M. F.) Institutionum Oratoriarum. Summâ diligentia ad fidem vetustissimorum codicum recogniti ac restituti. Novæ huic edit. adjecit Fabianarum notarum spicilegium subsissivum Daniel Paræus, accesserunt etiam Quintilianorum declamationes, cum indice accuratissimo, 2 vols. in one very thick one, good copy, in loose vellum, scarce, 10s.

Lond. typ. R. Whitakeri, 1641

The above edition is mentioned by Dr. Clarke in his Bibl. Dict., but seems not to have been known to Dibdin or Harwood.

- 546 Quintus Curtius, cum notis variorum, a very fine copy, neatly bound in prize vellum, frontispiece; map, and curious plates, 14s.

Lug. Bat. Elzevir, 1658

The above was a University presentation copy to Carolo de Givri.

"Very excellent works" says the Bibliographical Dictionary, "to which the name and superintendence of Fischer is no small recommendation."

575 Suetonius stud. Soc. Bipont, fine copy, neat, 6s.

Bipont, 1783

"This edition contains a Notit. Literaria, the fragments of Suetonius, (wanting in Ernesti's edition,) and a very useful index." Dibdin.

576 Suetonii Tranquilli Duodecim Cæsaris, ex Erasmi recognitione, with a fine colophon of the printer, a very good copy, newly and handsomely bound in calf, extra, very scarce, 9s. Paris, ap. Colinæum, 1535

577 Aliud exemplar, cum notis Erasmi, &c., beautiful copy, neat in vellum, gilt leaves, 10s. ib. ap. Colin. 1535

Colinæus is well known to have been a very careful, as well as a learned printer. His edition of this classic seems to be extremely rare.

578 Suetonii Tranquilli XII. Cæsares, ex vetusto exemplari emendationes multis locis, has a few worm holes in one corner, but not to injure the print, otherwise a good copy, very neat in calf, 18s. Ex. offic. R. Steph. Parisiis, 1543

"A rare edition." Dr. Clarke.

"In this edition" says Ernesti, "Stephens first made use of the famous Memmian MS., which may be said to form the basis of the present general text of Suetonius. This edition, therefore, so recommended, will not fail to be purchased by those who are collectors of the classics printed by the Stephens's." Dibdin. See also Fabricius and Maittaire.

579 Suetonius Tranquillus, cum commentariis, notis variorum et Schildio, with plates, frontispiece, and finely engraved heads, BEST VARIOR. EDIT., scarce, fine copy, handsomely bound in calf, gilt, 10s. Lug. Bat. ex offic. Hackii, 1662

"I have read the variorum edition printed at Leyden, 1662, and it is an accurate and well published book." Harwood.

580 Stemmata Latinitatis, or an Etymological Latin Dictionary, wherein the whole mechanism of the Latin tongue is methodically exhibited, upon a new plan, by N. Salmon, 2 vols., ROYAL PAPER, new, in boards, (pub. at 1l. 16s.) 1l. 10s. Lond. 1796

581 Tephilloth (Hebrew Ritual) or daily Prayers according to the order of the Polish and German Jews, as publicly read in their synagogues, and daily used by their families, Heb. and Eng., by A. Alexander, good copy, half bound, in calf, extra, 8s. 6d. Lond. A. M. 5548

- 582 Terentii Comediæ sex elegantissimæ, scholiis marginalibus perquam utilibus, et Theatrorum figuris per elegantibus illustratæ, fine copy, with a curious colophon, and head of Terence, neat in calf, 10s. 6d. Ap. J. Tornesium, 1614

The above appears to be a very scarce edition. It has a life of the author by Donatus, contains many curious wood cuts, and is neatly printed in the italic character.

- 583 Terentius in usum Delphini, good copy, 6s. Lond. 1740

- 584 Themes Francois, ou Exercices Pratique sur les neuf parties du Discours, les Idiômes et les Gallicismes, rédigés suivant l'ordre des réglés établies dans l'Analyse Raisonnée des Langue Anglaise et Francoise, et pour y servir de suite, fine copy, sewed, new, 2s. Paris, 1806

This last is a book of Exercises, Fr. and Eng., adapted to the Analyse Raisonné, No. 303.

- 585 Theophrastus' History of Stones, in Greek, with an English version, and notes, including the modern History of the Gems described by that Author, and of many of the native Fossils. To which are added two letters, I. on the Colours of the Sapphire and Turquoise; II. upon the Effects of different Menstruums on Copper. Both tending to illustrate the doctrine of the Gems being coloured by Metalline Particles, 2nd edit. enlarged by the addition of a Greek Index of all the words in Theophrastus. With the appendix on the Swedish Acid and the stone from which it is obtained, &c., fine large copy, neatly half bound in calf, 7s. 6d. Lond. 1774

- 586 Another particularly fine Copy, very neat, calf gilt, 8s. ib. 1744

"This work is executed in the ablest manner, and deserves the highest praise." Dr. Clarke.—The above is the title, copied nearly at full length.

- 587 Thesaurus Ciceronianus Linguae Latinae, per Ant. Schemmum, ex emendatione Sturmii et Lambini, cum indice, &c., good copy, half bound, very neat in brown calf, scarce, 9s. Argent. 1597

The above is a thick volume of upwards of 1100 pages. There are significations to the words in German, as well as copious Latin explanations.

- 588 Theocriti quæ extant, Gr. et Lat., cum scholiis, a very good copy, neat in calf, with finely engraved frontispiece, scarce, 14s. Oxon. 1699

"A very valuable edition." Dr. Clarke.

De Bure, No. 2560, gives the above edition a very favourable character, and says it is rather rare, forming part of the variorum classics. Dr. Harwood, mentions it as the best 8vo edition of this Author.

589 Theocriti quæ extant, Gr. cum Scholiis; very good copy, neat in rough calf, scarce, 8s. Oxon. 1676

Harles observes this first Oxford edition was composed by the learned Bp. Fell, on the basis of Heinsius's edition.

590 Thucydidis de Bello Peloponesiaco, Gr. et Lat., cum notis ad editionem Duckeri expressi, 2 vols. fine set, new in boards, (sells at 1l. 1s.) 18s. ib. 1809

591 Tryphiodorus's Destruction of Troy, being the Sequel of the Iliad. Translated from the Greek by J. Merrick, of Trin. Col. Oxon. With this copy are also bound up, the work in the original Greek, with the Latin translation, by Merrick, fine copy, in calf, 10s. ib. 1741

"An excellent edition." Dr. Clarke.

Tryphiodorus flourished about 490 years after Christ.

592 Vallæ Laurentii de Linguz Latinæ Elegantiz, with the Treatise de Reciprocatione sui et suus, &c., good copy, neat in calf, scarce, 6s. Cantab. 1688

Laurentius Valla was born at Plaisance in 1415. He was one of those learned men, who, in the beginning of the 15th century, contributed to restore the beauty of the Latin language. He died at Rome, 1465, after having taught the Belles Lettres with great applause at Geneva, Milan, Naples, &c. This work is generally and deservedly esteemed. See Bibl. Dict.

593 Vander Hooghtii Lexicon Novi Testamenti, Græco-Latino Belgicum, very good copy, with frontispiece, neat in vellum, 7s. Amst. 1690

594 Vetus Testamentum Græcum ex versione Septuaginta interpretum. Juxta exemplar Vaticanum Romæ editum, fine copy, neatly half bound, 1l. 4s. ib. 1683

This edition contains the learned preface of the Cambridge edition, by Bishop Pearson, having the initials J. P. suppressed. The above copy has bound with it, the Greek New Testament, printed by Jan-son, Amst. 1639. Thus containing in one volume, the whole of the sacred Scriptures in Greek.

595 Vetus Testamentum Græcum, ex versione Septuaginta interpretum, cum Apocrypha, juxta exemplar Vaticanum, ex editione, L. Bos, 4 vols. Also, Novum Testament, Gr. juxta exemplar Millianum, 1 vol., in all 5 vols., a most beautiful set, new and elegant in russia, super extra, 3l. 10s. Oxon. 1805

596 Vetus et Novum Test. Latinum cum Apocrypha, et Index Biblicus of 32 pa. EDITIO VULGATA. To which are added the Book of Common Prayer in English, and the Psalms in English metre. The Bible is printed by Plantin very neatly as usual, but wants title and 3 leaves, small 4to, 5s. Excud. Antverp. C. Plantin, anno, 1584

597 Valerii Maximi Factorum Dictorumque memorabilium libri novem. Præterea Cæii Titii Probi, in Decimum lib. hujus operis, epitome, &c. Index rerum et verborum insignium in eundem copiosus, good copy, but has some MS. interlineations; neat in the original pannel binding, curiously stamped, with clasps, scarce, 10s. Moguntia (Mayence) ap. Joan. Schoeffer, 1543

Schoeffer, the printer of this work, was the grandson of Faust, the original inventor of printing, and the first who had a patent granted him for the sole printing of some of the classics. This work is in the Italic character, and has a curious colophon both at the beginning and end of the book.

598 Vigerus de Præcipuis Græcæ Dictionis Idiotismis cura Hoogeveen, fine copy, best edition, very neat in calf, 12s. Lips. 1789

For a high character of this valuable work, see Dr. Valpy's Gr. Grammar.

599 Velleius Paterculus, cum selectis variorum notis, A. Thysius edidit, et accurata recensuit, fine copy, neat in vellum, 6s. 6d. Lug. Bat. ex offic. Hackii, 1659

600 Velleius Paterculus, cum variis lectionibus Hudsoni, et Hearnii, a very fine and large copy, neat in calf, scarce, 10s. Oxon. 1711

"This is a correct and well published edition, containing the valuable 'Annales Velleiana' of Dodwell." Dibdin.

601 Virgilius cum Animadversionibus P. Burmanni, 2 vols. in 1, a very good copy, neat in calf, extra, with fine head of the Poet, 14s. Lips. 1774

The critical abilities of Burman are well known. Ernesti highly extols his edition, of which this is a reprint calling it "Omnium principem et canonem Virgilii."

- 602 Virgilii Opera, interpretatione et notis illustravit, ad usum Delphini, with map of the travels of Eneas, new, and very neat, 10s. 6d. Edin. 1812

- 603 Virgilii Maronis Opera. Variorum Autorum Annotationibus illustrata, with numerous printed marginal notes, parallel passages, &c., fine copy, calf gilt, very neat, 6s. Lond. typ. R. Holt, 1687

- 604 Virgilii Maronis Opera, in 2 vols. elegantly printed by Bensley, on fine wove royal paper, without the plates, but a very fine copy, new, in extra boards, uncut, 16s. Lond. ap. Dulau, 1800

"This elegant edition printed by Bensley, which is certainly the most beautiful publication extant of the Poet, is formed on the text of Didot. The typography is a masterpiece of Bensley's press, and the text is supposed to be faultless." Dibdin, vol. 2, p. 234.

- 605 Virgilii Opera omnia cum annotationibus, P. Manutii et G. Fabricii, handsomely half bound in brown calf, extra, very scarce, title a little injured, 7s. Ex. offic. Plantiniana, Lug. Bat. 1595

This edition of Virgil by Plantin, is printed in the Italic letter, and contains references in the margin to parallel passages in Homer, and is accompanied with annotations from Paulus Manutius and G. Fabricius. See Dibdin, vol. 2, p. 326.

- 606 Virgilii Opera ex editione C. G. Heynii excisis disquisitionibus, excursibus et notarum iis, good copy, 7s. Lond. 1811

- 607 Virgilii Opera, cura Hawkey, a particularly fine copy, calf gilt, very neat, scarce, 9s. Dublin, 1745

- 608 Virgilii Bucolica et Georgica, cura Justice, LARGE PAPER, with many fine plates, the whole text engraved on copper-plates, very fine copy, handsomely bound in calf, extra, 12s. Brus. 1757

- 609 Another beautiful Copy, half bound, very neat, uncut, 12s. ib. 1757

This fine work is rarely to be met with on large paper, almost the whole of this kind having been purchased by Catherine, the late Empress of Russia, to whom the work was dedicated, to make presents of.

- 610 Valpy's Grammar of the Greek Language, with Notes, for the use of those who have made some progress in that tongue, new, 6s. Lond. 1811

- 611 Welleri (Jac.) Grammatica Græca Nova, a Abr. Tellero In hac vero novissima editione syntaxin et accentuum rationem breviter et dilucide proposuit Lambertus Bos, good copy, neat in calf, 7s. Amst. ap. Wetstein, 1715

The above appears to be a curious and valuable work. See Dibdin's Classics, article Dictions. Grams., &c.

- 612 White's Diatessaron, sive integra Historia Domini nostri Jesu Christi Græce—Subjungitur Evangelorum Harmonia brevis, fine copy, with plate, bds. uncut, 5s. Oxon. 1800

- 613 Wilson's Elements of Hebrew Grammar, to which is added a dissertation on the two modes of reading, with or without points. With many parts of scripture from the books of Psalms and Isaiah, with translations, MS. notes on some of the leaves, scarce, 9s. Edin. 1802

- 614 Another very good Copy, neat in calf, 10s. 6d. ib. 1783

- 615 Xenophontis Memorabilia et Apologia Socratis, cum Interp. Lat. Luenclavii, et notis variorum, cura Gillman, fine copy, calf, neat, scarce, 7s. Lond. typ. Bowyer, 1720

- 616 Xenophontis Memorabilia, Gr. et Lat., cura Edwards, fine copy, but with MS. title, new, in bds., uncut, 8s. Oxon. 1785

- 617 Another very good Copy, neat, 10s. 6d. ib. 1785

"The various readings at the end of the volume are from the Vatican, Medicean, and Parisian MSS. The editor has diligently consulted the observations of Ernesti, Rhunkenius, and Zeunius, and has displayed considerable erudition and critical ability throughout the performance." Dibdin, vol. 2, p. 355.

- 618 Xenophontis Memorabilia Gr., cura Ernesti, Rhunkenii, et Valcknerii, fine copy, neatly half bound in calf, uncut, scarce, 14s. Lug. Bat. 1772

"Of the editions of Ernesti, that of 1772 is the best, as containing an accurate text, formed on ancient MSS., and accompanied with the excellent observations of Rhunkenius, and Valcknaer, and the conjectures of Reiske." Dibdin, vol. 2.

- 619 Xenophontis de Cyri Institutione, Gr. et Lat., a Luenclavio. Additus est Index rerum memorabilium, good copy, handsomely half bound in brown calf, extra, 8s.

Lond. typ. Redmaine, 1674

The above scarce edition is of the 8vo size, though it appears to be, by the signatures, a small 4to.

620 Xenophontis Philosophi et Historici Clarissimi Opera, quæ quidem Græce extant, omnia in Latinam linguam conversa, fine copy, very scarce, printed in the Italic character, 2 tom. in 1 very thick vol., with curious colophon, neat in vellum, 10s. Basil, ap. Mich. Isingrinium, 1545

621 Yeates' Hebrew Grammar, particularly adapted to Bythner's Lyra Prophetica, with an elegant engraving of the Hebrew Alphabet, sewed, new, 2s. 6d. Lond. 1808

DUODECIMO ET INFRA.

622 Biblia Hebraica sine punctis, Leusdeni, Amst. 1701—Cum Novum Testamentum, Gr. Leusdeni, Amst. 1698—good copies, neat, 1l. 12s.

The above exhibits the original text of the sacred Scriptures both of the old and new Testament, complete in 1 vol.

The Greek Test. is neatly printed, and Dr. Clarke, vol. 1, p. 36, justly styles the Bible a beautiful book—it is indeed finely executed.

623 Biblia Hebraica, cum punctis, et variis lectionibus, Reineci, Kennicotti, et de Rossi, edid. Duoderlein et Meisner, SECOND BEST PAPER, 2 vols. in 1, new, in bds. 1l. 7s.

Lipsiæ, 1793

624 Biblia Hebraica, cum punctis, cura Athias, et Nunnæ Torres, 4 vols. bound in 1 thick vol., a handsomely prin- ted and scarce edition, very fine copy, neat in calf, 11: 12s. Amst. 1705

- 625 Aliud exemplar of the same edition, cut rather closer, good copy, in calf, 11. 8s. ib: 1705

See Dr. Clarke's Bibl. Dict., vol. 1, p. 223.

- 626 Biblia Hebraica, sine punctis, 4 vols. in 2, a remarkably small and neat edition, in calf, 17s. Sine Anno.

- 627 Another Copy of the same edition, the binding of which is stamped with a Bishop's mitre and crook, and the copy has no doubt formerly belonged to some mitred head, 4 vols. in 2, 16s.

- 628 Biblia Græcæ, ex versione Septuaginta Interpretum, edit! Pearson, 3 vols., good copy, in calf, 11: 8s. Cantab. Field; 1665

- 629 Another good Copy, bound in 1 vol. calf, neat, 11. 6s. ib. 1665

The ability of Bp. Pearson, the editor of Field's Septuagint is handsomely noticed by the learned Græbe, in his famous Oxford edition. The value of the typographical labours of Field is familiar to the curious in biblical literature.

"The very learned preface of 19 pages to this edition, by the celebrated Pearson, will interest the biblical student. This was the edition that Mintert made use of in composing his lexicon." Dibdin.

"This edition is well executed and has a very learned preface by Bp. Pearson." Harwood.

- 630 Biblia Græcæ Septuaginta secundum exemplar vaticanum Romæ editum. Cum variis Lectionibus, &c., [A. D. Millio, 2 thick vols., sometimes bd. in 4, a fine set, very neat in calf, 11. 14s. Amstel. 1725 leaves, 18s. Amst. ap. Bleau, 1633*

640 Aliud exemplar, with the Psalms in Dutch, and the Catechism, a very fine copy, but wants pages 3 to 11, or 4 leaves, neatly bound in fish skin; gilt leaves, 10s.
ib. ap. Bleau, 1633

"One of the most beautiful specimens of Greek Typography ever exhibited: the text is in very small, but distinct characters. It is formed on the first Elzevir edition of 1624. It is rarely to be met with in good condition: fine copies bring a high price." Dibdin.

650 Aliud exemplar, a beautiful copy, new and handsomely bound in calf, gilt, 1l. 1s. ib. ap. Wetstein, 1735

"These are very excellent editions, formed on the second of the Elzevir's and Curcellous's, carefully collated with a valuable MS. in the Imperial library at Vienna. The text is elegantly printed, with numerous various readings and parallel passages beneath, and 37 pages of critical notes close the volume. The biblical student will do well to procure so valuable a publication." Dibdin, vol. 1.

651 Novum Test. Grecum, a most beautiful copy, 2 vols. in one, in green morocco, extra, gilt leaves, and ruled with red lines, very scarce, 2l. 2s. Lutet. ex offic. R. Steph. 1546

654 Another Copy, imperfect, wanting 15 leaves, viz. 12 from pa. 274 in vol. 1, title and preface—2, and 1 from pa. 14 in vol. 2, otherwise clean and good, 6s. ib. ap. R. Steph. 1549

"These are the first celebrated editions of Robert Stephens, and are called the 'O mirificam' editions. They are undoubtedly beautiful specimens of Typography, and are justly said by Masch, to be ranked among the rarest books, and to be an ornament to any Library." Dibdin, vol. 1.

It is presumed that finer copies, than the two first above, can scarcely be in existence.

655 Nov. Test. Gr. 2 vols. in one, fine copy, in vellum, 1l. 1s. Lutet. ex offic. R. Steph. Jun. 1568-69

656 Aliud exemplar, vol. 2nd, containing all the Epistles and the Revelations, &c. complete, fine copy, red morocco, extra, gilt leaves, 6s. 6d. Lutet. ex offic. R. Steph. Jun. 1568-69

657 Another, as above, the whole of the Epistles, Revelations, &c. very good copy, red morocco, extra, gilt leaves, and ruled, 6s. ib. R. Steph. 1568-69

"This elegant little edition is formed on the duodecimo editions of 1546-49 by old R. Stephens, with the Types of which it is printed; in seven places, however it copies the fol. edit. of 1550: at the end are 38 pages of various readings. It is called by Masch 'editio nitidissima et emendatissima'. This work in fine preservation is much esteemed. Some copies [the above is of this kind] have the date 568 in the first title-page; these were probably struck off before the 'various readings' were finished printing. An elegant copy of this latter kind is in the Cracherode collection." Dibdin.

659 Nov. Test. Gr. 2 vols. in one, new, neat in vellum, 1l. 11s. 6d. ib. ap. Elzevir, 1624

660 Another Copy, of the same scarce edition, 2 vols. calf, neat, 1l. 1s. ib. ap. Elzevir, 1624

661 Another, 2 vols. in one, a few of the pages a little injured, 14s. ib. ap. Elzevir, 1624

N.B. A copy of this first valuable Elzevir edition, sold at Col. Stanley's sale for 4l. 8s.

662 Nov. Test. Gr., a very good copy, in russia extra, gilt leaves, with very strong silver clasps, 1l. 16s. Lug. Bat. ap. Elzevir, 1633

663 Another, of the same edition, fine copy, calf, gilt leaves, 1l. 10s. ib. ap. Elzevir, 1633

664 Nov. Test. Gr., fine copy of the genuine edition of this date, half bound, neat, 18s. Lug. Bat. ap. Elzevir, 1641

665 Aliud exemplar, also the true edition, fine and large copy, calf, neat, 1l. ib. ap. Elzevir, 1641

668 Aliud exemplar, very fine copy, calf extra, gilt leaves, 1l. 11s. 6d. ib. ap. Elzevir, 1678

"These are the celebrated editions of the Greek Testament published by the Elzevirs; the first edition of 1624, besides being beautifully printed, and extremely scarce, deserves particularly to be noticed, because the text of the Greek Testament, which had fluctuated in the preceding editions, acquired in this a consistency, and seemed during upwards of a century, to be exposed to no future alterations.

It has also acquired the title of 'editio recepta', and the expression 'textus ab omnibus receptus' of the editors, in their preface, has been nearly prophetic. The second edition of 1633 is justly pronounced by Le Long 'editia cunctarum Elzevirianarum præstantissima'.

"Of the edition of 1641 there was a counterfeit, distinguishable by having the text divided into two columns. [The above copies are the true edition.] The last edition, of 1678, has for the first time, the verses printed separately. The type, which is neat and flowing, with contractions, is different from the former, as well as the title-page, and the whole volume contains 703 pages, exclusive of 13 pages of parallel passages, from the Old Testament. It is an elegant little book, formed on the edition of 1641, and of rare occurrence." Dibdin.

669 Nov. Test. Græcum, cura Bowyer, 2 vols. a very fine set, neat in calf, 1l. 6s. Lond. cura, et typ. G. Bowyer, 1763

ib. ap. Bowyer, 1763

671 Another very fine Set, neat in calf, 1l. 10s.—a presentation copy from Bowyer himself, ib. ap. Bowyer, 1763

On the reverse of the title-page of this latter copy is written in a good hand "This book was a present from Mr. William Bowyer, the Printer, and Editor—whose integrity, great learning, and abilities, would have made him considerable in any age, but constitute him one of the ornaments of this."—(Signed) C. N. Pole, June 6th, 1763

672 Another Set, of the same valuable edition, by the celebrated Bowyer, 2 vols. calf, very neat, gilt, a very fine copy, 1l. 8s.
ib. ap. Bowyer, 1763

"This is a valuable edition of the Greek Testament, and now very scarce. Bowyer was an excellent Greek scholar." Dr. Clarke.

"Of the learned printer of this work, Masch says, 'Vir doctus, et Stephanorum tum in arte sua, tum in Græcarum literarum scientia æmulus'. Dr. Harwood has also spoken in terms of high praise of this edition and its editor. The Text is from Wetstein. There is a table of the chief editions printed after MSS., and the latter part of the 2nd vol. contains [consisting of 178 pages] 'Conjectural emendations on the New Testament'. The first edition of the Testament of 1763 is extremely rare." Dibdin, vol. 1, p. 105-6.

This excellent critic and learned printer was born in London, in 1699. He attained the advanced age of 78 years, dying in the year 1777, and left an only son. He appears to have been a man of unassuming manners, as well as active and liberal in assisting the necessitous; and he was of a religious and moral character.

673 Novum Test. Græcum, cura Leusdeni, very good copy,

84 Duodecimo, &c.—Bibl. Liter. Auctor. Classici, et and very neat in calf, map and frontispiece, 9s.

Amst. ap. Wetstein, 1717

674 Another Copy, cura Leusdeni, good, 5s.

ib. ap. Wetstein, 1740

The above two editions correspond in size, and bind up with, the Hebrew Bible by the same author.

675 Nov. Test. Græcum, cum variantibus lectionibus, et parallela scripturæ loca, cura Curcellæi, good copy, very scarce, 12s.

Amst. typ. Blaviana, 1685

676 Aliud exemplar—the four Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles only, cum var. lect., &c. à Curcellæo, fine copy, half bound, brown calf extra, 5s. Amst. ap. Elzevir, 1675

"A very beautiful and correct edition." Dr. Harwood.

"We owe much to Curcellæus," says Wetstein, "for having been the first who excited a spirit of critical enquiry concerning the New Testament."

"To Curcellæus is undoubtedly due the praise of having formed the greatest collection of various readings which had ever before been seen, except in the sixth vol. of Walton's Polyglott. Le Long was ignorant of the editions of 1685 and 1689." Dibdin.

Lond. Impens. J. & R. Tonson, 1714

Lond. excud. Guil. Bowyer, 1715

679 Nov. Test. Gr., ad Probatissimos Codices studiose revisum, adjunctis summariis—locis parallelis, variis lectionibus, et Chartis Geographicis, à Geo. Pritio, very good copy of a finely printed book. There are numerous marginal references, and the work, which appears to be a very scarce edition, consists of upwards of 1100 pages, 14s.

Lipsiæ, 1703

"By Probatissimos Codices, the reader must not understand MSS., but the following editions: Erasmus's, 1522; Stephens's, 1546; one at Cologne, 1549; the Tigurine, 1559; Voegelian, 1564; Beza's 1588; and the Elzevir, 1633." Dr. Clarke, vol. 6, p. 132.

The above edition seems to have escaped Dibdin, Harwood, &c.

680 Nov. Test. Gr., Additis summis rerum et sententiarum, quæ singulis capitibus continentur; variis item lectioni-

Genev. ap. JOAN. CRISPIN, 1553

"L' edition de Geneve de 1553, est recommandable par la beaute de son caractere, qui egale celui de Robert Etienne, et pour avoir ete faite par Jean Crispin, scavant homme, qui d' avocat se fit imprimeur." Colomie's Bibl. Choisie, p. 227.

"An elegant edition, with various readings, parallel places of Scripture, &c." Dr. Clarke.

See also Harles, t. 4, p. 842.

The above is a thick vol. of 796 pages.—Crispin's Colophon to this work is an anchor with a serpent twined about the upper part of it.

691 Nov. Test. Gr.—the Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles only, a finely printed book, with a very curious colophon, vellum, scarce, 6s. Parisiis, Impens. A. Birkmanni, 1549

See Dibdin, vol. 1, p. 66, for an account of this work.

682 Nov. Test. Gr., good copy, calf, 6s. Lond. 1701

This edition has the roots of the Greek verbs in the margin.

683 Nov. Test. Gr., good copy, half bound, very neat, 4s. Amst. typ. Janssonj, 1639

684 Nov. Test. Gr., the title very neatly supplied by MS., good copy, in 8vo, half bound, very neat, 6s. 6d. Antw. ap. Plantin, n. d.

685 Nov. Test. Gr., juxta exemplar Wetsteinii, cura Dakins, with Ewing's Gr. and Eng. Lexicon, containing all the words in the Gr. Test., fine copies, new, in boards, 12s. 6d. Lond. 1819

686 Another Copy, as above, cura Dakins, but no Lexicon, neat, 5s. ib. 1812

687 Nov. Test. Gr., collated with the most approved MSS., with select Notes in English, to which are added, a Catalogue of the chief editions of the Gr. Test., and a List of the most esteemed Commentators and Critics, by E. Harwood, 2 vols., a fine set, new, and very neat in calf, 12s. Lond. 1776

"It is not improbable, that this critical edition contains more of the ancient and genuine text of the Gr. Test., than those that are in common use." Marsh's Michaelis, vol. 2.

The present Copy has the arms and name of Abraham Spalding.

- 916 Rollin's Histoire Romaine, with maps, &c. 16 vols., very fine set, neatly bd. in calf extra, 3£ 12s. Paris, 1758.

The above appears to be an excellent edition of this valuable work, and it is a particularly good set. The 2nd vol. however, though the Paris edition, as the others by Estienne, and a fine copy, is printed 1739, but well unites the set, being very little different from the rest.

- 917 Rollin's Historie Ancienne des Egyptiens, des Carthagenois, des Assyriens, des Babylonians, des Medes, et des Perses, des Macedonians, et des Grecs, 13 vols. a fine set. with plates, very neat in calf, 3£ 10s. A Paris, 1788.

- 918 Rollin de la Jeunesse, ou Mouceaux choises des Histoires Ancienne et Romaine de Rollin, 2 vols. sd. new, with plates, 8s. Paris, 1809.

Rollin is perhaps not less remarkable for his great abilities as a historian, than for the pious sentiments which pervade his works, which may be put it is believed, with safety and advantage into the hands of the learned and experienced, or the youthful reader.—

The Author was born in the year 1661, and after an honourable life, died about the age of 80, in the year 1741.—His works have met with universal approbation, and have been translated into various languages.

- 919 Real (St) Œuvres de—or the complete works of Saint Real, revue, corrigée, rangée dans une meilleur ordre, et augmentée, 8 vols. fine set, very neat, 1£. 8s. Paris, 1757.

A complete set of the works of the celebrated Abbe St Real, appears to be very scarce.

- 924 Rowley's Sodalis Discipulis. The Scholar's Companion, or a little library, Heb. Gr. & Lat., containing all the Interpretations of the Hebrew and Greek Bible, in Latin and English; "not only for the ease of the learned, but also that the unlearned may come to the knowledge of both Testaments, in the Original Tongues," good copy, calf, neat, and scarce, 8s. Lond. 1648.

- 925 Another good copy, in sheep, 7s. Lond. 1673.

The above curious work may be truly said to contain Multum in Parvo, being a Dictionary of both the Hebrew Bible, and the Greek Testament. The vol. consists of 796 pages.

Amst. et L. Bat, Elzev. et Bleau, 1629, &c.

This very curious collection consists of accounts Historical and Geographical, of the different Empires, Kingdoms and Provinces, of various parts of the Universe, many of which were written by the most eminent scholars of the seventeenth century.

927 Sallustius, good copy, very neat and gilt, double lettered, scarce, 10s. 6d. Edin. 1755.

"This most beautiful edition of Sallust was purposely printed for the prize then offered by the University of Edinburgh, and deservedly obtained it. I have read it through five times, and have not observed a single error,"——Dr Harwood.

“A beautiful and correct edition.”—Dr Harwood.

“This is a beautiful and desirable edition. A copy of it was purchased [so long ago as] at the Pinelli sale, No. 7515, by Lord Spencer, for 1£. 3s”.
 —Dibdin.

ENGLISH.

Viz. Biblical Literature, History, Biography, Antiquities, Typography, Bibliography, &c., including many articles of great rarity and interest.

FOLIO.

- 978 BIBLE (the Holy) translated by Miles Coverdale, with many curious cuts, the very first edition ever printed in the English Language, engraved title page, &c., extremely rare, 12*£*. 1535

The above is a very good clean copy, of this rare edition of the Sacred Scriptures, 6 leaves at the end are supplied with an edition of a rather more modern date, but by the same translator.

- 979 Another Copy of the same scarce edition, made complete at the beginning and end with an early Tindale's translation, very neat in calf extra, 7*£*. 7*s*. 1555.

"This is a precious and exceedingly rare vol. Foreign Bibliographers do not fail to notice its great rarity and intrinsic value."—Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc.

- 980 Bible (the Holy) translated by T. Mathews, black letter, fine copy, MS. title, and has 8 leaves at the end of the Revelations neatly inlaid from another ancient copy, strongly and handsomely bd: in calf extra, exceedingly rare, 8*£*. 8*s*. 1537.

N. B. There appears to be no doubt that the above rare and very ancient copy of the Scriptures, is the second Bible ever printed in the English Language.—See Lewis's History of the English translations of the Bible, from pa. 109 to 112, where this Bible is fully described.

- 981 Bible in Englishe, that is to say the Content of all the Holy Scripture both of the olde and newe Testaments, with a prologue hereto, by Thomas Abp. of Canterbury, very neat in calf, and very rare, 6*£*. 6*s*.

Printed by Edward Whitchurch, 1539.

This is styled King Henry the 8th's Bible, and is so lettered. It received such designation in consequence of this king's edict, that a copy of this edition of the Sacred writings should be constantly kept in every of the established Churches throughout the Kingdom. The above is a good copy, though a few of the leaves are a little mended. It has the curious frontispiece taken from Lewis's History of Printing, and appears to be quite perfect, including the tables and calendar.—At the conclusion of the tables is the following:—"The end of the Newe Testament and of the whole Byble, finished in April, Anno MCCCCXXXIX."

116 English. Folio.—viz. Biblical literature, Hist., Biog.

- 982 Bible (the Holy) translated by Tindal, good copy, with numerous curious woodcuts, handsomely and strongly bd. in calf, very scarce, for 4£ 4s.

London, printed in the year 1549.

The above scarce edition is made compleat at the beginning and end with about 10 leaves, neatly inlaid, from another ancient copy.—MS. title to the Old Testament, but has the original curiously engraved frontispiece, and also the original title to the New Testament.—See Lewis for a particular description.

- 983 Bible,—that is the Holy Scriptures contained in the olde and newe Testament, 2 vols. very neat in calf, 3£. 13s. 6d.

Imprinted at London, by Christopher Barker, 1585.

The title page of the first vol. of the above is a reprint, but the title page of the New Testament is the original.—It has also the frontispiece, small map, &c., and is altogether a fine set.—This was the copy of the celebrated Dr Stukely, the friend of the great Newton: his arms and name appear in each vol.

- 984 Bible, the Holy—Purver's new and literal translation of, with notes, critical and explanatory, 2 vols., very good set, printed on fine wove paper, neat in rough calf, 3£. 3s.

London. 1764.

- 985 Another copy, vol 2., containing the New Testament complete, and the Books of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, Solomon's Song, and all the prophets except Zechariah and Malachi, fine copy, neat in calf extra, 1£. 1s.

London. 1764.

Booth, very fine copy of a valuable and rare work, calf, neat, 3£. 3s. Lond. 1700.

"This Work, which is now very scarce, and in high reputation for its general correctness, has two maps, one of ancient Sicily according to the description of Philip Cluverius, and another of ancient Greece, expressing especially, the places mentioned in Thucydides. — Dr. Clark, vol. 7. p. 69.

- 1026 Declaration (a large) concerning the late Tumults in Scotland, from their first original, together with a particular deduction of the seditious practices of the prime leaders of the Covenanters, collected out of their own foul acts and writings, by which it doeth plainly appear, that Religion was only pretended by those leaders, but nothing less intended by them —By the King, (Charles 1st,) title a little injured, otherwise a good copy, with a beautiful and rare portrait of the King, by Stent, calf, 12s.
- 1027 Evelyn's (J. F. R. S.) Sylva, or a Discourse on Forest Trees, and the propogation of Timber, to which is annexed Pomona, or an appendix concerning Fruit Trees, (published by express order of the Royal Society,) and all which in this second edition, are much enlarged and improved, fine copy, calf, 18s. Lond. 1670.
- N. B. The above is particularly curious, as being a presentation copy from the celebrated Evelyn himself, to Dr. Cloone, and as having a memorandum to that effect, with the Author's own, and very neat signature, attached.
- 1028 Another, and very fine Copy of the same edition, but without Evelyn's Autograph, for 12s. Lond. 1670.
- 1029 Epistles from the Yearly Meeting of the People called Quakers, held in London, to the Quarterly and Monthly Meetings in Great Britain, Ireland, and elsewhere, from their commencement in 1675, to 1759, inclusive, with an index to the principal subjects of advice, fine copy, calf, neat, 8s. Lond. 1760.
- 1030 Another Copy, new, unseut, 9s. ib. 1760.
- 1031 Euclide—The Elements of Geometrie of the most auncient Philosopher of Megara, faithfully now translated into the English tounge, by H. Billingsley, citizen of London, whereunto are annexed certaine scholies, annotations, and inventions of the best Mathematicians both of time past and of this our age, with a very fruitful preface by M. J. Dee, specifying the chiefe mathematicall sciences, what they are, and whereunto commodious: where also are disclosed, certaine new secrets, mathematicall and mechanical, untill these our dayes, greatly missed: a remarkably fine and complete copy, very neat in calf, with the rare folio portrait of J. Day, and the curious frontispiece, very scarce, for 1*£.* 11s 6d.

Imprinted at London, by John Daye, dwellynge over Oldersgate, beneath St. Martin's, 1570.

- 1032 Another Copy, MS. title, and without the portrait of Daye, otherwise complete, 15s.

Imprinted at London by J. Daye, 1570.

" This is the very first English Translation of Euclid, and an extraordinary attempt for the time, when mathematical studies were little known and little valued; at such a time, and in such circumstances, to find a citizen of London undertaking such a work, and executing it so ably, may well be deemed a very extraordinary matter. Prefixed to this translation is a preface, by the famous Dr. John Dee, at the conclusion of which is a whole sheet, exhibiting at one view, what he calls the Ground plot of his mathematical preface: This preface is a very curious work, and contains ample proof that Dr. Dee was an adept in mathematical science. Besides the preface he added much important matter to different parts of the work. To this edition is added a 16th Book by Flussas, and a briefe treatise of mixed and composed regular solids. On the reverse of the last leaf is a fine wood cut of J. D. (the printer) with this legend, " Liefc is Deathe and Deathe is Liefc."——Dr Clark's Bibl. Dict., vol. 7. p. 76.

- 1033 Erasmus's Paraphrase upon the Gospels, and upon the first 26 chapters of the Acts.—MS. title, a small part of 2 leaves wanting, and a few others a little injured, but otherwise a very good and clean copy, black letter, forming a very thick vol., newly and handsomely bd. in calf, 16s.

Imprinted at London by Ed. Whitechurch, 1548.

The above curious and early printed English book is translated from the Latin of the celebrated Erasmus, by Nicholas Udall.—There is a date at the conclusion of Udall's preface or dedication, to Q. Catherine, wife of Henry 8th, which stands thus—Given from London, the last daie of September, in the yere of our Lorde, 1545.—The Book, which contains a very ancient version of the original text, and large commentaries by Erasmus, is neatly printed in the black letter, many of the Capitals being curiously engraved on wood.

- 1034 Evelyn's Discourse on Medals, ancient and modern, together with some account of Heads and Effigies, of famous and illustrious persons in sculp and Taill Douce, of whom we have no medals extant, &c., good copy uncut, with fine impressions of the plates, for 14s. Lond. 1697.

In the above valuable work " is handled in the first book, whether any war be just ; in the 2nd, is shewed the cause of war, both just or unjust ; in the third, is described what in war [according to the Author's views] is lawful, that is unpunishable ; with the annotations digested into the body of every chapter," &c.

- 1647 Guicciardini's Historie of the Warres of Italie, and other parts, continued for many yeares under sundry Kings and Princes, together with the variations and accidents of the same, divided into 20 Books, and also the arguments with a table at large, expressing the principall matters through the whole historie, reduced into English by G. Fenton, remarkably fine copy of a handsomely printed book, very neat in calf, 1£. 4s.

Imprinted at London by T. Vautroulier, for Wm. Norton, with his rebus, Sweet-William growing through a ton, with Nor upon it, 1579.

This Copy corresponds exactly with Ames's account of the Work in his typographical Antiquities. He copies the title at full length pretty much as above, and says, Vautroulier was a most curious printer, as will be evident to any that look into his books. He was indeed both a scholar and a printer. He came from Paris, or Rome, into England, about the beginning of Queen Elizabeth's Reign, and first settled his printing office in Black Friars.—See Ames's Typographical Antiquities, p. 352.—The present first English edition, is very scarce.—This copy has the arms and name of J. E. Blackett, Newcastle.

- 1048 Grew's description of the Rarities, natural and artificial. belonging to the Royal Society, and preserved at Gresham College, with 31 large and curious copperplates, good copy, for 9s. Lond. 1681.

Bound up with the above curious work, also, is the same Author's Comparative Anatomy, &c.

- 1049 Howgill's (Francis, one of the very early and valuable Members of the Society of Friends) collected Works of, neat in calf, MS. title, very scarce, for 14s. Lond. 1676.

A thick vol. of 193 sheets.

- 1050 Hume's History of England, Bowyer's splendid edition, 10 vols. royal folio, elegantly bd. in 5, in Russia super extra, with joints, for 55£. Lond. Bowyer, 1806.

The present set is particularly valuable from containing early, and most beautiful impressions of the very interesting plates, which are executed by the most eminent English Artists.—The following testimony is inserted in the first vol. in Bowyer's own hand writing:—"I do hereby certify that this copy of my publication of Hume's History of England, is a part of the very first 12 copies taken off the copperplates."

"Robert Bowyer."

- 1051 Howel's Survey of the Signorie of Venice, being a History of that Republic, of her admired Policy, and method of Government, and of the Dukes, &c., with fine impression of the very curious frontispiece by Vaughan, containing view of the city, with "Thus free from all Alarms, I rest in Neptune's Arms," good copy, 7s. 6d. Lond. 1651.

- 1052 Howel's Institution of General History, or the History of the World, being a complete body thereof, from the beginning of the World, till the monarchy of Constantine the Great, with the forms and models of Government, &c. &c., sec. and best edition, 3 large vols., very good set, 2£. 2s.

Lond. 1680.

A valuable and interesting work,—the above copy belonged to T. Sharp, D. D. (author of Elohim and Berith) his arms and name appear in each vol.

Lond. 1726.*
- 1073 Lutheri Colloquia Mensalia; or, Dr. Martin Luther's Divine Discourses at his Table, &c., which in his life time he held with divers learned men (such as were Philip Melancthon, Caspaius, Justus Jonus, Johannes Forsterus, and others,) containing Questions and answers touching Religion, and other main points of doctrine, as also many notable Histories, and all sorts of learning, comforts, advices, prophecies, admonitions, and directions. Collected first together by Dr. Antonius Lauterbach, and afterwards disposed into certain common places by John Aurifaber, Dr. in Divinitie. Translated out of the high. Germaine into the English Tongue, by Captain Henrie Bell, with a beautiful whole length portrait, of Luther, by Trevethen, fine copy of, neat, very rare, for 1£. 14s. London. 1652.

The publisher of this catalogue has not been able to meet with a single copy of the above rare work in the numerous examinations that have been made in the catalogues of our great Booksellers. A reprint was published in the year 1791, which already appears also to have become scarce; only one copy has been met with, in the catalogue of Longman & Co. 1816, at 1l. 16s. which is since gone.

The celebrated Martin Luther, one of the most illustrious as well as most early of the Reformers, was born at Isleben, in Saxony, in the year 1483. He entered into the order of the Augustines, at Erfurth, whence he removed to Wirtemberg, being appointed, by the Elector of Saxony, professor of Theology and Philosophy in the University, just formed there by that Prince.—He visited Rome in the year 1512, where it is supposed he received his first disgust of the Romish Ecclesiastical Government. After a life of great usefulness and zealous piety, he died in the year 1546, and was buried at Esleben, his native town.

1075 Leigh's (Edw. M. A. of Magdalen Hall, Oxford,) Treatise of Religion and Learning, and of Religious and Learned Men, good copy, very neat in calf, double lettered. London. 1726.

1076 Lightfoot's (Dr. J.) Harmony and Chronicle of the New Testament. The text of the four Evangelists methodized, the acts of the Apostles analyzed—Order of the Epistles manifested—Times of the Revelations observed. All illustrated with variety of observations upon the chief difficulties Textual and Talmudical. With an additional Discourse concerning the fall of Jerusalem, and the condition of the Jews in that land afterwards, good copy, very neat in calf, 8s. London. 1655.

N. B. The above interesting work by the celebrated and learned Dr. Lightfoot, having been printed during the Commonwealth, contains also a serious dedication to Oliver Cromwell, and another to his Council.

1077 Locke's Essay concerning the Human Understanding, 3rd edition, (and supposed to be the last published in the Author's life time) very good copy, with fine portrait by Vanderbank, very neatly bd., and double lettered, for 12s. London. 1695.

- 1078 Mede's (Joseph B. D.) Works of the pious and profoundly learned, vol. 2, wherein are contained, 1st, Clavis et Commentationes Apocalyptica. 2nd, Opuscula nonnulla ad Rem Apocalypticam Spectantia. 3rd, A Paraphrase and Exposition of Peter, 2nd Epistle, chap. 3. 4th, The Apostacy of latter times. 5th, Daniel's Weeks, with two other Tracts upon Daniel. Corrected and enlarged according to the Author's own MS., good copy, large paper, with 2 fine engravings, 14s. Lond. Royston, 1668.

The Works of Mede are becoming every day more interesting, from the great and important Events (the subject of Prophecy) of which they so ably treat.

- 1079 Miscellanea, being a collection of the most interesting subjects of ancient time; the first book printed in Italics from the black letter; 2 vols. in one; wants title, and a leaf or two of the index, clean copy, very rare, 1£. 11s. 6d.

The above was the copy of Lady Anne Agnes Erskine, (Mother of Lord Erskine,) whose name and residence, engraved, are attached to the cover. The work itself is a most curious collection of interesting matter, and appears to have been printed at a very early period of queen Elizabeth's reign, but from the absence of the title page, it is difficult exactly to ascertain the date. At the beginning of the first volume is the following introduction to the dedication: "To the right honourable and "hys singular good lord, Lord Russell, Earle of Bedforde, one of the "Queene's most honourable privy counsell, G. A. wyssheth health and "peace in Christ Jesu." The work contains several curious wood cuts; at the beginning of the second volume is one particularly curious and fine.

The leaves only being numbered, and not the pages, accounts for the following reference at the beginning of the table of Notable Things—"thys letter "A signifyeth the first side of the leaf, and the letter B signifyeth the "second syde of the same."

- 1080 Martyr's (Peter) most learned and fruitful commentaries on the Epistle of Paul to the Romans, black letter and engraved frontispiece, with a capital impression of the folio portrait of John Daye, the printer, engraved on wood, very fine and perfect copy, hf. bd. very neat, 1£. 4s. Imprinted at London by John Daye, dwelling in Aldersgate, beneath St. Martins. 1568.

N. B. The above portrait is about the size of the whole folio page. It is one of the Grainger Series, and is very scarce, being often cut out, when the book itself is to be met with. The Portrait alone is considered to be worth at least 10s. 6d. The present copy of the Book has the engraved name and arms of the Rev. Thos. Huntingford,

- 1081 Memorials and Characters of above 200 eminent and worthy persons, of both sexes, from the year 1600 to the present time, interspersed with the lives of several learned men, which have been written during that period. The whole compiled from the most reputable Authors, whose names are prefixed to each life and character. To which is added an appendix of monumental inscriptions, in Latin and English, scarce, fine copy, very neat in calf lettered, 1£. 4s.

Lond. 1744.

- 1082 Morant's History and Antiquities of the county of Essex, compiled from the best and most ancient Historians, from ♦ Doomsday Book, Inquisitions post mortem, and other the most valuable records and manuscripts, part 1, containing the History of Chelmsford, and of Chelmsford hundred, and of Witham Town, and Witham hundred, as far as pa. 152, with a beautiful view, engraved by Vertue, of Leyder Marney Hall, in Essex, and a descriptive map, very fine copy, newly and neatly bd. in calf, lettered, 16s.

Lond. 1763.

N. B. The above has the autograph of J. Allen, Trin. Coll. Cambridge.

- 1083 Moreri's, &c. Historical, Geographical, and Poetical Dictionary, being a curious miscellany of Sacred and Prophane History, very good and complete copy of a work which contains much valuable information, 2 vols. in 1 in calf, scarce, for 16s.

Lond. 1694.

N. B. The above is a large, well and very closely printed vol. consisting of about 1200 pages.

- 1084 Motherby's Medical Dictionary, or general Repository of Physic, containing an explanation of the Terms, and a description of the various particulars relating to Anatomy, Physiology, Physic, Surgery, Materia Medica, Pharmacy, &c. &c. &c. Each article according to its importance, being considered in every relation to which its usefulness extends in the healing art, very fine and large copy, and very neat in calf extra, for 1£. 11s. 6d.

Lond. 1775.

- 1085 Nicholson's (Wm. Bp. of Gloucester) David's Harp strung and tuned; or, an easy Analysis of the whole book of Psalms, cast into such a method that the sum of every Psalm may quickly be collected and remembered, with a devout meditation or prayer at the end of every Psalm, framed for the most part out of the words of the Psalm, and fitted for several occasions, fine copy, very neat, scarce, 12s.

Lond. 1662.

N. B. The above has the Autograph of Henry Bradshaw, which appears to be about the age of the book, and of Peter Haddon, late Rector of Leeds, in Yorkshire.

- 1086 Newman's (S.) large and complete Concordance to the Bible in English, according to the last translation. Now this second impression corrected and amended in many things formerly omitted, both for the good of Scholars and others : far exceeding the most perfect that ever yet was extant in in our language, both in ground work and building, very good and perfect copy, newly and very neatly bd. in calf lettered, scarce, 18s. Printed for Thos Daves and Andrew Crooke, and are to be sold at the Green Dragon, in St. Paul's Church Yard. 1650.

- 1087 Original Letters and Papers of State addressed to Oliver Cromwell, concerning the affairs of Great Britain. From the year 1649 to 1658. Found among the political collections of John Milton, (the Poet) and now first published from the originals, by John Nicholls, M. A. S. fine copy, very neat in calf, and very scarce, for 1£. 1s.

Lond. Bowyer, 1763.

Milton was Secretary of State to Oliver Cromwell, during which time a great many curious letters were received by the Secretary, concerning the Dissenters, &c., and are to be found with many others very curious, in this collection.

N. B. The above work does not form a part of Milton's Prose Works, which now sell at about 3 Guineas.

- 1088 Owen's Exercitations on the Epistle to the Hebrews, 'also concerning the Messiah, wherein the promises concerning him to be a Spiritual Redeemer of Mankind are explained and vindicated, his coming and accomplishment of his work, according to the promises, is proved and confirmed, &c., and the whole œconomy of the Mosaical Law, Rites, Worship, and Sacrifices, is explained, &c., very good copy, and very neat in calf, for 16s. Lond. 1688.

- 1089 Ogilby's Æsopics, or Fables of Esop paraphrased in verse: adorned with sculpture, and illustrated with annotations. The numerous fine plates, are generally, if not wholly, by Hollar. The 2 collections of Fables, by Ogilby, are in this vol. together, very neatly hf. bd. in Russia extra, with fine portrait of Ogilby by Faithorne, for 1£. 4s. Lond. 1665 & 1668.

N. B. The first collection of these Fables by Ogilby consists of 210 pages. The second collection it is believed, is seldom found bound with the first, nor is it called a second vol., but " Æsopics, or a second collection of Fables." — In the above copy this last collection consists of about 230 pages, wanting a leaf at the end; title is wanting to the first, but there is a title to the second, and the paging begins again, this second being printed 3 years after the first, many of the plates (some of which however are rather injured) appear to be proofs.

- 1090 Prynn's Historie of King John, King Henry 3rd, Edward 1st, &c. &c., good copy, large paper, 2£. 2s. Lond. 1679.

- 1091 Prynn's Historie &c., of our British, Roman, Saxon, Danish, Norman, and English Kings, &c., very fine copy, and very neat in calf, for 7£. 17s. 6d. Lond. 1676.

Or this and the above together for 2£.

The above 2 vols. by Prynne, a Barrister of Lincoln's Inn, are sometimes called, (though each complete in itself,) the 2nd and 3rd vols. of Prynne's History of England; which, when accompanied by the other vol. are hardly to be obtained for less than 50*l*. The last vol. here mentioned, is one of the two which are so exceedingly scarce, nearly the whole impression having been consumed by Fire.

- 1092 Parival's History of the Iron Age, translated into English by Harris, 2nd edition, corrected and enlarged, but without portraits, good copy, bds., 5s. 6d. London. 1657.

- 1093 Pliny's Historie of the World, commonly called the Historie of C. Plinius Secundus, translated into English by Dr. Philemon Holland, 2 vols, bd. in 1, *very good and perfect copy with the original frontispieces, very neat in calf, scarce, for 2*l*. 12s. 6d.* Imprinted at London by Adam Islip, for G. B. 1601.

The above translation of this interesting and valuable Author, by Dr. Holland, is the only one that has ever appeared in the English Language.

- 1094 Plott's (R. LL.D.) Natural History of Oxfordshire, with large map and other plates, *fine copy, handsomely bd. in extra, 2*l*. 10s.* Oxford, 1677.

This copy came from the British Museum, and was also once the property of Wm. Herbert, the editor of Ames's Typographical Antiquities, whose autograph it bears, finely executed.

- 1095 Penn's (W.) Works, a complete collection of, to which is prefixed a Journal of his life, with many original Letters and Papers, 2 vols. a fine set, *very neat in calf, scarce, for 2*l*. 12s. 6d.* London. 1726.

- 1096 Penn's (W.) Select Works, to which is added a Journal of his life, *very fine and large copy, neat in calf, scarce, for 2*l*. 2s.* London. 1771.

N. B. The above complete edition, and the Select Works of the celebrated Wm. Penn, from the great demand that has been for them, arising doubtless, from their great and just merit, are become very scarce and difficult to be met with. There was afterwards an edition of the Select Works published in 5 vols. 8 vo., which is likewise become so scarce that a set is charged 5 Guineas, by the Publisher, Wm. Phillips, of London.

- 1097 Penn's (W.) Christian Quaker, and his divine Testimony vindicated by Scripture, Reason, and Authorities, against the injurious attempts that have been lately made by several adversaries, with manifest design to render him odiously inconsistent with Christianity and Civil Society; in 2 Parts. The 1st more general, by W. Penn;—the 2nd more particular, by G. Whitehead. Some of the corners a little injured, calf, scarce, 10s. 6d. London. 1674.

N. B. The part by W. Penn consists of about 360 pages, and that by G. W. of about 360.

- 2002 Reeves's God's Plea for Nineveh, or London's precedents for mercy, very good copy, and very neat in calf, a curious work, for 1*l.* 1s. Lond. 1687.

Below, in his Anecdotes of Literature and scarce books occupies about 5 pages in describing, and making extracts from this rare, as well as very curious, publication. The following are parts of his observations &c. (vide vol. 3, pa. 8. &c.) "In this very uncommon book there is discovered a great strength of mind and powers of imagination, though clouded and disfigured by a very quaint style and uncouth phraseology." He then gives specimens and extracts occupying 2 or 3 pages, and adds: "These discourses were held in such esteem, that an abridgement of them was published soon afterwards, with the following title—London's Remembrancer, a Call and Pattern for true and speedy Repentance, being an abridgement of the many severe Sermons by Thomas Reeve, B. in Divinity, intitled God's Plea for Nineveh—"The only reasonable Work that can be done in this day."

- 2003 Rycaut's (P. late Ambassador to the Turkish Court) Present State of the Ottoman Empire, "containing the Maxims of the Turkish Police, the most material points of the Mahometan Religion, their Sects and Heresies, their Convents and religious Votaries, and their military Discipline, with an exact computation of their forces both by land and sea, illustrated with divers pieces of sculpture representing the variety of habits amongst the Turks," very good copy in old binding, with fine impressions of the plates, for 5s. Lond. 1668.
- 2004 Rycaut's (P. as above) Lives of the Popes, from the time of our Saviour, Jesus Christ, to the reign of Sixtus 4th, written originally in Latin, by Baptista Platina, a native of Cremona, and the same History continued from the year 1471, to this present time, wherein the most remarkable passages of Christendom, both in Church and state, are treated of and described: 2nd edit., translated into English by Sir Paul Rycaut, fine copy, with Portrait of Rycaut, by R. White, scarce, and neat in calf, for 18s. Lond. 1688.

- 2005 Rushworth's Historical Collections, 8 vols., vol. 6 has 6 leaves in it beautifully supplied by MS. so as to be perhaps, rather an ornament than otherwise to the work, with fine impressions of the portraits by Stent, R. White, and others, and another large and very curious plate, good set, neat in calf lettered, 7£. 10s. London. 1659.

"This is a very laborious compilation, and highly useful in historical inquiries relative to that period."—Dr. Aikin, vide Biog. Dict. vol. 8, pa. 660.

Rushworth was a native of Northumberland, and was born about the year 1607. His parents were natives of Yorkshire, of good families, being nearly allied to the Fairfaxes. He sat for Berwick in Richard Cromwell's Parliament, in 1658, and was again chosen for the same place in 1660, and was elected one of the clerks of the new council of State. After the restoration of Charles 2nd, he presented to him several of the books of the privy council of the former reign, which he had preserved from destruction, for which he received the thanks of the King. After experiencing various reverses, and some difficulties, he died at the advanced age of 83, in the year 1690. He had several daughters, of respectable characters, one of whom was married to Sir Francis Vane.

- 2006 Report, together with Minutes of Evidence, and Accounts, from the Select Committee on the high price of gold Bullion, ordered by the House of Commons to be printed, fine copy, sewed, uncut, contains 232 pages, 7s. London. 1810.

The above appears to contain much interesting information.

- 2007 Rapin's History of England, and [Tindal's Continuation, with monuments and medallion History, by Houbraken, Vertue, &c., and many other maps, portraits, &c., in fine preservation, and very neat in calf; also the Acta Regia, fine copy, 1 vol., this being an important addition to the valuable History of England, by Rapin, in all 6 vols., for 18£. London. 1732, &c.

N. B. The following is the chief part of the title of the Acta Regia, mentioned above. The Acta Regia is "grounded upon the Records, which by order of King William, Queen Anne, and King George, are collected in that inestimable Fund of History, Rymer's Fœdera, containing not only the Letters that passed between the Monarchs of England and Foreign Princes, their Treaties and Negotiations of Peace, Friendship and Commerce, Battles, Revolutions, and other important events in the History of England, but an account of the several grants from the Crown to the Nobility, &c. through all the reigns, from King William Rufus, to the 10th year of King Charles 1st, of the Summonses to Parliament, of Royal Mandates to the Clergy & Laity.—Dispensations for Marriages.—General and particular Pardons.—Patents for Honours, Offices, Inventions, Manufactures, &c., and numerous other public Acts, relating to Families, and our own Domestic Affairs."

Supplement.

The present part of this catalogue, will, it is believed, be found to be rich in Rarities. It contains many scarce Editiones Principes, and other valuable and choice Works, recently imported from various parts of the Continent; particularly from Holland, Germany, Paris, Milan, Venice, and Rome.

FOLIO—MISCELLANEOUS.

3830 BIBLIA Sacra Latina, a Manuscript on Vellum, most beautifully written, and supposed to have been executed between the 12th and 13th Centuries, elegantly bound in Russia extra, gilt leaves, embossed, 18l.

The above capitally executed and very interesting work, consists of 674 pages---and has in the whole about 125 illuminations, besides many curiously ornamented letters.

3831 Biblia Sacra Latina, a very beautiful manuscript on vellum, and very ancient, supposed at least to be about the 12th Century. It is in the original oak pannel binding, and some parts of the work have a commentary attached, for 21l.

The above choice and truly curious M. S. consists of 1026 pages---being as well as the foregoing, both the Old and the New Testaments. This latter has also the Testament of the 12 Patriarchs attached, though apparently in a rather different, and supposed to be a less ancient hand. There are about 104 Illuminations. A singularity also peculiar to this rare volume, is a considerable number of curious manuscript observations and genealogies, &c., relating to the ancient Family of Belas or Belasys. The date of 1380 is attached to one of these curious remarks---and in another, reference is made to the Battle of Lewes, which occurred 14th of May, 1264. It contains also the Autograph of one of the later Earl Belasys---Lord Fauconberg, with date, 1677, and there is a portrait of this Earl inserted.

N. B. The ancient family of Belas, or Belasys, resided, and held large estates, for many years, in the County of Durham---and several of the curious manuscript observations commence thus "In Episcopatu Dunelmensis" after which the rest that follows, is in English.

3832 Biblia Sacra Latina, a Manuscript beautifully executed on vellum, about the year 1400, and lettered 1400 on the binding; 2 large volumes, neatly bound for 18l. 18s.

This fine production is executed in a considerably larger character than the preceding ones, which is the reason why it consists of 2 volumes. The 1st contains the whole to the book of Psalms, with which the 2nd vol. commences. The 1st consists of 606 pages, and the second of 526. They abound with an almost immense number of finely, and very curiously ornamented capitals, &c.

3833 Psalmorum codex---an exceedingly ancient manuscript of the whole book of Psalms, with a number of additions from Jeremiah, Isaiah, &c. executed in red and black characters, of very large size, with beautiful and most curious Illuminations; strongly and neatly bound in oak pannels, covered with hog's skin, embossed, with clasps, 12l. 12s.

The above singular and very ancient volume commences with a large and fine illuminated painting, in gold and colours, size 9½ in. by 6½. It appears to be designed as a representation of the Almighty, seated, and surrounded with glory—holding a book in one hand, apparently to designate this, or a similar volume of the Divine compositions of the Royal prophet. The other hand is pointing upwards to another portrait, supposed to be designed for our Saviour, who is holding another book. The purport of this may seem to be, that through study and attention to this sacred volume, aided by the merits of our Redeemer, man may hope to gain an inheritance in the heavens above. There are also several other accompanying smaller emblematical figures. After this fine, and evidently exceedingly ancient painting, comes a Kalendar, and then commences the book of Psalms, with a beautifully illuminated and very large capital B, of remarkable shape and device—size 6 in. by 3½ in. The 52nd Psalm, beginning "Quid gloriaris in mali" &c. has the Q, another of these fine and most curious letters, similarly illuminated, size again about 6 by 3½ in. The 102 Psalm commences with another of these singular and beautiful letters, about the same size. There are, besides, about 152 Capitals most curiously formed, size about 1½ in. by 1½ or 1½. The whole volume consists of 374 pages—the Psalms ending on the 338—the rest comprises additional matter.

This remarkable book was recently procured at Mayence, in Germany—Professor Badman, of that city, has written the following on the first board:

"Codex magni, habendus propter collationes Psalmorum cum antiquis Psalteriis, cum Hebræis, et Græcis; item cum lectionibus variantibus SS. Patrum, ad marginem positas, quia antiquissimi Codd. msti. psalmorum dudum perierunt." Bn.

- 3834 Biblia (La Sacro-Santa) in Lingua Italiana; fine and large copy, containing both the Old and New Testaments, h. b. uncut, 1l. 11s. 6d. Norimbergo, 1712

N. B. The present edition of the Sacred Scriptures in the Italian Language, is accompanied with Arguments, References, and other Improvements, by Mattia d' Erberg, cultore delle sacre Lettere.

- 3835 Bible (La sainte) qui est Toute la Sainte Ecriture du Vieil et du Nouveau Testament.. Le tout revue et confere sur les Textes Hebreux et Grecs par les Pasteurs et Professeurs de l'Eglise de Geneve, Avec amplex Indices et Figures, pour le contentement du Lecteur. 2 vols. in one, a fine and very large copy, appearing to be large paper, very neat, in calf, scarce, for 2l. 2s.

A Geneve, S. Chouvet, 1658

This edition of the complete French Bible is printed in a very large character, and accompanied with arguments, numerous marginal references, &c. It has also, as indicated in the title, many curious engravings on wood, some of large size—and being conferred with the Heb. and Greek, by the celebrated Pastors and Professors of Geneva, may be considered a critical edition. The whole work consists of about 1800 pages, having at the end, in addition to large Tables, Indices, &c. the Psalms put into French Verse by C. Marot and Th. de Beza.

- 3836 Bible (the Holy) the original edition of the present version, very good copy, of a finely printed and scarce book, very neat in calf, 2l. 2s. Imprinted at London, 1611

For an account of this scarce edit. see Lewis's History, page 323, &c. It is furnished with very curious genealogies, numerous marginal references, map and plates.

3837 Biblia Sacra Polyglotta, cura Briani Waltoni, et Castelli Lexico—Heptaglotton, with portrait of Lombart, of Castell by Faishorne, and plates by Hollar, 8 vols., tall set, very neat, in calf, for £33.

Lond. 1657-69

3838 Biblia Hebraica Hutteri, cum Cubus Alphab. Ebraicæ Ling. fine copy, russia extra, very neat and scarce, 6l. 6s. Hamb. 1587

This valuable work, with the Cube Lexicon attached, is very uncommon, many copies, when to be met with, not having this important appendage.

The following are a part of Dr. Clark's observations on this valuable edition.

"The Plan of this work is both ingenious and useful. All the servile letters are hollow, and white, the rest solid and black, by which the radicals are at once seen. If any of the radical letters be wanting, it is added above the word, exactly over the place where it should be inserted. This lessens the labour of the Student, for he discovers at first view, the root for which he is to search his Lexicon. But in this also, the indefatigable Hutter affords him the readiest assistance, on the most easy terms, by what he calls "Cubus Alphabeticus sanctæ Hebrææ Lingue." Dr. Clark's Bibl. Dict. vol. 1, p. 232.

Lettered on the binding of each vol. 1440,

But judged by Bibliographers to have been printed between 1460—1465

See Braun's Notitia Literaria, p. 53, 54, &c. who gives a very detailed description of this very rare edition of the Sacred Scriptures---and adds, that he can with satisfaction subscribe to the opinion of those who believe that this Bible was certainly printed between 1460 --1465. He also unites in the judgment that Bertholdus Rodt, and Bernardus Richel, were the joint Artists who executed it. This valuable work is printed in double columns, of 50 lines in a full page---and without numerals, signatures, or catch words---the two volumes, contain together 435 folios or leaves.

3840 Biblia Sacra Latina, breves in eodem Annotat. ex doctiss. Interpret. et Hebræor. Commentariis—a very beautiful copy, on large paper, handsomely bound and gilt, &c., very scarce, 3l. 13s. 6d.

Paris, ap. R. Steph. 1532

In the Oxford catalogue is the following note upon this rare edition. "Hæc est omnium R. Steph. Bibliorum Lat. Editionum optima, Notis suis in se concitavit Stephanus Theologus Parisinus quibus librum quo respondit satis acrem sic habebit catalogus."

The copy here inserted of this most beautiful book has also the two following additional tracts, each having a distinct title page, viz. "Hebraica, Chaldæa, Græcæque et Latina nomina virorum, Mulierum, Populorum, idolorum, urbium, fluviorum, montium, cæterorumque locorum quæ in Bibliis utriusque testamenti sparsa sunt, restituta, cum interpretatione latina." 74 pages. Paris, 1532, and "Index Rerum et Sententiarum quæ in veteris et Novi Testamenti libris continentur." 116 Pages—Paris, 1532.

Tiguri, 1541

"This is the famous Bible of Zurich, all of which, except a small part done by Theodorus Bibliander, was translated from the Hebrew by a Jew, who stiled himself Leo Judæ, or the Lion of Judah. The Greek Books were translated by Petrus Cholinus. The New Testament is that of Erasmus."—Vide Bibl. Dict. vol. 1.

- 3842 Biblia Greca Septuaginta et Nov. Test. Græcum, a few lines at the end neatly executed in fac simile M.S., h. b. calf neat, scarce, for 1l. 11s. 6d. Basil, ap. Hervag. 1545.

"This edition follows chiefly that of Cephalæus; but it has some excerpts from the Complutensian edit. as better according with the Hebrew Text. It has been pronounced to be much more correct than either the Venetian or Strasburgh edition." Dibdin's Classics, vol. 1. p. 38.

- 3843 Missale Romanum, most beautifully printed on vellum, an exceedingly fine and choice copy, elegantly bound in purple morocco, 21l. No place, 1489

The above most beautiful book, which it is believed, may be safely termed an almost matchless copy, has 3 very large and fine Paintings, 19 less illuminations, chiefly flowers, and 367 illuminated capitals, all in gold and colours. It is a thick and noble volume, of 564 pages—with the vellum and press work beautifully fine.—Indeed, had the volume been executed only one year ago, instead of 831, it perhaps could not possibly have been in a more choice state. It was procured from the Jesuit's Library at Brussels.

- 3844 Ciceronis Opera—a manuscript, most beautifully executed upon vellum, and suberbly bound in russia, extra, gilt leaves, embossed, and border of gold, for 25l.

This choice and truly valuable manuscript, is a very large and noble volume. It contains 3 portraits—size about $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. each way—2 of them admirably and most delicately executed—the other, which is at the commencement of the volume, is rather rubbed. It has besides this, 58 other illuminations, size varying from about $2\frac{1}{2}$ in. sq. to $1\frac{1}{2}$ —all capitally executed in gold and colours. There are also a very great number of capital letters curiously formed, and ornamented in red and blue. The vellum is particularly fine, and the vol. consists in the whole of 766 pages, size about 14 in. by 10. A more beautiful and interesting MS. is perhaps scarcely to be seen, or met with, in this, or any other country. It was recently procured in Italy.

The following treatises are contained, viz.—De Inventione—Ad Herennium—De Oratore—Orator ad Brutus—De Optimo genere Oratorum—Oratoriarum Partitiones—De Officiis—De Amicitia—De Senectute—Tusculan. Questiones—Liber M. Tulii Ciceronis de Creatione—De Divinatione—De Natura Deorum—Invectiva in Catalini—Invectiva Salustii in Cicerone—Invectiva Ciceronis in Sallustii—Cicero Antiq. iret in exilium—Gratias agit senat.—Gratias agit Populo—Pro Domo Sua ad Pontifices—Oratio pro Cælio—Pro L. Cornelio Balbo—De provinciis Consularibus—Pro P. Sectio—Pro M. Marcello—Pro Q. Ligario—Pro Rege Deiotaro—Philippica prima, ad XIII. Paradoxa, cum variis lectionibus in margine—De responsis, &c.

- 3845 Augustini (S. Aurelii) de Civitate Dei, libri xxii, very clean copy, with 22 large and beautifully illuminated capitals, and one miniature, a very rare and celebrated edition, for 7l. 7s.

Venetii, per Johannem et Vindelino de Spira, 1470

"Edition fort recherchée des curieux, et l'exécution en est très belle" De Bure, No 326.

"Edition extrêmement rare." Clement, vol. 2, pa. 262.

"Edition recherchée, et de la plus belle exécution ; elle peut être considérée comme la première production typographique de Vindelin de Spire : son frère Jean de Spire en avait commencé l'impression, que la mort lui empêcha de finir."—Santander, tom 2, p. 117.

3846 Augustini de Civitate Dei, very beautiful copy of a book printed in the first style of elegance, by the celebrated Jenson, 2 leaves capitally executed in MS. apparently of coeval date with the book itself, very scarce, 3l. 3s. Venet. Jenson, 1475

"Edition très rare." Clement, vol. 2, p. 263.

The front and bottom margins of the above most beautiful book, are nearly 3 inches in dimension.

Impressum Romæ, per C. Sweynheima & A. Pannartz, 1470

The above is a very sound copy of this noble and magnificent book, without a single impression from worm, so often the case with books of this great antiquity ; but it is water-stained in some places. There is a separate and distinct imprint to each of the vols. or parts, with the names and date repeated at length as above.

3848 Aquina (St. Thomæ de) Questiones de Malo disputate, very good and perfect copy, rare, for 2l. 12s. 6d.

Colon. Impressum p. me, Arnoldum Therhoernen, no date, sed circa, 1471

The above curiously printed edit. seems to be unknown to our most celebrated Bibliographers. It is printed in double columns, of 40 lines in a full column, and consists of 348 pages. As is usual with the works of this very curious and early Printer, the commencement of the vol., and the imprint, at the end, are in red characters.

3849 Atlas, containing 24 large folio maps, neatly engraved, bds. 15s.

3850 Atlas, Darton's Union, h. b. very neat, with reduced engraving of Penn's Treaty with the Indians, 20s. Lond. 1817

3851 Atlas, of the Counties of Eng. and Wales, finely engraved, and each map containing a view of some city, or striking object in the county, (pub. at 2l. 12s. 6d.) new, and h. b. very neat, for 1l. 6s. 1820

3852 Atlas, (Kitchin's General) containing very large and accurately engraved maps of the various kingdoms, states, &c in the known world, with a variety of Geographical and Astronomical Information, 2l. 2s. Lond. 1786

3853 Annales of England, containing the Reigns of Henry 8th, Edw. 6th, Queene Mary, written in Latin by Francis, Bishop of Hereford, now translated and enlarged by M. Godwyn, fine copy, with frontisp. calf, neat, 9s. Lond. 1630

- 3854 Andraë, Antonii, Super duodecim libros Metaphysicarum questionum, large copy, h. b. scarce, 1l. 10s.

Sine anno, loco, et typog. ind. sed circa, 1470

N. B. The first edition of this scarce book mentioned by Santander is that of Vicens. 1477—but the present, which is without numerals, signatures, or catch words, is believed to be at least of several years greater antiquity. It is printed in double columns, of 44 lines in a full column, and contains in the whole 166 pages. The type is curious, and the contractions numerous and singular, and bear evident marks of great antiquity.

- 3855 Adagia, id est, Proverbiorum, Paroemiarum et Parabolarum omnium, quæ apud Græcos, Latinos, Hebræos, Arabas, &c. in usu fuerent, Collectio absolutissima in locos communes digesta. Fine copy, of a valuable edition, edited by Erasmus, neat, in calf, 18s.

Typis Wechel, 1629.

The above is a large vol. of 946 pages. It is a collection from the most celebrated authors, viz. Junius, Ulpianus, Godofredus, Canterus, Stephanus, Turnebus, &c. There are extensive and accurate Indexes added.

- 3856 Augustini (S. Aur.) Iponensiu presulis digressimi liber de xii abusivis seculi, fine and large copy, of a very early printed and rare tract, 18s.

Sine an. loc. et Typ. ind. sed exc. circa, 1468-70

This rare and very early tract was found bound up with another work of a very different author, viz. the De casibus, virorum et Mulierum. of Boccaccio. It consists in the whole of 18 pages, the work above mentioned ending on the 16th. with 'Laus Deo.' The two last are occupied with the 'De origine aie electissima auctas' & 'de divinatione demonum' of the same author. There are neither num. sig. nor catchwords—a full page has 35 lines.

- 3857 Appiani Alexandrini Romanæ Historiæ a P. Candido in latinum tractatæ, 2 vols. in 1; 2 or 3 leaves a little mended, otherwise a very fine copy, 5l. 5s.

Venet. per B. Pictorem, et Erhardus Ratdolt, 1477

- 3858 Appiani Alexandrini Romanæ Historiæ, 1 vol. containing the five books of the civil wars with the Illyrians and Celtes, very good copy, neat, £2. 12s. 6d. Venet per B. Bictor, et E. Ratdolt, 1477

N. B. The last article is complete in itself in this part of the Roman History, and many collections have only one vol. which is the case with the Bibl. Spenc. See tom. 1, pa. 254.

"Few ancient volumes of the Classics display greater beauty of typographical execution, than does the present one. The page, on the recto of sign. a 2, presents us with the address of Candidus; surrounded, however, by a broad frame, or border, of extremely rich arabesque decoration, with a large blooming capital initial, and executed in the same manner." - 3863 Alessandro (Il. Grande) I Fatti d', spiegati, e suppliti con non pochi auuenimenti de' nostri tempi, massimo quelli delle Alemaniche Guerre. Opera di Pagannino Guadenzio—fine large copy, in vellum, scarce, 18s.

In Pisa nel. Stamp. 1645

The above work is neatly printed in double columns, in the Italic character, and consists of 268 pages. There is a Sonnet, and an Anagram, in verse, at the commencement, which, as well as the whole work, are in the Italian Language.

- 3864 Auli Gelii noctium atticarum, &c. a scarce edition, title in a curious compartment, £1. 4s. Argentinae, In ædibus Jo. Knoblochii, 1517

This scarce edition, which appears to have been unknown to several of our bibliographers, contains the Summary or Arguments of the 8th Book, which is lost. There are at the end, a Table of words, and Greek passages, which are to be found in this author, accompanied with a Latin version. The whole volume consists of 267 pages.

- 3865 Ausonii opera, vel Poetæ disertissimi Epigrammata, very sound copy, but some leaves a little water stained, a rare edition, £1. 4s.

- 3880 Burnet's (Bp.) History of the Reformation of the Church of England, first part, or 2 parts in 1 vol., containing the progress made during the Reign of Henry 8th, good copy, with 7 beautiful portraits, finely engraved by R. White, 18s. Lond. 1679
- 3881 Burrough's (Edw., one of the very early Members of the Society of Friends) the memorable Works of that true Prophet, and faithful servant of God, and sufferer for the testimony of Jesus, calf, neat, scarce, £1. 1s. Lond. 1672

This excellent and truly pious Christian advocate and sufferer died in Prison, for his testimony to the truth, in the city of London, in 1662. His valuable works, which compose a large vol. of about 900 pages, having never been republished, are in consequence become scarce.

- 3882 Bas Evangelibuch, large and good copy of a particularly curious and scarce work, in the German Language, £3. 3s.

Getrucht in Strasburg, von Johanes Grieninger, &c. 1515

The above singular volume appears to be a kind of sacred History or Misal. It is remarkable and very interesting, in addition to its being an early printed book in the German Language, on account of a large number of very curious and striking wood engravings. It has in the whole of this description, 99 ---46 about 4 inches square, and 23, about the full size of the folio page. It is not generally known that the celebrated J. Grieninger, or Gurninger, executed any works after 1500---but this impression puts it beyond a doubt. The plates seem to be very much in the style of those in his famous edition of Horace, 1498, with the exception that these are generally on sacred or religious subjects. The last, however, contains a view of the city of Strasburg, with its noted cathedral, which is said to be the highest in Europe. The volume consists of 424 pages.

- 3883 Baconi (Francisci Ld. Verulum) Operum Moraliū, et civilium, 2 vols. in 1, with beautiful ancient portrait, stained---calf neat, 12s. Lond. 1638

- 3884 Burton's Anatomy of Melancholy, with all the kinds, causes, symptoms, prognostickes, and several cures of it; a scarce early edition, with curious frontispiece, containing portrait of the author, wants a leaf at the end, h. b. calf, elegant, £1. 1s. Oxford, 1632

- 3885 Boetii (Anicii Forq. Severini) Opera Omnia, cum comment diversorum, fine copy, neat in vellum, scarce, £2. 2s.

"Edition complete, et peu commune," &c.---Brunet t. 1, pa. 186.

"Le Premiere edition complete et entiere," &c.---De Bure.

The best edition of the Opera Omnia of Boethius, was published at Basil, fol. 1570, and according to Count Reviczky the work is rare, and much sought after---Dibdin's Classics, vol. 1, pa. 218.

- 3886 Birch's (T., A. M., F. R. S.) Heads of Illustrious Persons of Great Britain, engraved by Houbraken & Vertue, with their Lives and Characters, 2 vols. in 1, handsomely bd. in russia extra, marbled leaves, with portrait of Birch inserted, 6l. 6s. Lond. 1747-52

- 3887 Bellori (G. Piet.) Le Antiche Lucerne Sepolcrali Figurate Raccolte dalle Cave Sotterranee, e Grotte di Roma. &c. Disegnate da P. Santi Bartoli, con l'osservazioni di G. P. Bellori. with fine impressions of the plates, rare, very neat, 2l. 12s. 6d. In Roma, 1691

This work is divided into 3 parts, each having a distinct title page. It contains in the whole 114 folio plates, many of them very curious and striking.

- 3888 Braithwait's Time's Treasury or Academy for Gentry, laying down excellent Grounds both Divine and Humane, in relation to Sexes of both kinds: for their accomplishment in Arguments of Discourse, Habit, Fashion, and happy progresse in their Spiritual Conversation, &c. very curious, h. b. neat, rare, 18s. Lond. 1652

- 3889 Boccacii (Johannis) De Certaldis Historiographi de casibus virorum illustrium, good copy, without name of Printer, place, or date, a very rare edition, executed about 1470, 3l. 3s.

Editor Pinceps---See Bibl. Spenceriana. This copy conforms accurately to the one in possession of Earl Spencer, of which Dibdin gives a fac-simile of the title, &c. It consists of 306 pages, and has 35 lines in a full page.

- 3890 Cæsaris Commentaria. Accuratissime, cum Libris Editio & MS.S. optimis Collata, Recognita et Correcta. Accessarunt Annotationes Samuelis Clarke, S. T. P. Item Indices Locorum, Rerumque & Verborum Utilissimæ, Tabulis Æneis Ornata. The middle paper edition, 2 vols., a beautiful set, with all the plates complete. Handsomely bd. in russia, super extra, gilt leaves, for £18. 18s.

Lond. 1712

The merits of this magnificent edition of Cæsar, by Dr. Clark, have been long known, and duly appreciated. It has justly been considered as one of the most splendid publications of an ancient Classic which has issued from the British Press. De Bure mentions that the fine large plate of the Bison is frequently missing-- in this copy, however, there is a fine impression of this, as well as of all the other plates.

- 3891 Cæsaris Commentaria, cum insigni Pictura totius Galliæ. Edit. Vascosan, very fine copy of a beautifully printed book, neat, and very scarce, £1. 4s.

Paris, 1543

"Edition fort rare.---Toutes les éditions de Vascosan sont rares. Celles--ci, surtout et magnifique, et tres recherchee." Clément, t. 6, pa. 27.

"A beautiful edition." Dr. Clark's Bibl. Dict. vol. 2, pa. 106.

- 3892 Ciceronis (M. T.) Officia, Paradoxa, et versus xii Sapientum; accessit Horatii Oda Diffugere Nives—the last eight leaves rather sullied, otherwise a most beautiful copy, superbly bound in red morocco, super extra, gilt leaves, borders of gold, &c., and finely PRINTED UPON VELLUM. Editio Princeps, extremely rare, £52. 10s.

Moguntia, Io. Fust, et P. Schoyffer, 1465

"Premiere edition, infiniment rare, et d'un prix considerable dans le commerce, particulièrement, quand les exemplaires se trouvent imprimés sur vellum."—Santander, tom. 2, pa. 324--5, where this choice work is accurately described.

"L'on connoit dans la Republique des lettres le merite de cette fameuse edition des Offices de Ciceron, dont la Rarete des exemplaires est si grande, qu'ils ont acquis dans le commerce une valeur extraordinaire."—De Bure, No. 2425, where also this rare book is fully described, and where no less than 8 pages are occupied respecting it.---See also Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc vol. 1, pa. 305, who is likewise particular and accurate in describing this remarkable volume. The same eminent Bibliographer says, in his Introd. to the Classics, vol. 1, p. 280, that [at the publication of that work in 1808] "He had never seen a copy of this edition of 1465 UPON VELLUM.

It may perhaps be interesting to copy the Colophon or imprint of this most curious work, at length. It is as follows:

Presens Marci tulij clarissimi opus Johannes Fust, Mogutinus civis, no atrameto, plumali cana neq. aerea. Sed arte qua dam perpulcra. Petri manu pueri mei feliciter effeci finitum. Anno. M. cccc. lxx.

- 3893 Ciceronis (M. T.) Tusculanarum Questionum libri, fine copy, very neat, in calf, a scarce edition, 20s.

Impress. Venetiis per Joanne de Tridino, &c. 1494

- 3894 Ciceronis (M. T.) Epistolarum Familiarum, &c, large and very clean copy, a little injured by a worm, very neat, and a rare edit. £3. 13s. 6d.

Sine loco, but with the date, 1476

Vide Brunet, t. 1, pa. 325, for an account of this scarce edition. He observes, as is the case, that it is printed in Long Lines, and with signatures, and that it sold at La Valliere's sale in 1783, for 96 francs. It may be added, that it was probably executed by Zarottus, at Milan.

- 3895 Callimachus, Græce, fine copy, new, bds. 8s. Glasg. Foulis 1755
 "Very correct and beautiful."---Dr. Harwood, who, in his time, valued the work at 10s. 6d.---See View of Classics, pa. 62.

- 3906 Cyrilli, (Beati) Episcopi, speculum sapientiæ, alias, quadripartitus Apologeticus, &c., de greco in latinu translatus, a very fine and large copy of a rare and ancient edition, 1l. 11s. 6d.

Abs. ulla, loc. et an. ind., sed circa, 1470

· Editio princeps of the Lat. Trans. of this work, as is evident from the subs. at the end. The present is a remarkably fine copy, executed in double columns of 40 lines to a full column, and consists of 89 pages in the whole. It appears to have escaped several Bibliographers, but is noticed in the Dict. Bibliographique, t. 1, pa. 341, and there is a copy in the La Valliere cata.—See also Dr. Clark, t. 3, pa. 86.

- 3907 Durandi (Gulielmi) Rationale divinorum officiorum, a very fine and large copy, a number of leaves being uncut, and a very scarce edit. 5l. 5s.

Impress. Urbe ULM, per discretum Johannem Zeiner, ex Rutlingen, &c., 1475

The first page of this fine book is ornamented with a very curious woodcut border. It is also considered to be one of the first typographic productions executed in the city of Ulm, specimens of the early press of which place are very rare. Joh. Zeiner is supposed to be the brother of the famous Gintler Zeiner, the early Augsburg printer.—See Clement., tom 8, where the above edition is described. See also Santander, t. 2, pa. 387. The work is executed in double columns, 50 lines to a full col. It is without numerals, sig., or catchwords, and consists in the whole of 502 pages.

- 3908 Dictionnaire universel de Trevoux: avec des Remarques d'erudition et de Critique; nouvelle edition, very fine set, in 6 large vols. with the Supplement, handsomely bound in calf, 4l. 14s. 6d.

"This is the FIRST EDITION with the commentary of Imola."—Santander, vol. 2, p. 361.

- 3910 Dictionarium Græcum, cum Interpretatione Latina, fine copy, neat, of a very rare work, for 5l.

Venet. ap. Aldum, 1497

"This is one of the noblest productions of the Aldine Press. Besides the Greek and Latin Dictionary, above mentioned, it contains Cyrillus de Dictionibus; Ammonius de Differentia Dictionum; Vetus Instructio et Denominationes præfectorum Militum; &c., and an Index oppido quam copiosus; docens latinas dictiones fere omneis græce dicere et multas etiam multis modis."—Dibdin. Bibl. Spenc. vol. 3, pa. 59, who concludes a very interesting and correct account of this scarce book, as follows: "The preceding is, I believe, the most particular bibliographical description of this very rare and beautiful work—now more curious than heretofore—with which the public have yet been presented." Ibid, pa. 61.

- 3911 Diues and Pauper (a compendious Treatise Dialogue of) that is to say the rich and the pore, fructuously tetryng upon the X Commandments, black letter, very rare, 8L 8s. Emprentyd by me, Wynken de Worde at Westmonstre, 1496

The present copy of this very curious and rare book wants one leaf, (sig. o, 2.) and part of the last. It begins, (as does the copy described in Herbert's Ames, vol. 1, pa. 125) with the treatise "of Holy Powerte," commencing with signature a, 1—but this copy has, besides, a curiously engraved title, which it does not appear the one in Herbert had. The subject is on the obv. whole lengths of Dives & Pauper, and on the rev., a large company of some religious order, apparently collected on some solemn occasion.

- 3912 Decisiones Rotæ Romanæ, a large and very clean copy, but with some worm holes, handsomely bound in red morocco, extra, marbled leaves, 3L 3s. Sine anno, loco, aut typog.

The present copy of this curious work is supposed to be the Editio princeps; and is so lettered on the back. It is printed in double columns, of 48 lines in a full page, and 454 pages in the whole. It is without numerals, signatures, or catch words, which, with the rudeness of the type (supposed to be that of G. Laver, or Adam Rot) sufficiently prove its antiquity. There are both index and table of contents, the latter occupying 16 leaves. The work ends thus "Finiunt Rote Decisiones nove—feliciter—Deo gracias." The 1st page has a beautifully illuminated border, completely round it, in gold and colours, and the capital letter contains a portrait.

- 3913 Decapla in Psalmos, sive Commentarius ex decem Linguis, MSS. et impressis, Heb., Arab., Syr., Chald., Rabb., Gr., Rom., Ital., Hisp., Gallic. cum specimine Linguae Copticae, Pers. & Ang. MSS. &c., a J. Vicars, good copy, with frontispiece, by Hollar, representing the Costumes of the 10 Countries above, scarce, 18s. Lond. 1639

- 3914 Divinity, (a complete body of) fine large copy, very neat, in vellum, 20s. Lond. 1729

The above consists of five parts.—1st. Of the Being, Nature, and Attributes of God, and of the evidences of Divine Revelation—2nd. Of the Works of Creation and Providence—3rd. Of the most memorable transactions, from the beginning of the World to the coming of Christ, with Dissertations upon each—4th. Of the Mysteries of our most Holy Faith—5th. Of the great Precepts of Moral and Evangelical Righteousness—The whole extracted from the best Writers, ancient and modern, and forming a large vol. of about 1000 pages.

- 3915 Drayton's Poly-Olbion, both the parts complete, fine copy, in 2 vols., with frontisp., plates, and portrait of Prince Henry, very neat, in calf, gilt, 5L 5s. Lond. 1613-22

- 3916 Another Copy of vol. 1, not quite perfect, 1L 1s. Lond. 1613

In the Bibl. Ang. Poet. No. 182, this rare and curious work, and it appears without the portrait of Prince Henry, is charged 7l. 7s.

"His (Drayton's) Poly-Olbion, is one of the most singular works this country has produced, and seems to me eminently original. The information contained in it, is in general so acute, that he is quoted as an authority both by Hearne and Wood. His perpetual allusions to obsolete traditions, remote events, remarkable facts and personages, together with his curious genealogies of Rivers, and his taste for Natural History, have contributed to render his work very valuable to the Anti-quary."—Headley.

- 3917 Dugdale's Monasticon Anglicanum, or, The History of the Ancient Abbies, and other Monasteries, Hospitals, Cathedral and Collegiate Churches in England and Wales, with divers French, Irish, and Scotch Monasteries, formerly relating to England; first pub. in Latin, and now epitomized in English, page by page, fine copy, with many plates, fine impressions, neat, in calf, 1l. 15s. Lond. 1693
- 3918 Dugdale's History and Antiquities of Warwickshire, the original scarce edition, with portrait, and numerous plates, monuments, &c. by Hollar, elegantly bd. in russia, super extra, 10l. 10s. Lond. 1656
- 3919 Dugdale's Monasticon Anglicanum, (Stephens's Continuation of) good set, with numerous fine plates, 2 vols. very neat in calf, rare, 16l. 16s. Lond. 1722
- 3920 Dugdale's Monasticon Anglicanum translated into English, with Stephens's Continuation, 3 vols. good set, with numerous plates, very neat and scarce, 22l. Lond. 1718-22
- 3921 Dugdale's Monast. Angli. (Stephen's Continuation to) vol. 1st., LARGE PAPER, many plates, rare, 5l. 5s. Lond. 1722
- N. B. This vol. with the other two, on large paper, sell at about 40l.
- 3922 Demosthenis Opera, Græce. Editio Princeps, secunda, fine copy, very scarce, 7l. 7s. Venet. Aldus, 1504

The curious in Bibliography are well apprised of there being TWO editions of Demosthenes, printed in the SAME YEAR, and nearly at the same time, at the Venetian Press, by Aldus. Respecting these two editions, so nearly executed together, Dibdin, Bibl. Spenc. vol. 2, pa. 14, has the following remarks—after describing both the editions, he says, "Renouard is of opinion that this second impression is less rare than the first; but the noble owner of these copies differs from this conclusion. In regard to relative intrinsic value, the student should not hesitate in his choice of this latter." The present copy was recently procured at Parma.

- 3923 Dee (Dr. John) a true and faithful Relation of what passed for many years between him and some Spirits, as also the Letters of sundry great men and princes (some whereof were present at some of these conferences and apparitions of Spirits) to the said Dr. Dee; fine copy, with beautiful impressions of the six portraits, rare and curious, and very neat, £2. 12s. 6d. Lond. 1659
- 3924- Euclidis, Elementa geometriæ, cum commentariis Antonii Campani, Latine, EDITIO PRINCEPS, very scarce; stained in some places, otherwise a very sound copy, elegantly h. b. in calf, extra, raised bands, &c. 2l. 12s. 6d. Erhardus Ratdolt, Venetiis impress. 1482

"This edition is a very rare and singular one. It is remarkable for being the first book in which mathematical delineations occur

Dibdin's Classics, vol. 1 p. 52.

So long ago as at the Pinelli Sale, a copy, No. 684, was sold for 5l. 15s.

- 3925 Eusebii Pamphili de Preparatione Evangelica, libri xiv, latine, Trapezuntio interprete, fine, and exceedingly clean copy, with capitals most tastefully ornamented, very neat and rare, 5l. 5s.

Venetis, Nich. Jenson, 1470

"Editio Princeps, very rare, and of which the Typographic Execution is most beautiful." Santander, vol. 2. pa. 397, where there is a further account of this scarce and fine work, with the curious epigram on the celebrated artist, Jenson, copied at full length. This copy was recently imported from Milan.

- 3926 Erasmus's Commentaries on the New Testament, fine and perfect copy, black letter, very scarce and neat, 1l. 10s.

Enpriented at London, by Edwarde Whitchurche, anno 1548.

UNIQUE COPY—

- 3927 Epictetus (the Works of) in Greek and Italian, the whole most beautifully printed on Fine Silk; unique, it being certain there was only this ONE copy taken off on this costly material, 15l. 15s.

Parmæ, In ædibus Palatinus Typis Bodonianis, 1793

The Greek Text of the above most beautiful production, which is large and elegant, without contractions, occupies 42 pages—after which occurs a blank leaf of the same fine material. Then commences the Italian translation with a distinct title, and consists of 54 pages, the last page of the last leaf being blank. That there was but this ONE COPY taken off in this choice manner is certain, from the circumstance being recorded in the list of works attached to the life of the celebrated Bodoni, in 2 vols., 4to, published at Parma. Whilst this famous artist was living he appeared to have preserved this impression, as a kind of masterpiece of his press. The present Proprietor on visiting Parmæ, did not fail to call to examine the literary treasures of this celebrated depository, and the work in question was shewn him as one of the most rare and precious; and the widow of Bodoni, himself being then deceased, was induced by the offer made, to part with it—thus it came into this country. A beautiful portrait of the Artist is inserted, having been procured at the same time, but not originally belonging to the work. This latter is scarce in this country.

- 3928 Fasciculus Temporum, sive Chronica, per Wernerus Rollewinc de Laer, good copy, with many curious cuts, elegantly h. b. gilt, raised bands, &c. 2l. 2s. (a rare edition) Venetiis, Erhardus Ratdolt, 1485

- 3929 Fasciculus Temporum, as above, with cuts, in vellum, 1l. 8s.

Sine Anno, loco, et Typog.

Werner Rollewinc, born at Laer, in the Diocese of Munster, became a Carthusian friar at Cologne, in 1447, where he composed this Chronicle, or History of the World, from the earliest time. It is a singular book, with many curious wood cuts.

- 3930 Faringdon's (A., B. D.) Sermons, 2nd edit., revised and corrected from the Author's MSS. good copy, calf, neat, 18s.

Lond. Royceff, 1672

3931 Fox's Acts & Monuments of the Church, fine set of the 9th and best edition, with Life of the Author, beautiful impression of the Portrait by Sturt, and numerous other plates, 3 vols., handsomely h. b. russia, gilt and double lettered, 5l. 15s. 6d. Lond. 1684

3932 Fabyan's Cronycles, of Englande, & Fraunce, from the begynnyng to the reyne of our mooste redoubted Soverayne lord king Henry the viii; in 2 vols., black letter, a fine set, but with about three leaves of the second vol. neatly supplied by MS.; elegantly bound in grained calf, super extra, raised bands, marbled leaves, &c.; the first and a very rare edit., 5l. 5s. Prentyd at London, by Wyllyam Rastell, 1533

3933 Fox's (Geo., First Member of the Society of Friends) The great Mystery of the great Whore unfolded: and Antichrist's Kingdom revealed unto Destruction: good copy, very neat and scarce, 20s. Lond. 1659

N. B. The above remarkable book was published in the very infancy of the Society to which it alludes. G. F's first publication was a tract of 1 sheet, issued in 1652—and in 1659 this vol. of 102 sheets, was published. It is become very scarce, having never been reprinted. It was written, as the excellent author observes in the title "In answer to many false Doctrines and Principles which Babylon's Merchants have traded with, being held forth by the professed Ministers, Teachers, and Professors in England, Ireland, and Scotland; with a preface by E. B. (E. Burroughs) & the Scots' Principles at the end of it."

3934 Fraternitas Cleri, a singular and exceedingly ancient volume, £2. 2s. Sine.an. sed circa, 1488

This scarce book is without numerals, signatures, or catchwords, and the type is rude. It has also the peculiarity of having the CHAPTERS in printed numerals, at the top of the page, about the place, where, in modern books, the pages are numbered. It is executed in double columns, 38 lines to a full column, and consists of 168 pages in the whole, but the reverse of the last page has 11 lines of ONE column only. This circumstance, with its want of numerals, signatures, &c., and the form of the type, seem to prove its great antiquity. The last col., with the exception of the imprint, ends in this curious manner: "Nunc habes tabulam et taxillos. lude si potes. Deo gracias." Then follows "Explicit fraternitas cleri per venerabile doctorem Ultricu. edita. qui vulgo ulmer vocatur finit feliciter."—It is a little wormed, and has a few stains.—It was recently procured on the continent, at the city of Metz.

3935 Godfrey of Bulloigne, or the Recouerie of Jerusalem. Done into English Heroicall verse, by Edward Fairefax, Gent. Good, large, and perfect copy; FIRST EDITION, exceedingly rare, and superbly bound in puce coloured calf, super extra, marbled leaves, border of gold, &c. 5l. 5s. Imprinted at London, by A. Hatfield, for I. Jaggard and M. Lownes, 1600

The following is extracted from the notice published by the editors of the modern reprint, which is said to be accurately copied from this valuable original, and rare edition. "The first edition was printed under the eye of the translator in 1600, in folio, and now ranks with the rarest poetical volumes in our language."

- 3936 Godfrey of Boulogne, or the Recoverie of Jerusalem. Done into English Heroical verse by Edward Fairfax, Gent., and now the second time imprinted, and dedicated to his Highnesse, together with the life of the said Godfrey; good copy in old binding, but has one leaf, sig. B 1, very neatly supplied by MS., 18s.

London. 1624

N. B. In the Bibl. Ang. Poet. No. 281, this second edition is charged £2. 2s.

- 3937 Gregorii Papæ, Dialogorum libri iv; a most beautiful and large copy of a very rare edition, elegantly bound in green morocco, extra, gilt leaves, and border of gold, &c., by Bozerain of Paris, 4l. 4s. Argentinae, typis Henrici Eggestein, circa annum, 1470

“A very rare edition, as ancient as that of Schoiffer, if it is not anterior: it is printed in double columns of 42 lines in a full page, and without numerals, signatures, and catchwords. The type is certainly that of Eggestein, a celebrated printer of Strashurg.”—Santander, vol. 2, pa. 465, where this rare edition is further described, but no copy is referred to in any of our great libraries.

- 3938 Gersonii Compilatio Devota super Psalmum Magnificat, and other Treatises, fine copy of a very ancient and rare edition, handsomely bound in calf, extra, gilt, &c., £2. 12s. 6d.

Sine anno, sed circa 1470, et impressum, Colon. per Nich. Gotz.

This very rare edition of the above fine and curiously printed book, is executed in double columns, of 40 lines in a full column, and consists of 323 pages in the whole, the last page being blank. It is believed to be the Editio Princeps. The first edit. mentioned by Santander is of 1473, but without name of printer; but this ancient edit. by N. Gotz, is thought to be anterior to that date. Works executed by this artist are rare. The present is without numerals, signatures, and catchwords.

- 3939 Galerie Antique, ou Collection des Chefs—d'œuvre d'Architecture, de Sculpture, et de Peinture Antiques, de la Grece; fine copy, h. b. very neat, uncut, (Prix brochee 120 Fr.) for £1. 11s. 6d.

A Paris, 1808

The above is a large folio vol., and consists of 93 plates, size of the book, engraved from Statues, Monuments, Edifices, &c. (including some medals) found at Athens, and other parts of Greece.

- 3940 Grotii Opera Omnia Theologica, in tres tomus divisa; fine set, complete in 3 large vols., a valuable work, calf, neat, £3. 3s.

Amst. ap. Bleau, 1679

The above is a very finely printed edition of the works of this learned and excellent Author.

- 3941 Gazettes (Ancient London) a complete and good collection, consisting of 159 Numbers, upwards of a year and half, from April 2d, 1696, to Oct. 14th, 1697, bound together, in calf, very neat, scarce, and curious, 14s. Printed by Edward Jones, in the Savoy, 1696

N. B. The above has the arms and name of Robert Cliffe

- 3942 Glossaria Duo, e situ vetustatis eruta: ad utriusque Linguae cognitionem et locupletationem perutilia. per Heny. Steph., good copy of the original edit., very rare, £4. 4s. Excud. H. Stephanus, 1572

N. B. The above very scarce work by the celebrated Henry Stephens, is generally wanting to his excellent Greek Thesaurus.

- 3943 Guiliberti (Fratris) Tornacensis sacre pagine egregii doctoris ordinis minorum sermones perameni ad status diversos pertinentes. Quos summa cum diligentia correctos abrais aliorum vicis; a fine and large copy, of a very rare edition, handsomely bound in calf, extra, £3. 13s. 6d.

Impressit Johannes de Westfalia alma in universitate Lovaniensi, &c. circ., 1474

* I have seen at 'les Recollets,' at Louvain, and at P. De Goesin's, at Gand, an edition of the Sermons of the Frere Guilibert, of Tournay, of which Foppens makes mention in his 'Bibliotheque Belgique.' It is in folio, with long lines, and 41 in a full page, with signatnes. The Faults of preceding editions are corrected in this. &c. Lambinet, tom. 2, pa. 65, and he then gives the title, as above, at full length. The present very fine copy was recently procured at Gand, in Flanders, and is believed to be the identical one, which Lambinet alludes to, as having himself seen in that city.

- 3944 Gualtheri (Rodolphi Tigurini) Isaias. In Isaiam Prophetiam, Homiliæ 327, fine copy, very neat, scarce, 18s.

Florent. 1742

- 3946 Goltzii (Huberti) Opera Numismatica, 2 vols. in 1, containing 185 portraits, and plates of coins, &c. good copy of a rare and valuable work, in vellum, £2. 12s. 6d.

Bruges, 1557-67

The following curious Treatises are contained in these two volumes, viz. 1st. Fasto Romani ex Antiquis numismatibus et marmoribus ære expressi et illustrati.---2nd. Icones Imperatorum: This is a collection of all the Medals which have escaped the ravages of time, from Julius Cæsar down to Charles 6th.---3rd. Julius Cesar, vita ex numismat, &c.

Hubert Goltz was born at Venloo, in the Duchy of Gueldres, in 1525, and died at Bruges, in 1583. He was a very eminent Antiquarian, and kept a Press in his own house, that his works might be printed correctly. Dr. Clark, Bibl. Dict., vol. 4, pa. 8.

- 3947 Gordon's (Sir B.) Genealogical Account of the Earldom of Sutherland, from its origin to the year 1630, a beautiful copy, on large paper, with portrait, and plates, and a Continuation to the year 1651, superbly bound in russia super extra, gilt leaves and borders of gold, &c., 3l. 13s. 6d.

Edin. 1813

- 3948 Gasparini Pergamensis clarissimi Oratoris Epistolarum, liber, feliciter incipit. &c., a fine copy of a very scarce work, unbound, 2l. 2s.

Sine anno, loco, et Typ. ind., sed circa, 1470

For a particular description of this rare work, see Dibdin, Bibl. Spenc. vol. 3, No. 700, who observes "this is an estimable impression," &c. It is printed in long lines, of 34 to a full page, and consists of 90 pages in the whole. It has neither numerals, signatures, nor catchwords

Gasparinus was born near the town of Bergamo, in Italy, from whence he received the name of Bergamensis or Pergamensis, about the year 1370. He taught at Venice, at Padua, and finally at Milan, where he had been called by the Duke Ph. Mar. Visconti. This learned man, one of those who contributed much to bring back in Italy the taste for good Latinity, died in 1431, generally regretted.---Santander.

- 3949 Houbraken & Vertue's Heads of illustrious Persons of Great Britain, with their Lives and Characters by Thomas Birch, 2 vols. in 1, finely bd. in russia extra, marbled leaves, 6l. 6s. Lond. 1747-52
- 3950 Hugonis de Prato Florida, Sermones dominicales super Evangelia, et Epistolas, a very fine copy of a rare impression, calf extra, 3l. 3s. Opus non minus necessarium. q. fructuosum, Impressum Zwolles, 1480

This rare edition, of these much-esteemed Sermons at the time they were issued, is executed in double columns, of 39 lines to a full column, and is a thick vol. of 864 pages in the whole. It has signatures, but neither numerals nor catchwords. Santander, Art. 87, t. 1, p. 382, observes as follows: "The art of printing was established at Zwooll, a Town in the Republic of Holland, in the year 1479: Petrus, of Breda, who continued to print there, till the beginning of the 16th Century, is accounted to be the Author of the first establishment of the typographic art in this Town."---The above work is consequently considered particularly curious, as one of the first books printed in the city alluded to. Impressions, so early as the present date, in this place, are very rare.

- 3951 Historical Library of Diodorus, the Sicilian, translated by G. Booth, good copy, neat, in calf, very scarce, 2l. 12s. 6d. Lond. 1700

Impressum Venetiis, per Magistrum Reynaldum de Novimagio Almanum, 1483

This edition is reprinted from the Florence edition of 1482, which is minutely described by Deburæ, and noticed with high commendations by Roscoe, in his excellent work, the Life of Lorenzo de Medici. See also Dibdin's Classics, vol. 1. pa. 402. This copy was lately procured in Italy.

- 3958 Horatius, cum annotationibus et figuris, good copy of a very rare, and curious edition, 8l. 8s.

Impressum Argent., J. Reynard, alias Gurningier, 1498

" While the lover of ancient design and engraving may be induced to covet this volume, from these considerations alone, the Scholar and Critic will not be indifferent to the possession of it, from its intrinsic value. This is the impression which, in the Bibl. Harleian, vol. 3, No. 754, is called one of the greatest curiosities in the whole Harleian Collection: being adorned with a vast number of cuts, reckoned extremely beautiful when they were done. These cuts represent the subjects of the Odes, Epistles, Satires, &c., and one in particular of the wine Muses, among whom Calliope is seated on a Throne, crowning Horace, under which is inserted her speech to that poet, in Latin verse. All the previous impressions of Horace had been taken from MSS., found in Italy: the present gives us the text of a MS. found in Germany, on this account Bentley, Ernesti, &c. prized the edition."---Bibl. Spenc. vol. 2, pa. 87---and Intro. to Classics, vol. 1, pa. 402.

In the Bibl. Spenc. upwards of 8 pages are occupied in describing and giving fac-similes from this rare volume.

See also Brunet, t. 2, pa. 156, who observes, "This precious edition should be put in the rank of an EDITIO PRINCEPS, not having been made from printed texts, but from Manuscripts found in Germany.

N. B. At the sale of R. Willett's Books, in 1813, a copy of this remarkable vol. sold for £13. 13s. The present was recently procured in Germany.

3959 Horatius; a very splendid edition, as a masterpiece of the typographic art; beautiful copy, new, in bds., 6l 6s. Parma, Bodoni, 1791

"One of the most beautiful specimen of Bodoni's typography. The editor was Nic. de Azara, who was assisted by various learned men, conversant in the knowledge of Roman Antiquities; the text is formed after the most approved readings, is accurately pointed, and presents us with a "Nova recensio" of the Poet. Of this beautiful work only 200 copies were printed."---Dibdin's Classics, vol. 1, pa. 425.

3960 Horatius—cura Lambini, 2 vols. in 1, fine copy, neat, in calf, scarce, an excellent edition, 1l. 10s. Lul et, 1568

"Dionysius Lambinus, 'magnus Horatii ospitator' was a scholar and critic of no ordinary powers and acuteness; his editions, which marked a new æra in Horatian criticism, have deservedly met with universal applause."---Dibdin's Classics, vol. 1, p. 408.

3961 Higden's (R.) Polychronicon, translated into English by John Trevisa, large and perfect copy, except that 2 leaves of the long Index (which consists of upwards of 40 leaves) are neatly supplied by MS.; black letter, elegantly half bound, calf extra, raised bands, &c., very scarce and curious, 7l. 7s.

Imprinted in Southwerke, by me, Peter Treveris, 1527

This rare and very curious Chronicle, comprehends the occurrences of many ages---it is therefore by the author called Polychronicon.--See a particular account of the Work in Nich. Hist. Lib. pa. 65---also in Ames's Typr. Antiq., &c. &c.

3962 Higden's Polychronicon, as above, not perfect, 1l. 11s. 6d.

Emprynted at Westmestre, by Wynkyn de Worde, 1495

3963 Hollinshed's Chronicles of England, Scotland, and Ireland, augmented and continued to the year 1586, 3 vols. in 2, best edition, handsomely bound in calf, gilt, very scarce, 12l. 12s. Lond. 1586-7

3964 Horatii Opera, good copy of a very curious and scarce edition, elegantly h. b. in calf extra, and raised bands, &c. 1l. 11s. 6d.

Mediolani, ap. Alex. Minutianum, 1502

The foaming occupies the first page of the above singular and rare edition, "Horatius ita emendatus ut ejus interpretes non multum desideres lector candidissime."---It is printed in long lines, of 50 in a full page, and has the remarkable distinction of the first letter of every line (a Capital) standing at some distance from the following part of the word.

3965 Hill's Eden: or a complete Body of Gardening, containing plain and familiar Directions for raising the several useful products of a Garden, Fruits, Roots, and Herbage: The Culture of all kinds of Flowers; and the Knowledge of curious Plants, after the System of Linneus. With practical Directions for the Management of Fruit Trees, &c. &c. with 61 large and fine plates, including numerous specimens of scarce and curious Flowers, Plants, &c. a very fine copy, on large paper, handsomely bound in calf, gilt, £2. 2s.

Lond. 1757

- 3966 Histories (the Auncient Ecclesiasticall) of the first six hundred years after Christ, written in the Greek Tongue by three learned Historiographers, Eusebius, Socrates, and Evagrius. Whereunto is annexed Dorotheus, Bishop of Tyrus, of the Lives and Endes of the Prophets, Apostles, and 70 Disciples. Translated into English by M. Hamner, Doctor of Divinitie, good copy, scarce, 18s.

Imprinted at London, by T. Vautrollier, 1585

N. B. The above is the second edition of the first Eng. Trans. of these valuable works. In addition to its being of intrinsic worth, it is curious, as issuing from the press of T. Vautrollier, specimens of whose execution are scarce.—See Herbert's Ames, and Clark's Bibl. Dict.

- 3967 Herbert's (T.) Someyears Travels into Divers Parts of Africa, and Asia; describing more particularly the Empires of Persia and Indostan; interwoven with such remarkable occurrences as happened in those Parts during these later Times. As also, many other rich and famous Kingdoms in the Oriental India, with the Isles adjacent; 4th and best edit., with additions (by the author now living) never before printed, fine plates by Hollar, calf, neat, 18s.

Lond. 1677

- 3968 Herolt (Johannis) Sermones Discipuli super epistolas dominicales &c., a fine copy, and the whole uncut, 4l. 14s. 6d.

Sine an. et. loc., sed typ. Ulric zel, Cogn. circa, 1470

The following note, in a good hand, appears in the fly leaf of this scarce volume. "Ce livre est imprime par Helric Zel de Hanau, artiste celebre qui porta le premier l'imprimerie a Cologne: Les caracteres sont exactement conformes a ceux employes par cet artiste dans l'impression du petite traite de St. Augustin de singularitate Clericorum in 4o. portant la date de 1467. D'apres toutes les marques typographiques on peut dire avec assez de certitude que cet ouvrage a du etre imprime vers l'an 1470." The work was recently procured at Brussels, and was said to have been Santander's own copy, and that the note just copied is his hand-writing.—It is executed in double columns, 38 lines to the full col. and 220 pages in the whole, without num., sig., or catchwords. Perhaps another uncut Ulric Zel, is scarcely to be met with in this, or any other country.

- 3969 Homeri Opera Omnia, Greek et Latin, a Seb. Castalione, fine copy, but with MS. title, very neat, in calf, 1l. 4s.

"Castalio's translation is very elegant and accurate. This edition sells for 1l. 11s. 6d."—The above is Dr. Harwood's notice of this scarce edition, since when books are much increased in value.

- 3970 Homeri Odyssea, 2 vols. new, a most beautiful book, on LARGE PAPER, uncut, 2l. 2s. Glasgow, Foulis, 1756

"One of the most splendid editions of Homer ever published, and its accuracy is equal to its magnificence."—Dr. Clark, Bibl. Dict. vol. 4, p. 17.

- 3971 Inscriptiones sacro sanctæ vetustatis non illæ quidem Romanæ, sed totius fere orbis summo studio ac Maximis impensis Terra Marig. conquisitæ feliciter incipiunt.—Magnifico viro Domino Raymundo Fuggero invictis simorum Cæsaris Caroli Quinti ac Ferdinandi Romanoru. Regis a Consiliis, bonarum literaru. Mecænati incomparabili Petrus Apianus Mathematic. Ingolstadien & Bartholomeus Amantius Poeta Ded. A very fine copy, neat, in the original panel binding, very rare, 3l. 3s. Ingolstadii in edib. Apiani, 1534

This most curious book has numerous very fine and large wood engravings, supposed to have been executed by the celebrated Albert Durer. Nearly every page also is surrounded by a fine and large wood-cut border.

- 3972 Il Seminario de Governi Di stato, et di Guerra. Di Girolamo Frachetta da Rovigo. Nel quale, sotto cento diece capi, si comprendono intorno a ottomila Massime, o Propositioni universali, & Règole, o Insegnamenti di Stato, & di Guerra. &c. Con un Discorso sopra Ciascun di Detti; Capi terza impressione, very good cop., scarce, and very neat, calf, gilt, 20s. In Venetia, 1624.

This copy has the arms and name of H. Egerton, a near relative of the Bishop of that name.

- 3973 Justini Opera—Editio princeps, a fine copy, handsomely bd. in calf, extra, very scarce, 24l. Venet, Jenson, 1476

"EDITIO PRINCEPS. A very rare and beautiful work. A copy sold at Paris's sale, No. 529, for £31. 10s.—Dibdin's Classics, vol. 2, p. 14.

- 3974 Index Latinus in Johan. Scapulæ., Lexicon Græco-Latinum, omnibus Græcæ Linguae studiosis per quam utilis et necessarius; nunc primum in Lucem editus, ac superioribus Lexici editionibus conformatus. op. et stud. Laur. Martii, scarce, 18s. Bas. 1630

N.B. The above consists of 237 pages, and, added to the cheap editions of Scapula's valuable Lex., is considered to render them about equal to the edit., of 1652, which chiefly on account of the Index, sells at about 9 gs.

- 3975 Jeake's System of Arithmetic, Algebra, Resolution of Equations, &c., scarce, a very clean copy, and very neat, 7s. 6d. Lond. 1696
A large vol. of about 680 pages.

- 3976 King James 1st, the whole of the Works of that Prince, (published by James, Bishop of Winton) with the fine and curiously engraved frontispiece, neat in calf, scarce, 20s. Lond. by Bill & Barker, 1616

The above curious works consist of, 1st: A Paraphrase upon the Revelation—2nd. The Demonologie, in 3 books—The Trew Law of Free Monarchies—A Discourse on the Powder Treason, with the examination of some of the prisoners—A Counterblast to Tobacco—A Premonition to all Christian Monarchs, Free Princes, and States—Five Speeches in Parliament—Basilicon Doron, or his Majesties Instructions to his dearest Son, &c.

- 3977 Liber qui nuncupat dieta salutis de Sanct. Bonavent., in quo habentur sermones applicabiles per totu. anu. &c. ; EDITIO PRINCEPS ; a very fine copy of a very rare and curious edition, 3l. 3s.

Impressi Colonie. p. me magist. Ihanem Colhoff, anno 1474

"Editio Princeps, little known, and very rare." Santander, i. 2, p. 234.

This work is executed in double columns, without num., or catchwords, but has sig. ; a full column contains 40 lines, and the whole consists of 141 pa., of which 13 are occupied by an Index. It is supposed to be one of the earliest specimens of the press of the famous I. Colhoff of Cologne, in which city the work was recently procured. The later works even of this printer, with his name, and date at length, are very scarce.

- 3978 Lawd's (Abp. of Canterbury) Relation of the Conference between himself and Fisher, the Jesuit, by the command of King James, very neat, 9s. Lond. 1639

- 3979 Ligon's (R.) "True and exact History of the Island of Barbadoes. Illustrated with a Mapp of the Island, as also the principal Trees and Plants there, &c. ; together with the Ingenio that makes the Sugar, with the Plotts of the severall Houses, Rooms, and other Places that are used in the whole process of Sugar making, all cut in copper," scarce and curious, 18s. Lond. 1657

- 3980 Lauri (Jac.) Antiquæ urbis splendor, hoc est præcipuorum ejusdem templorum, etc. descriptio. 2 vols. in 1, oblong folio, fine copy, very neat, £1. 10s. Romæ, 1612-13

This curious work consists of 121 plates, and the present are very fine impressions. They are chiefly of Villas, Temples, Theatres, Palaces, and other public and remarkable buildings and remains, in and near the celebrated city of Rome, with descriptions.

- 3981 LEONTOS BASILEOS, a most beautiful GREEK MANUSCRIPT, being the Work on Military Affairs, written by the Emperor Leo 6th, about the year 890, £8. 8s.

This choice, interesting, and EXTREMELY RARE Manuscript, appears to be executed in the first style of Greek Calligraphy. It also appears to be exceedingly ancient, if not a copy written for the Emperor himself. Leontos Basileos, in curiously shaped and very large Greek Characters, in RED, remarkably contracted, occupy the first leaf. Indeed the very singular shape of many of the Greek letters throughout the volume, and the remarkable contractions used, sufficiently prove its great antiquity. It is nevertheless very easy of perusal, on account of the extreme beauty of execution. It is divided into 18 chapters, the heads of which are curiously ornamented, and commence in red. The work itself consists of 294 pages. After which, in the same vol., but in a less elegant hand, and apparently of less antiquity, there is a short additional work, occupying 21 pages, which appears to be mathematical. A kind of paper seems to be the material used, but it is of remarkable texture, and exceedingly smooth and glossy. This fine book was recently procured on the Continent.

"LEO the 6th has left us a Treatise of Tactics. It is the most interesting of his works. We there see the Order of the Battles of his time, and the manner of combat of the Hungarians and Saracens. This Leo was surnamed the Wise, and the Philosopher, and was son of Basil, the Macedonian, after whom he ascended the throne, in 886."—Vide Lexicon Historique des hommes illustres. See also the Bibliotheca of Gesner, who observes, that this work has been translated from the Greek into Latin, a Joanne Checo Cantabrigiense; but this transla., it is believed, is a scarce book—a copy has not been found on reference to Catalogues.—This emperor, as mentioned by Dr. Aikin, in his Biog. Dict. vol. 6, also wrote a work on the truth of the Christian Religion—and a collection of laws (begun by his father) and entitled "Opus Basilicon."

3982 Lucretius Opera; good large copy, of a very rare edition, neat, in vellum, £3. 13s. 6d. Bonon., Baptistæ Pii, 1511

The rarity and value of Classics early printed at Bologna, is well known to the curious in Bibliography. The following is the commencement of Dibdin's description and account of this scarce and valuable edition.

"A very valuable edition, with the Editor's own notes, and those of Beoroldus, his tutor; it also contains various readings from some good MSS., and Pius has every where endeavoured, with great labour and erudition, to restore the pure text of his author." &c.—Dibdin, v. 1, pa. 63.

3983 Luciani Opera Græcæ; Editio Princeps, very rare; and a most beautiful and large copy, with fine illuminations; handsomely bd. in green morocco, extra, gilt leaves, £24. Florent. 1496

"EDITIO PRINCEPS; of exceeding rarity and value, and, in the opinion of Count Revickzky, the dearest of all the Editiones Principes of the Classics:" &c.—Dibdin's Classics, vol. 2, pa. 54.

See also Bibl. Spenc. for a particular and striking account of this rare and truly interesting work.

3984 Lydgate (John) a Treatise excellent and compendious, shewing and declaring, in maner of Tragedye, the falles of sundry most notable Princes and Princesses, with other Nobles, through y^e mutabilitie and change of vntedfast Fortune, &c.; first compiled in Latin by the excellent Clerke, Bocatius, an Italian borne. And sence that tyme translated into our English and Vulgare tong, by Dan John Lydgate, Monke of Burye. And nowe newly imprinted, corrected and augmented out of diuerse and sundry olde written copies in parchment—black letter, very good and perfect copy, handsomely bound in calf, extra, with a number of fine and curious wood cuts, very rare, £5.

Imprinted at London, in Fletestrete, within Temple barre, at the sygne of the hand & starre, by Richard Tottel, 1554

N. B. A wormed copy of the above curious and scarce work is charged in the Bib. Ang. Poetica, No. 416, Six guineas.

To which is prefixed the Life of the Author, containing, besides the History of his Works, several extraordinary Characters of Men and Books, Sects, Parties, and Opinions; 3 vols. bound in one thick vol., with fine port. by Faithorne; very fine copy, neat, in calf, scarce, £2. 10s. Amsterdam, 1698

3987 Morgan's (Fynes) Ten Yeeres Travel through the twelve Dominions of Germany, Bohmerland, Switzerland, &c. also The Itinerary of Ireland; with an Account of the Rebellion of Hugh, Earle of Tyrone, and the appeasing thereof, written in form of a Journal; and The Discourse upon severall Heads through the said severall Dominions—good copy, MS. title, hf. bd. very neat, and rare, with curious cuts, £3. 13s. 6d. London, 1617

The above very curious and scarce book is divided into 3 parts—each of which pages anew—these parts, it is believed, are frequently not met with in the same vol., but this copy contains the whole, consisting of, together, 888 pages.

3988 Morant's History and Antiquities of the most ancient Town and Borough of Colchester, in the County of Essex. In 3 books, collected chiefly from MSS., with an Appendix of Records and original Papers; 2nd and best edition, with 9 copperplates, fine copy, bds., new, scarce, £1. 10s. London, 1768

3989 Martialis Opera, cum Calderini Comment., good large copy, very neat, in the original pannel binding, a scarce edition, £2. 2s. Venet. Baptista de Tortis, 1485.

3990 Missal Romanum; a very curious volume, finely printed on PAPER; rare, hf. bd. calf, extra, very neat, £2. 12s. 6d.

No date, but executed about 1490

Every page of the above curious volume is surrounded with a large and singular woodcut border, with numerous devices. It also contains 16 large engravings, the size of the page. Missals appear to be considerably more scarce printed on Paper, than even on vellum. The vol. consists of 144 pages.

3991 Museum Tesnianum, Opera illustrissimi Comitæ Dom. Car. Guitt. Tessin; many plates, good copy, hf. bd. calf, neat, 15s. Holmiæ, 1753

3993 Macrobiï Opera, as above, finely printed by Badius Ascensius, cum fig., hf. bd. good copy, 20s. Paris ap. Rad. Ascens., 1519

- 3994 Mosaic Pavements, and ancient Painting in Glass, (Fac Simile Specimens of) finely engraved, and most beautifully coloured after the Originals. The pavements being those discovered in various parts of Great Britain, and the Specimens of Glass taken from the most beautiful windows, in the most celebrated Cathedrals in the Kingdom. The whole mounted on very thick and fine Bristol drawing boards; imp: atlas fol.; size 2 ft. 2 in. by 1 ft. 7 in. The first collection, or series, scarce, there being no more published than were subscribed for; a fine Subscriber's set, and at the original subscription price, £21.—handsomely and strongly half bound in russet. 1804—1809
- 3995 Mosaic Pavements, and fac simile Specimens of ancient stained Glass, as above, the second series; but each collection is complete in itself, though bound perfectly similar to each other; of the same size, and mounted, and in every respect exactly as above, and at the original subscription price, £12. 12s.

For the prosecution of this truly magnificent and interesting publication, the Author has travelled over great part of the Kingdom—thus perpetuating the most beautiful and admirable Specimens of ancient art, which would no doubt, in the course of time, themselves have mouldered away, and but for the present work, perhaps, have been lost to posterity.

- 3996 Mangeli (Jacobi) Bibliotheca Pharmaceutico Medica, seti rerum ad Pharmacium Gelenico-Chymicam spectantium Thesaurus referatissimus; in quo, ordine Alphabetico non Omnis tantum, materia medica Historice; Physice, Chymice, ac Anatomice explicata, &c. cum figuris, 2 vols. fine set, neat in vellum, 18s. - 3997 Novum Testamentum Græce et Lat., per Erasmus—Editio Princæps—very good and large copy, with valuable MS. remarks in the margins, chiefly with Pencil, by a former learned possessor, and a curious additional MS. Greek Index; supposed by the same hand; elegantly bound in calf extra; gilt, &c. very rare, £4. 14s. 6d Basil, 1516—17

"Erasmus's editions, notwithstanding their faults, are much esteemed; and are in some respects equal to manuscripts."—Michaelis, by Marsh, vol. 2.

"The First edition is the scarcest, and sells high." Dibdin, vol. 1, pa. 57.

- 3998 Novum Testamentum Græcum cum Lectione variis et Paralipomenis Millii et Kusteri; very fine copy of the best edition, calf, very neat, £1. 15s. Lips. 1723

"This edition, by Ludolph Kuster, is a reimpression of Mills's, enriched with the various readings of twelve additional MSS.; &c.—Dibdin, vol. 1, pa. 96.

- 3999 Novum Testamentum Græcum, e Codice MS. Alexandrino, a Woide, fine copy, in boards, large paper; £2. 15s. Londini, 1786

The above is a fac simile of the famous Alexandrian MS., and is finely printed on imperial paper; with Types cast for the purpose.

- 4000 Novum Testamentum Græco-Latinum, interprete Desid. Erasmo, in quo variantes Lectiones, itemque Innumere Scripturæ Concordantiæ, ex clarissimorum virorum Scriptis collectæ: edit. Nova, modatissima et utilissima, &c. fine copy, taken off on very LARGE PAPER, scarce, £1. 10s. Gissæ Hassorum, 1669

The above scarce and curious copy is probably unique of this size. It appears to have been purposely taken off on this very large paper, (the margins being about four inches) for the use of a learned Foreign professor, whose name and arms appear in the book, and who has enriched this copy with numerous valuable MS. addenda, references, and notes, beautifully written. It was recently imported from Strasburg.

4001 Nicholls's (W. D. D.) Comment on the Book of Common Prayer, with the Psalter, or Psalms of David, and the additional notes of Bps. Andrews, Cosins, &c. large copy, with portrait by Vandergucht, neat in calf, 14s. Lond. 1710

Pompoeius Festus, De Interpretatione Linguae Latinæ; no place, date, or name of Printer, but executed about 1478, £5. 5s.

The above are a collection of very rare and valuable editions. Of the Nonnius Marc. Dr. Clark, vol. 5, pa. 127, says, "A beautiful and scarce edition." And the others, it is believed, are equally, if not more uncommon. The 3 works are rarely met with together, and do not necessarily unite. They are fine large copies, with several curious illuminations, and recently procured in Italy.

4003 Ovidii Metamorphoseon, a Bono Accursio; good copy, of a rare

herbipolen. &c.; a beautifully printed work, very clean and rare, and some of the leaves uncut, £3. 3s.

Sine an., loc., et Typ. ind., sed excussa, circa 1468-70

This rare and curious Psalter is supposed to have been executed by Fust & Schoiffer at Mayence, the types used being decisively very similar to those of these celebrated inventors of the Typographic Art. It has neither notices, signatures, nor catchwords. The Text of the Psalms is in very LARGE red and black characters, and the comment in columns parallel with the text, in a type much smaller, and a good deal similar to that used in Cicero's Offices, 1465. The Psalms finish on the 253rd leaf---after which are different Prayers and Extracts from Jeremiah, &c. which occupy 29 leaves, and of this addition, a leaf appears to be wanting. The conclusion of the Psalms is thus printed in red, "Finit liber psalmodum, numero centum quinquaginta." The work was recently procured at Cologne, and formerly belonged to the convent of the Carmelites, in that ancient city.

Supplement—Folio—Miscellaneous.

4007 Psalterium Polyglotta, Heb., Lat. Gr., Lat. Arab., Chald., et Lat., cum scholia: Editio Princeps, good sound copy of a very rare edition, bds., £3. 3s. Genoe, 1516

4012 Politiani (Angeli) Opera omnia, et alia quædam lectu digna; a very fine large & perfect copy, of this beautiful book; very scarce, £4. 14s. 6d. Venetius in ædibus Aldi, 1498

"Cette belle et rare edition, est plus ample que celle de Florence, 1499 in folio."---Renouard, tom. 1, pa. 92.

N. B. At Dr. Askew's sale, so long ago as 1735, a copy of this scarce edition sold for £5. 12s. 6d.; and at the Pinelli Sale, in 1789 (see No. 1271) it sold for £8. 8s.---Vide Brunet, tom. 3, pa. 50---and Dr. Clark's Bibl. Dict. vol. 5, pa. 288.

4013 Penn, (W.) a complete Collection of the Works of, with an Account of his Life, Travels, &c. and many original Letters of the Author, 2 large vols. calf, neat, scarce, £2. 12s. 6d. Lond. 1726

4014 Penn, (W.) Works of, as above, vol. 2, neat, 18s. Lond. 1726

This is the only complete edition of the works of the excellent and justly celebrated Wm. Penn, ever published. It is become very scarce, having been long out of print. There was an edition in folio of his select works, published about the year 1770, which is also scarce; and another edition of the same, (being only part of the above) in 5 vols. 8vo., which is likewise become so scarce that it is charged £5. 5s. by the publisher, Wm. Phillips, of London.

4015 Pagnini (Sanct.) Hebraicas Institutiones---in quibus quicquid est Grammatices Hebræicæ facultatis edocetur ad amussim; de literis, punctis, accentibus, nomine, et nominum Speciebus, verbis, &c. fine copy, elegantly hf. bd. calf, extra, marbled leaves, raised bands, &c. very scarce, £1. 11s. 6d. Lugdun. p. Antonii. du Ry, 1526

The above is a very fine, as well as curiously printed book, by the celebrated du Ry, of the city of Lyons, specimens of whose early press are rare. The title page, and the page at the end, are within very curious wood-cut borders. The capitals at the beginning of the Sections, are also wood engravings, about $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. sq., most of which contain portraits, &c. The book is supposed to be one of the very first Hebrew Grammars ever published. It is in double columns, of 30 lines each, and consists of 428 pages.

- 4016 Platonis Opera omnia Græcæ, Editio Secunda, fine large copy, in the original vellum binding; a very rare and valuable edition by S. Grynaeus, 2 vols. in 1, 2l. 12s. 6d. Basil ap. J. Valderum, 1534

The above copy of this valuable edition has written on the title, in a good ancient hand, 'Ex dono Regii.' The 2 vols. consist of 1200 pages.

"This is an elegant, rare, and excellent edition, and is the joint production of Valderus the printer, and Simon Grynaeus, a well-known scholar and critic."—Dibdin's Classics, vol. 2, pa. 133.

- 4017 Plinii Secundi Historia Naturalis, libri 37, a most beautiful and large copy, with capitals finely illuminated in gold and colours, handsomely bound in pale morocco, gilt leaves, exceedingly rare, £18. Venet. ap. Jenson, 1472

"One of the most splendid, rare, and magnificent editions of Pliny, the typographic art ever produced. The work is highly treasured in the cabinets of the curious."—Dibdin. "This edition is beautifully splendid."—Ernesti. A more beautiful and desirable copy of this choice work than the present, can scarcely perhaps be in existence. So long ago as at Dr. Askew's Sale, in 1775, a copy sold for £23.

- 4018 Plinii Secundi Epistolæ, et Panegyricus, cum commentariis Catanaei, fine large copy of a handsomely printed book, with wood cuts, hf. bd. very neat, 1l. 1s. Paris, Jo. Bad. Arvensii, 1533 vols. fine set, new, in extra boards, uncut, with portrait, vignettes, &c. 4l. 14s. 6d. Aven. 1758-65

A very valuable and scarce work.

- 4028 Ptolemai Geographia, a large vol. and very scarce edition, with 27 singular and very curious maps engraved on wood, and with portrait, and fine large capitals, also engraved on wood; elegantly hf bd. in calf, extra, raised bands, &c. 7l. 7s. Ulmæ, 1482

Vide Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. vol. 2, No. 392, where a fac simile of the portrait at the commencement of this rare and curious book is given, and the work itself is minutely described—the present copy however, it will be seen, has not as many maps as stated to be in the Spencer copy. The following is an extract from Dibdin's observations, several pages being occupied in the Bibl. Spenc.
on this work; "This is one of the most magnificent and interesting volumes in this collection."

In Edwards's catalogue a copy was charged £21.—See Dr. Clarke's Bibl. Dict.
vol. 5, p. 291, where this is stated.

- 4029 Philostrati de vita Apollonii Tyanei libri octo. Ibidem libri latini interprete Alemanno Rinuccino florentino. Eusebius contra Hiero-clem, &c. Greek and Latin, fine and large copy, appearing to be large paper, of a very rare edition, handsomely bound in calf, extra, 3l. 3s. Venetis, apud Aldum, 1501-3-4

Editio Princeps—and sold as long ago as at the Pinellian Sale in 1789, for 3l. 18s.—See Dr. Harwood, p. 97, and Dr. Clark's Bibl. Dict.
vol. 5, p. 209. The present copy, according to Renouard and Bru-net's statement of pages, appears to be considerably more than complete.
The work itself is remarkable from having several dates, in consequence of Aldus, after having executed a part, delaying to finish the rest.—Vide Renouard.

- 4030 Betsa (Francisci) de Comestorium Vitorum. Editio Princeps. A beautiful copy of a very rare book, the first page curiously ornamented, 9l. 9s. Nurembergæ (Joh. Sensenschmid, et H. Keffer) 1470

This rare volume is not only the EDITIO PRINCEPS, but it is the FIRST WORK which issued from the Nuremberg Press, bearing a date. It is also a desirable specimen of ancient printing and paper making.

"Premiere edition, d'autant plus precieuse, qu' elle est regardee comme la premiere impression faite a Nuremberg, avec date. Les caracteres sont absolument conformes a ceux employes dans la suite par J. Sensenschmid et Henricus Keffer, dans leurs impressions."—Santander, vol. 3, p. 313.

- 4031 RELIQUES of TYPOGRAPHY, illustrating the Progress of this inestimable Art, from its origin to the present time ; including Specimens of Wood-cutting and Engraving ; 3 large vols., handsomely hf. bd. in russia, double lettered, 7l. 7s. Lond. 1814

The first vol. of the above curious collection is chiefly of specimens from the Invention of Printing to the year 1600—the 2nd from 1600 to the Year 1700—the 3rd from 1700 to 1810.

- 4032 REVOLUTION FRANCOISE, ou Analyse complete et impartiale du MONITEUR: suivie d'une Table Alphabetique des Personnes et des Choses, 4 vols. Royal Folio, new, in bds., uncut, and a fine set of a handsomely printed work, with 2 beautiful engravings, 8l. 13s. 6d. Paris, 1801-2

The above is a very curious and interesting work. The two latter volumes called "Table Alphabetique des Personnes" is a kind of Biographical Dictionary of eminent men, during, and after, the Revolution.

- 4033 Reynolds's (John) Triumphs of God's Revenge against the crying and execrable Sin of Murther, in thirty tragical Histories, with many curious engravings, wants 2 or 3 leaves, hf. bd., neat, 15s. Lond. 1669

- 4034 Another copy, wants 24 leaves, 7s. Lond. 1669

- 4035 Reynolds's (J.) Triumphs of God's Revenge against the crying and abominable Sin of Adultery, expressed in ten tragical Histories, never printed before, illustrated with Sculptures, unbound, 10s. 6d. Lond, 1679

- 4036 Scriptores de Re Rustica, viz., Columello libri xi—et Palladius, Rutillius, & Taurus Emilianus ; a beautifully printed work, but a little stained in the inside edges of some of the leaves ; rare, and neat, in vellum, 6l. 6s. Venetiis, per Nic. Jenson, 1472

N. B. This finely executed and accurate work has two Colophons, with the date, as now mentioned, at length. So long since as at the Sale of Dr. Askew's Books, a copy of this celebrated edition sold for 13l. 13s. —See Harwood's View, 4th edit.

- 4037 Scriptores de Re Rustica, Cato, Varro, Columella, Palladius ; a fine and large copy of a very rare edition, neat, in vellum, 4l. 10s.

Printed at Reggio (in Italy) per Barthol. Bruschium, 1482

This edition has some readings peculiar to itself. It is printed with a handsome type, and is a fine and noble book. This and the foregoing were recently obtained in Italy ; the present at Turin, and the former at Venice.

- 4038 Scriptores de Re Rustica—Opera Agricolationum, Columella, Varro, Cato, Palladius cum excriptionibus et commentariis D. Philippi

Beroaldi; also a very scarce edition, complete and very good copy, £3. 3s. Printed at Reggio, impensis Francisci Mazali, 1498

N. B. It will be seen that this last scarce edition of these interesting Authors, contains the comment of Beroaldus, not in either of the foregoing. It is unbound.

- 4039 Stephani (Henrici) Glossaria Duo, e situ vetustatis eruta: Ad utriusque Lingua cognitionem et locupletationem perutilia: the original edition, very rare, £4. 4s. Excud. H. Stephanus, 1572

N. B. This scarce work, by the celebrated Henry Stephens, is generally wanting to his excellent Greek Thesaurus.

- 4040 Statuta Ordinis Carthusiensis a Guigone, Priore Carthusie compilata, nec-non Privilegia ejusdem Ordinis. Cum Figuris. The whole 5 parts complete, and all the plates; large copy, in the original binding, but injured by worm, very rare, 3l. 3s.

Basileæ, &c. 1510

The following is extracted from De Bure's Account of this very scarce and curious book.---he occupies upwards of 3 pages in describing it.

"L'on connoit assez la rareté de cet Ouvrage dans la Republique des Lettres, & ce qui le fait rechercher de tous les Curieux. L'on sait que cette rareté est venue de ce que les Chartreux en ont fait retirer du commerce la plus grande partie des exemplaires, & que cet Ouvrage devient encore plus rare de jour en jour.

Il est a propos de prendre garde si la partie qui renferme les privileges de cet Ordre, se trouve dans l'exemplaire que l'on veut acquerir. Cette partie est essentielle dans le livre; puisqu' elle en est la plus rare, & qu' elle y manque ordinairement."---Debure, Bibliograph. instruct. No.

- 4041 Sabina (Angeli) Paradoxa in Juvenalem, cum tribus ejus epistolis ad Nicolaum Perottum; fine copy, Editio Princeps, with the first page illuminated; neat in vellum, very rare, 7l 7s.

Romæ, Georg. Sachel, et Barth. Golsch, 1474

"Premiere edition, tres rare."---Santander, who gives a long description of this scarce book. See also Brunet, tom. 3, pa. 369.

- 4042 Scriptores de Re Militari; viz. Vegetius, Frontinus, Elian, and Modestus; fine large copy, elegantly h. b. calf extra, raised bands, marbled leaves, &c. with portrait and numerous plates; a very fine and scarce edition, £2. 12s. 6d. Paris, Wechel, 1532

"A rare and beautiful edition, adorned with very elegant wood cuts of military engines, weapons, habits." &c.---Dr. Clark, Bibl. Dict. vol. 6, p. 59.

- 4043 Sewel's (W.) History of the Rise, Increase, and Progress, of the People called Quakers, original edition, neat, 15s. Lond 1722

- 4044 Settle's (Elkanah) Eusebea Triumphans. The Hanover Succession to the Imperial Crown of England, an Heroick Poem in; fine copy, very neat and rare, with the Royal Arms embossed, 1l. 11s. 6d. Lond. 1722

This very rare poetical work is not to be found in the extensive collection of the Bibl. Ang. Poet. It is in Latin and English Verse, in opposite pages, and is finely printed. This copy also possesses the remarkable singularity, of not only being a presentation copy to Sir Robt. Bedingfield; but of possessing a finely-executed MS. epistle, also in poetry, and in the handwriting of the AUTHOR.

Supplement—Folio—Miscellaneous.

- 4045 Senecæ Opera Omnia ; editio secunda ; sound copy, but water-stained in some places ; elegantly hf. bd. in calf extra, raised bands, &c., a very scarce edition, £3. 13s. 6d.
Tarvisii, per Bernardum de Colonia, 1478
See Santander, tom. 3, p. 349.
- 4046 Senecæ Tragediæ, ex recens. Hieron. Avantii, & cum alior., notis ; good copy, neat, scarce, £1. 4s. Parisiis, Bad. Ascensius, 1514
 This edition sold at the La Valliere sale for 36 livres ; see cata. vol. 3, pa. 20.
 See also Dr. Clarke's Bibl. Dict. vol. 6, pa. 76.
- 4047 Strabonis Geographiæ, ex vers. Guarini et Typhernatis ; very beautiful copy, superbly bound in russia, super extra, gilt leaves, &c. ; a rare edition, £4. 4s. Tarvisii, Jo. Vercellens, 1480
- N. B. The above fine copy of this ancient Geographer was printed 36 years before the edit. princeps in Greek. Respecting the early Latin Editions,—Dr. Clark observes, "These editions, probably made from MSS. different from that which Aldus edited in 1516, may be of considerable service in a new edition of the Greek text."—Bib. Dic. v. 6, p. 124.
- Strabo was a native of Amasia, a city of Cappadocia. He flourished under Augustus and Tiberius, about A. D. 14. His Geography, in 17 books, which is all that remains of his works, is held in high and universal esteem ; and is a monument of the erudition and sagacity of its Author.—Dr. Clarke.
- 4048 Schmidii Concordantiæ Græc. Nov. Testament. ; fine copy, new, in bds., uncut, with portrait, best edition, £2. 10s. Lipsiæ, 1717
 "This is a most useful and excellent work ; and is as far superior to that of Stephens, as Tromm's work is to the Concordance of Kircher."—Dr. Clark, Bibl. Dict. vol. 3, p. 44.
- 4049 Scapulæ Lexicon Græco-Latinum—edit. nov., priori locupletior et correctior, cum Indice et Appendice ; very good copy, half bound, £2. 12s. 6d. Bas. 1594
- N. B. The index to the above edition consists of 120 pages ; and the appendix of 94 pages.
- 4050 Serapionis Medici Arabis celeberrimi Practica studiosis medicinarum utilissima—Venet. Junta, 1550 : also bound with the above, "Practica Canonica de Febribus Johannis Michaelis, Savonarolæ." Venet. apud Juntas, 1563 ; scarce, fine copies, and both wholly UN CUT, 20s.
- The above are printed in double column, of 70 lines in a full col. ; and the two consist of 749 pages. It would be very difficult perhaps to find 2 more uncut Juntas, in this, or any other country. The capitals, &c. are neatly engraved.
- 4051 Secolo delle Tenebre, e della Luce ; a very curious Italian Manuscript, finely written in Red and Black characters, £1. 11s. 6d.
- The above singular work is curiously ornamented with various devices—it is evidently written in Praise of Bonaparte, and to set forth or exalt his works—comparing the former age, to the age of Darkness, and the age of Napoleon, to that of Light. It appears to be written as a series of apothegms.—The volume consists of 92 pages ; and seems to have been the copy given to Napoleon himself, having on the first page, finely executed "Napoleone Imperatore e Re." It is known to have been last in the possession of Prince Talleyrand.

- 4052 Taylor's (Bp.) Life of Christ, and Cave's Lives of the Apostles, with engravings by Faithorne, Lombart, and others; very fine copy, calf, neat, best edit. £1. 4s. Lond. 1703
- 4053 Tewrdaancth, ou les Aventures perilleuses du fameux Heros et Chevalier Téwrdaancths; ecrites en Vers Teutoniques, par Melchior Pfintzing; with 118 large and very curious engravings, fine impressions; very good and large copy, neat, in vellum, very rare, £9. 9s. Augsburg, 1519
- "This work is not only sought after on account of the engravings, which are by Hans Schieffelein, but still more on account of the extraordinary Characters, with which the text is printed; Characters ornamented with bold flourishes, entwined (entrelaces) one into another, and which express in a remarkable, manner, fine German Text Writing."---Brunet, t. 3 p. 319.
- 4054 Therence en Francois, prose et rime, avec le latin; very good & large copy of a very rare and curious edit., with numerous fine engravings on wood, £10 Imprime a Paris, pour Anthoine Verard.
- "Edition rare, ornee d'un assez grand nombre de graveurs en bois."---Brunet, t. 3, p. 311.
- "Exemplaire precieux par la qualite qui le distingue des autres."---De Bure, No. 2623.
- 4055 Taylor. (John.) All the Workes of John Taylor, the Water-Poet. Being sixty and three in number; Collected into one volume by the Author: with sundry new additions, corrected, revised, and newly imprinted, very scarce, 4l. 4s. London, by James Boler, 1630
- N. B. The present copy of this scarce and curious work is quite perfect, except the frontispiece. In the Bibl. Ang. Poetica, a copy of the same edition, wanting frontispiece, and with four leaves supplied by MS., is charged £6. 6s.---See No. 733.
- 4056 Theophylactus In Evangelia & Acta Apostolorum, in Greek; EDITIO PRINCEPS: title slightly injured, otherwise a most beautiful copy, on large paper; very neat in the original binding, vellum embossed, £2. 2s. Romæ, 1542
- "Theophylact, Archbishop of Acria, Metropolis of all Bulgaria, was a native of Constantinople. He died about A. D. 1100. His Commentis, which are chiefly extracts from Chrysostom, are of considerable use, because of the Greek text of the New Testament quoted in them; from which several important various readings have been extracted."---Dr. Clark, Bibl. Dict. vol. 6, pa. 260.
- 4057 Turnebi (Adriani) Adversariorum; 3 vols. in one, good copy, in vellum, 16s. (See Brunet, tom. 3, pa. 361.) Parisiis, 1580
- 4058 Taylor's (Dr.) Hebrew Concordance; 2 vols. bound in 1, new and very neat, in calf; a fine large copy, of a very valuable work, with port. £7. 7s. Lond. 1754
- 4059 Another good copy, 2 vols., hf. bd. calf, neat, £6. 6s. Lond. 1754
- "This excellent work was published under the patronage of all the English & Irish Bishops, and is a monument to their honour, as well as to the learning and industry of Dr. Taylor."---Dr. Clark, Bibl. Dict. vol. 2, p. 114.
- 4060 Terentius, a scarce and curious edition, printed in a fine large type, but the copy is written in, £1. 1s. (unbound.) Parisiis, G. Vusolff Badensis, 1490
- 4061 Terentius, with fine engravings, £1. 11s. 6d. Argent. Gruninger, 1496

For an accurate account of this rare and singular book, see Bibl. Spenc. vol. 2, No. 481. The present copy is imperfect in 8 leaves, but the beginning and end are complete.

- 4061 Taciti Opera ; cum Agricolæ Vitæ ; editio Secunda, very rare ; a few of the first leaves a little injured, neat, £3. 13s. 6d. circa, 1479

N. B. Though this very scarce edition is the second of the works generally of Tacitus, it contains the EDITIO PRINCIPES of the "Vita Agricolæ," which is here printed for the first time---not being in the only prior edit., supposed to have been executed by J. De Spira, about 1470.

Brunet, t. 3, p. 290, justly observes "A full page contains 37 lines ; and that this edition has the advantage of containing the Life of Agricola, which is not in the preceding ;" (the edit. of Spira.) The present copy was recently procured at Turin in Italy. There is written in it 'Exemplare Rarissimo'---and it has arms with the following motto, 'Felicitis Durandi Comitibus Villæ.'

- 4062 Vidian's Choice & Special Pleadings, fine copy, very neat, 8s. 1684

- 4063 Virgilii Opera, cum versione Italica, notis et variis Lectionibus, edente Ambrogio, 3 vols., fine set, hf. bd. uncut, Roma, 1763--5

This splendid edition is from the text of the Medicean MS. of Virgil, with various readings from the Vatican MS. It is illustrated by nearly 200 engravings, after ancient Gems and Paintings, by Bartoli.

- 4064 Urbani Institutiones Græcæ Grammaticæ : very rare, and neat, in calf, £4. 4s. Venetiis in æd. Aldi. Manutii, 1497

"A very rare work. Erasmus informs us that as early as two years after its publication, it was difficult to obtain a copy."---Dibdin's Classics, v. 2, p. 412.

- 4066 Vita (de) et Moribus Philosophorum et Poetarum ; a beautiful and large copy of a very rare work, £2. 12s. 6d. circa, 1469-70

This fine book commences with a table which occupies 12 pages. The work then begins, on the recto of the 7th leaf, with the Life of Thales, the Milesian. There are neither numerals, signatures, nor catchwords, which, with the singular shape of many of the letters, prove its antiquity. A full page has 31 lines, and the vol. consists of 178 pages---and has in the whole accounts of no less than 117 eminent persons, Philosophers and Poets.

- 4067 Wood's Athenæ Oxoniensis ; an exact History of all the Writers and Bishops who have had their education in the University of Oxford ; 2 vols., 2nd edit., enlarged with above 500 new lives, &c. fine set, on LARGE PAPER, very neat in calf, £5. 5s. Lond. 1721

- 4068 Another Fine copy, neat, cf., the smaller paper, £3. 3s. Lond. 1721

- 4069 Whole Duty of Man, fine edit., with 18 plates, 10s. 6d. Lond. 1735

- 4148 Gersoni (Johannes) De Imitatione Christi, et de contemptu mundi ; fine copy, h. b. calf, very neat, L1. 1s. Impressum Mediolani, impensis Leonardi pachel de almania, 1488.

The above is one year anterior to what Dr Clark (Bibl. Dict. vol. 3. p. 294) calls the First Edition of that very blessed work once attributed to John Gerson, but which is now generally ascribed to Thomas a Kempis. See also Bibl. dict. vol. 4. p. 221.

John Gerson is said to have been a Benedictine abbot of Vereuil, who flourished in the 13th century. But some suppose him to be an imaginary author. The controversy concerning the true author of the Imitation of Christ, generally ascribed to Thomas a Kempis, but by some to Gerson, has led the Kempisians to call even the existence of Gerson into question. Indeed there is no proof sufficient to convince a sceptic on this subject, that either Gerson or Kempis is the real author. The holy man who wrote it, probably never owned it, being contented with that honour that comes from God ; and those who first discovered it, were led to attribute it to certain holy persons who had lived near those times, and whom, from their exalted piety, they supposed capable of writing so excellent a work.

Dr Clarke.

- "The most useful of all Heb. Bibles, for a person who understands any thing of Latin, is the Bib. Heb. Interlin. of Montanus. As this work has a very literal Latin translation interlined with the original, the Latin word being exactly over the Hebrew word to which it belongs, it must be very useful, as the learner is in no danger of applying a wrong sense to any word in his text." Dr Clark's Bib. Dic. vol. 1. This 8vo. edit, though not so finely printed as one of the folio editions, is nevertheless much more commodious.
- 4295 Biblia Hebraica, a Vanderhooght, et Frey, 2 tom: pub. 3*l.* 3*s.* new, for 2*l.* 2*s.* Lond. 1817

Appendix—Octavo—Miscellaneous.

This very curious volume contains above 500 curious engravings on wood, the size of the page, representing the Costume of all parts of the Globe—the designs are by Titian, and the engravings extremely good. —It forms a large and very thick volume. The present copy was recently procured in the city of Venice.

- 4397 Homeri Opera omni Græcæ: 2 thick vols., a very rare edition, and very neat in calf, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* Argent. Cephalæus, 1525

"Edit rariss." Dr Clark—vide Bibl. Diet. vol. 4. p. 118.—"This edition, which was unknown to Harwood, and is found only in very few collections, is preferred by Heyne to that of Junta and Martinus: The editor was Lonicerus, who has founded it on the Florence edition, and dedicated it to the famous Melancthon, his tutor. This edition contains various readings. It may be remarked that all the works of Cephalæus are of rare occurrence."—Dibdin's Class. v. 1. p. 375. Brunet says, speaking of this edition, and another of 1534—"Ces deux éditions sont tres difficiles à trouver; mais la premiere est encore plus rare que la seconde. Il est meme douteux que l'Odyssee ait été impr. en 1525;" which proves the extreme rarity of these vols., particularly the Odys., unknown to Brunet.—Each vol. has some MS. notes—and to the Odyæ. is attached the Life of Homer, also in Greek, which occupies 112 pages.

VIEW OF THE HERMITAGE AT WARKWORTH, IN NORTHUMBERLAND.

MEDALS, MEDALLIONS,

AND

Ancient Greek, Roman, and English Coins, &c.

- 5027 Medallions—the complete series of the 10 very large Bonaparte Medallions, most beautiful Foreign Impressions, the whole elegantly mounted in handsome brass frames, designed either to hang up in the Study or Library, or to lie in the Cabinet, 9*l.* 9*s.*
- 5028 Medallions—the same series, complete, and very fine and early impressions, elegantly fitted up in a large Purple Morocco case, richly gilt; and with the arms of Napoleon, finely embossed in 8 places, 7*l.* 17*s.* 6*d.*
- 5029 Medallions—the same series, fine English Impressions, (the dies having been of late purchased by some artists in London,) handsomely fitted up in an elegant and large Red Morocco case, richly gilt, 6*l.* 6*s.*

N. B. These Medallions are considered to be some of the largest and most beautiful ever executed in any country. They are the work of the celebrated Andrieu, of Paris, the Artist who engraved the principal part of the famous series of Bonaparte Medals. They are doubtless not only interesting as beautiful specimens of the perfection to which this portion of art has been brought, and as exhibiting excellent likenesses of the extraordinary man Napoleon, and of his wives, but also as commemorative of important events, which not long since caused pretty great sensation almost throughout the civilized world.

- 5030 Medals—the complete National Series of Forty in Bronze, containing Portraits of all the eminent Commanders, Generals, &c., and descriptive of the various achievements, of the British Armies, throughout the recent long and sanguinary contest, comprising a period of 25 or 30 years. The whole beautifully engraved, many of them by Foreign Artists, under the direction of J. Mudie, and fitted in an elegant Red Morocco case, richly gilt, 21*l.*

N. B. The above is a very fine and early subscription set, and at the original subscription price—as immediately on publication, sets were raised from 20 to 25 Guineas.

- 5031 Medals—the complete National Series, Historical and Critical account of, comprising an interesting and connected historical record of the important events that have taken place on the Continent, during the 25 or 30 years war, which terminated by the general peace in 1815; embellished with Engravings of the entire Series; royal 4*to.*, elegantly printed on fine wove paper, extra bds., sells 1*l.* 1*s.* 6*d.*, for 1*l.* 5*s.* London. 1820

N. B. To the purchaser of the preceding article, (the National Series of Medals,) a copy of this valuable work, will be given in.

- 5032 Medals—a very interesting Series of the BONAPARTEAN—illustrative of the campaigns, and numerous other important events connected with the Reign and Dynasty of Napoleon Bonaparte, about EIGHTY in number, in Brônze, very scarce, the whole collection for 60*l.
- 5033 Medals—a very interesting series of the BONAPARTEAN, as above, and the Series very similar as to subjects, but in SILVER—also about EIGHTY in number, very scarce, the whole collection for 70*l.

The Medals struck by order of Napoleon, at the French National Mint, are remarkable for their beauty of execution. They are generally engraved by the celebrated ANDRÉU, of Paris, whose skill in this line of art seems almost imitable. They are therefore interesting in two points of view, as exhibiting great beauty of execution, being models of the perfection to which the art of medal engraving is brought, and as commemorating great and important events. The designs were executed under the direction of Count DENON.

SINGLE MEDALS OF THE BONAPARTE SERIES, OF GREAT RARITY.

- 5034 Bataille de Lutzen, bronze, very fine; charged in H. R. Young's printed list, Lond. 1818, 5*l.* 5*s., for 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.
- 5035 Bataille de Wurtchen, bronze, very fine, charged in the London list as above, 5*l.* 15*s.* 6*d., for 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.
- 5036 Fevrier, 1814, bronze, exceedingly fine and rare, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.
- 5037 Bataille de Sommo Sierra, very fine, charged in the Lond. printed list as above, 8*l.* 8*s., for 3*l.* 3*s.
- 5038 L'Empereur Napoleon abdique XI avril MDCCCXIV, bronze, commonly called the abdication medal, exceedingly fine and rare, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.—See the Medallic History of Napoleon Bonaparte, translated by A. M. Seargill, 1820, No. 114.
- 5039 Depart de L'Empereur, Janvier MDCCCXIV, bronze, very fine and rare, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.—See the Medallic History, as above, No. 109.

 5108 Faustina, an exceedingly fine Paduan in large brass, with the rare Rev., Triumphal Chariot drawn by 2 mules (see Mionnet, p. 140) 7s.

Another of the same, large brass, not quite so fine, 5s.

- 5109 Otho, an exceedingly fine Paduan, in large brass, with the curious Rev., 4 whole length Figures—Leg. Securitas, P. R. &c., 14s.

It is pretty well known to Medallists, that an original Otho in large brass, can scarcely be possessed for less than 50*l.* consequently a fine Paduan is important as well as of considerable interest in forming a Series. This is also the case with the foregoing of the same class, all of which have rare and curious Reverses.

End of the Paduans.

- 5110 VITELLIUS—very fine, in large brass, and with the rare Reverse, Two Figures standing, Leg. Honos et Virtus. s. c., 1*l.* 4s.

MANUSCRIPTS, &c.

- 5211 An exceedingly fine Manuscript of the book called the Megilloth, or Book of Esther, most beautifully written in the Original Hebrew, on very fine and strong Leather, supposed to be very ancient, and measures in length about seventeen feet and a half, by ten inches broad, 12*l.* 12s.

This Beautiful Manuscript rolls on a Mahogany Roller, with very large and elegant SILVER handles, or ends, curiously formed and finely chased; the handles about six inches in length.

- 5212 Another Manuscript of the same book of the Holy Scriptures, most beautifully written in the Original Hebrew, on FINE VELLUM, and supposed to be of great Antiquity, measuring in length eleven feet and three quarters, by about four inches and a half broad. This beautiful Manuscript rolls up, and is furnished with a Massy and exceedingly fine solid SILVER case, most curiously wrought, and richly chased, 10*l.* 10s.

It would perhaps be difficult to do complete justice to the fineness of the execution of the two rolls last mentioned. The Ink seems considerably more a substance than that used at the present time. It is also very fine and glossy. The Tagin or Coronae are frequently used, and both the MSS. may seem to vie with, if not to excel as to regularity &c., the finest Printing. In beauty of execution they are both doubtless much superior to print.

- 5213 Another Manuscript, also the Megilloth, or book of Esther, neatly written on vellum, in compartments, singularly and rudely ornamented between each, in several colours—eleven feet in length, and about seven inches in breadth, said to be a Barbary Roll; on a Mahogany Roller, 3*l.* 3s.

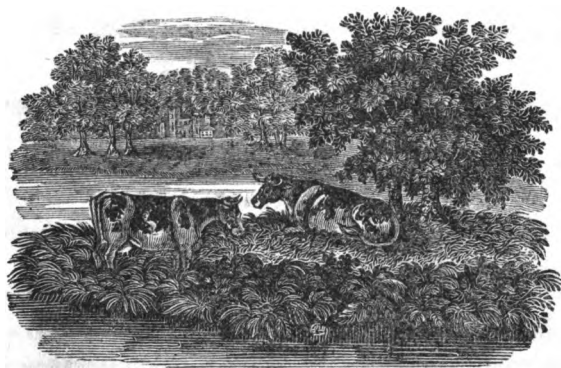

- 5214 A very good and handsome Achromatic Telescope, abot 2 feet, 7 inches long, capable of exhibiting the Satellites of Jupiter, &c., 2*l.* 2s.

END OF PART FIRST.

N. B. The present catalogue has been delayed longer than was designed, with an intention to have united with it an ADDENDA of very recent purchases, both at home and abroad, containing many choice and interesting works of great rarity and value. But it was found that to get this part through the Press, though now ready for printing, would cause so much further delay, that it is at present designed to publish the same as an Addenda, or additional Part, exactly three months from the commencement of the present year, 1822.

ADVERTISEMENT.

THIS SECOND PART of the Catalogue, was expected to have been published long since, as intimated at the conclusion of Part I.; but, owing to numerous Acquisitions of rare and valuable Works, it has, tho' with regret, been delayed till this time.—Part III., also comprising numerous important Articles, of very uncommon occurrence, is in preparation.

In this Part, there is no Arrangement, but simply the Alphabetical. It will, therefore, not unfrequently happen, that a Work of great Rarity and Interest may occur, after two or three of small importance. This circumstance is noticed in order to request, that any Noble and Eminent Collectors, or other Literary Characters, who may inspect this Volume, will not be deterred from examining it throughout, in consequence of occasionally finding several Articles, of interest only; perhaps, to the young Student.

It should be added, that this Part is by no means a Rearrangement of Part I.;—but is composed of Works either purchased since its Publication, or not inserted therein.—A few Copies of Part I. may still be had: it contains a very extensive Collection of scarce, valuable, and useful Works, in most Languages.

A few typographical Errors that may occur, the candid Reader will kindly excuse.

Part Second.

5219 BIBLIA Sacra Latina, edit. Vulgata, a very rare and early edition, folio, neat, 5*l.* 5*s.*

Venet. per F. de Hailbrun, et N. de Frankfordia. 1476

Venet. apud Leon. de Vuid. de Ratisb. 1478

"This edition of the Vulgate Latin Version of the Bible was never seen by Maître, who received an account of it from Le Long's Biblioth. Sacra.

"The initial letters are all coloured, and the copy very scarce."

Dr. Clarke, Bibl. Diet. vol. 1., p. 193.

N. B. Specimens of the press of the above Artist are of exceedingly uncommon occurrence. The present choice copy of the Holy Scriptures, executed by him, was, as well as most of the Editions which follow, very recently procured in Italy.

5221 Biblia Sacra Latina, edit. Vulgata, large and perfect copy, with very large and fine painting, or illumination, all round the first page, describing the creation, &c.; and numerous capitals finely illuminated in gold and colours; folio, in vellum, very rare, 5*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.* Venet. Nic. Jenson. 1479

5222 Biblia Sacra Latina, Vulgatæ edit., 4to. A rare and curious edition, (two or three of the first leaves a little mended,) neat, 3*l.* 3*s.* Venet. per F. Renner de Hailbrun. 1483

N. B. This Printer, F. Renner, it is believed, is scarcely known to Bibliographers.

5223 Biblia Græca Septuaginta, EDITIO PRINCEPS, and a large and beautiful copy, commencing at folio 1, the beginning of Genesis, very scarce; calf, very neat, 6*l.* 6*s.* Venet. ALDUS, 1518

5224 Biblia Sacra Polyglotta, studio et impensis Cardinalis Ximenii, nunc primum impressa, 4 vols., neat, in vellum; being the

the Old Testament in all the languages, complete: very rare, 21*l*. Compluti, 1514.

The great rarity of this FIRST valuable Polyglot Edition of the Holy Scriptures, is pretty generally known. See Dibdin's Classics, vol. 1., p. 1., for a long and highly interesting Critique upon it: he remarks, before concluding, that "from the Bull of Pope Leo X., affixed to the work, it appears 'that about 800 copies were struck off: 'a small number,' exclaims Clement, 'and not enough for public Libraries!'" Michaelis informs us, "(vol. 2, pt. 1, p. 442,) that it is wanting in many of the public Libraries of Germany, and was not for many years even in that of Göttingen. The late Munchausen gave an order to his Commissioner, to bid as high as '900 florins [nearly £80 sterling] for a copy. According to the preface of 'the Antwerp Polyglott, p. 26, it appears to have been rare even at the latter end of the sixteenth century."

5225 Biblia Gr. Septuaginta, fine copy, in calf, 8vo., 18*s*.

Lond., Daniel, 1653

5226 Another very good Copy of the same edit., calf, 17*s*. Ib. 1653

5227 Biblia Gr. Septuaginta, neat Copy, calf, 8vo., 17*s*. Amst. 1683

5228 Biblia Gr. Septuaginta, 2 vols. bd. together, fine copy, very neat, in calf:—a valuable Edition, with the celebrated and very learned Preface, or Introduction, of 19 pages, by Bp. Pearson, 1*l*. 4*s*. Cantab., Field, 1665

See Dibdin's Classics, and Dr. Harwood's View.

5229 Biblia Græca Septuaginta, ex Antiq. MS. Alexandrino cura J. E. GRABE, 3 vols. bd. in 2, very LARGE Copy, with fine Vignettes, &c.; calf, folio, 1*l*. 15*s*. Oxon. 1707—19—21

5230 Another Copy, vols. 1 and 2 in one large Volume, neat, in calf, 1*l*. 5*s*. Oxon. 1707—19

5231 Another very fine Copy, vol. 1, extending to Ruth, inclusive, bds., uncut, 16*s*. Oxon. 1707

The Volumes of this valuable and excellent Edition, it is generally known, were, owing to the decease of Dr. Grabe before its conclusion, published at considerably distant periods. The first Vol. appeared in 1707, containing the Books of Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy, Joshua, Judges, and Ruth. This was printed in a fair and very neat character, in a large folio Volume, in two columns.

In the year 1719, came out the second Vol., containing the two Books of Samuel and of Kings, two of Chronicles, Esther, Tobit, Judith, two Books of Ezra, Nehemiah, and four Books of Maccabees. These were published with as many of Origen's Asterisks and Obelisks as could be procured.

In the year 1720, the third Vol. was published, from Dr. GRABE's Transcript, in the same manner as the former. This contained Hosea, Amos, Micah, Joel, Obadiah, Jonah, Nahum, Habbakuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Baruch, Lamentations, the Epistle of Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and Daniel. There are Prolegomena to all these Volumes, very useful, and which also give good testimony of the great care and pains this most useful work cost Dr. GRABE, more especially, and the other Editors who succeeded to finish what he had so well prepared.

See Dibdin's Classics, vol. 1, pp. 44—5—6.

5232 Biblia Gr. Septuaginta, cum variis lectionibus, &c. &c. a Mililio, very fine Set, neat, in calf, 8vo., 2 vols., 1*l*. 14*s*.

Amst. 1725

"A neatly printed and very commodious Edition." See Dibdin's Classics, vol. 1, p. 49.

5233 Biblia Gr. Septuaginta, et Novum Testamentum, Gr., 4 vols. 12mo., new, bds., a neatly printed Edition, 1l. 4s.

Glasgow, 1822

5234 La Sainte Bible, en françois, traduite selon la pure et entiere traduction de Sainte Hierome, (par Jacques le Fevre d' Estaples); fine Copy of a very scarce Edition of the French Version of the Holy Scriptures, and for a long time considered to be the FIRST; very neat, in calf, 5l. 5s.

En Anvers, par M. LEMPREUR, 1530

"On a long-temps regardé cette bible comme la premiere qui ait été publiée en Francais, mais elle n'est que la seconde édition," &c. Brunet t. I, p. 204; who then goes on to describe the first, which, he remarks, was in 8vo.; but adds, that this Edition, having been suppressed, is exceedingly scarce, &c.

5235 Byble (the Holy), supposed to have been translated by Miles Coverdale; with many curious cuts; exceedingly rare, and perfect except Title, &c., beginning folio 1. with the commencement of Genesis:—neatly bd. in Russia, 12l. 12s., folio.

Lettered on the back, Hamburg, 1535

This very rare Edition of the Holy Scriptures is supposed to be the very first Translation of the whole Bible ever printed in the English language. The present copy was bound, apparently, about 50 years ago, and is lettered Coverdale's Bible, with the date as above. Some Bibliographers believe, there were two editions of this first, or Coverdale's Translation, one printed at Zurich, and the other in the Low Countries, probably at Hamburg, and a copy of the latter, the present is supposed to be. It is doubtless of exceeding rarity; and to find a copy beginning with the first verse of Genesis, and ending with the last of the Revelation, as this does, is a circumstance of very rare occurrence. The last words are as follow:—"The ende of the New Testament, and of the whole Byble."

5236 Bible (the Holy), a large and finely printed Volume, being that ordered by King Henry VIII. to be used in every of the Established Places of Worship, and in consequence sometimes called K. Henry VIII.'s Bible. There are many fine Wood Engravings contained. Newly and handsomely bound in brown calf, very rare, 7l. 7s., large folio.

Lond., 1539

N. B. The above is a very fine, and unusually perfect Copy, of this rare and very early edition of the Holy Scriptures. It has a leaf of introductory matter before the beginning of Genesis. This leaf contains, first, "A Description and Successe of the Kynges of Juda and Jerusalem, &c." and "Wyth what Judgement the Bokes of the Olde Testament are to be red." The Copy is very clean and large (3 or 4 corners of leaves neatly mended,) and ends, except part of a Table, thus:—"The ende of the New Testament." See Lewis, from p. 122 to p. 129, for a particular description; where this rare and curious edition is designated "Cranmer's, or the Great Bible."

5237 Bible (the Holy), a large folio, another edition of the Translation just mentioned, being, as above stated, Cranmer's or the Great Bible, and has, like the above, numerous curious Wood Engravings, h. b. calf, very scarce, 4l. 4s. Lond., 1541

This copy commences with folio 2, and wants the last leaf of Revelation. For a particular a particular description see Lewis, p. 140—1. It has the original curiously engraved Title to the New Testament, containing a Portrait of K. Henry VIII., with Effigies of many of the Church Dignitaries presenting the Bible to him, and of many others, exclaiming Vivat Rex, &c.

- 5238 Bible (the Holy), translated by Tindal, with numerous curious Wood Cuts, handsomely and newly bound in brown calf, very scarce, Black Letter, 2l. 12s. 6d., folio. Lond., 1549

This Copy has 3 leaves of Table; but wants the two first of Genesis and part of the Revelation; and some leaves are inserted from a rather later edition.

- 5239 Bible (the Holy), translated by Tindal; calf: a very scarce edition; folio, Black Letter, 2l. 12s. 6d. Lond., 1551

This Edition is remarkably perfect at the commencement; but ends with the Epistle to the Corinthians. It has no less than 10 leaves of Tables, &c. &c. and then commences with the beginning of Genesis: it is fine and clean, and has the original Title to the New Testament. There is also bound up with it a very early poetical Version of the Psalms.

- 5240 Bible (the Holy); That is, the Holy Scriptures contained in the Olde and Newe Testament. Translated according to the Ebrewe and Greeke, with most profitable Annotations, and Table of proper Names:—very fine and altogether perfect Copy; calf, neat, rare, 4l. 14s. 6d.

Imprinted at London by Chrstr. Barker. 1577

To find so ancient a Copy of the Holy Scriptures, in every respect perfect and fine, is a circumstance of exceedingly uncommon occurrence. The present Copy, though so ancient, is nearly clean and fine as new.

- 5241 Bible (the Holy), as set forth by Archbishop Cranmer, 4to., a remarkably perfect Copy of this rare Edition, commencing at folio 1. with the beginning of Genesis, and not only having the whole of the Old and New Testament to the end, but also the Tables complete, occupying about 12 leaves; h. b. Russia, 5l. 5s. Lond., by J. Nicholson, 1538—9

This Edition, printed by James Nicholson 1538 or 9, is very rare. See it described in Dibdin's Ames, Vol. 3, p. 57, Article 788. See also Lewis's History of Bibl. Translations, (new Edit. p. 120,) where it is observed, "Another Edition of this Bible, [that of Taverner, 1539,] was printed this 'same year in 4to.;" but neither Lewis nor his recent Editor, it appears, had seen a Copy.

- 5242 Bible (the Holie),—conteyning the Olde Testament and the Newe. This is called Parker's, or the Bishop's Bible, and has the three rare Portraits, of Queen Elizabeth, Lord Burleigh, and the Earl of Leicester; also numerous Wood Engravings; Black Letter: calf extra, very scarce, 8l. 18s. 6d.

Lond., 1568

This is supposed to be one of the most complete Copies of this rare and interesting Edition of the Holy Scriptures that exists, having not only fine Impressions of the Copperplate Portraits of Lord Burleigh and the Earl of Leicester, (these two not unfrequently wanting when the Book itself occurs,) but possesses also the original first Title, in which is a large Portrait of Queen Elizabeth: perhaps scarcely five other Copies in the Country possess this last Portrait. This Edition, which is of a very large size, and printed in a fine bold character, contains besides, nearly One Hundred and Fifty fine large Wood Engravings, size about 6 inches by 4½.

- 5243 Another good Copy of the same scarce Edition, with the two rare Portraits, of Burleigh and Leicester; but without that of Queen Eliz.; very neat, in calf, 6l. 6s. Lond., 1568
- 5244 Biblia Sacra Latina, Translatio Imman. Tremellius; et Novum Testamentum Th. Beza, interprete.; MS. Title to the Bible; but the original to the New Testament; neat, in calf, 4to., 12s. Lond., H. Middletonus, 1585
- 5245 Another very fine Copy, neat, in calf, folio, 16s. Lond., H. Middleton, 1585
- 5246 Bible (the Holy), containing also the New Testament, and the Apocrypha; MS. Title to the Old Testament; but the original curiously engraved Title to the New; Black Letter, folio, rare, 1l. 11s. 6d. Lond., Barker, 1595
- 5247 Bible, (the Holy), translated according to the Ebrewe & Greeke, with most profitable Annotations, &c.; 4to., Black Letter, calf, 1l. 1s. Imprinted at Lond., 1597
- N. B. This Copy has also a Poetical Translation of the Psalms, printed by J. Windet, 1597.
- 5248 Bible (the Holy), with New Testament; also a Concordance, and the Psalms in Metre, by Sternhold and Hopkins; MS. Title, good Copy, newly and very neatly bound in calf, Black Letter, 4to., 18s. Lond., Barker, 1607
- The two last Editions are sometimes called the Breeches Bible, on account of the particular rendering in the 3d Chapter of Genesis, v. 7.
- 5249 Bible (the Holy), Being the Old Testament and the New, with Psalms by Sternhold and Hopkins, and the Common Prayer; good Copy, large folio, scarce, 1l. 15s. Lond., Barker, 1616
- 5250 Bible (the Holy), The Old Testament and the New, with the Apocrypha: MS. Title to the Bible, but has the original beautifully engraved Title to the Testament; Black Letter, neat, folio, rare, 2l. 2s. Lond., Barker, 1617
- N. B. This noble Bible is of very large Size, and is beautifully clean. It has also the curious Calendar, or Tables, at the Commencement, so often wanting in ancient Editions; and the New Testament extends to the End, having the word Finis; but a few of the last leaves are injured. See Lewis, for a particular Description of this scarce Book.
- 5251 Bible (the Holy), with Tables of Genealogies, &c.; also a Concordance, Psalms in Verse, &c.; Black Letter, good Copy, 4to., 18s. Lond., Bill & Barker, 1632
- 5252 Bible (the Holy), containing the Old Testament and the New; also numerous engraved Tables of Genealogies, Marg. References, &c.; perfect copy, of a very neat and scarce edition, in the 8vo. or very small 4to. size, calf, neat, 1l. 4s. Lond., R. Barker, 1630.
- 5253 Bible (the Holy), with Testament, Book of Common Prayer, Version of the Psalms, by Sternhold and Hopkins, and engraved Tables of Genealogies; good Copy, folio, 1l. 11s. 6d. Lond., Norton & Bill, 1629

- 5254 Biblia Sacra Polyglotta, Waltoni, 6 vols. large folio; and Castel's Lexicon thereto, 2 vols, with fine Portraits and Plates, by Hollar, &c.; in all, 8 vols. folio, tall set, calf, 29l. 10s. Lond., 1657, &c.

N. B. The above Set of these truly valuable Works, was recently purchased in the City of Naples, of the Duke di Cassano, whose celebrated Library they had for many years contributed to enrich. They are justly considered to be amongst the greatest Works of human Genius ever produced in this, or any other country. It is pretty generally known, that the Bible contains the Holy Scriptures in nine languages, the most important as relates to Biblical Criticism. Concerning the execution of this Work, the emphatic words of the eminent Bibliographer, T. F. Dibdin, may be appropriately used: "On this immortal Work the voice of Criticism has been uniformly favourable: no praise can transcend its merits." See Introductio to the Classica, Vol. 1., P. 20.

- 5255 Biblia Sacra Latina, a Tremellio et Junio, et Nov. Test. a Beza: with Book of Common Prayer, and the Psalms in English Verse, 12mo., scarce, 10s. 6d.

Lond., typis E. Tyler, 1661

- 5256 Biblia Sacra Hebraica, correcta et collata cum antiquissimis et accuratissimis exemplaribus Manuscriptis, &c.: very good Copy of a handsome & valuable Edition by ATHIAS, 1l. 14s.

Amst., J. Athias, 1661

- 5257 Biblia Hebraica, sine punctis, Leusdeni, Amst. 1701; cum Novum Testamentum Gr. Leusdeni, Amst. 1698, 12mo., 1l. 10s.

The above exhibits the original Text of the Sacred Scriptures, both of the Old and New Testament, complete in one Vol. The Greek Text is neatly printed, and Dr. Clarke, Vol. 1, p. 25, justly stiles the Bible a beautiful Book: it is indeed finely executed.

- 5258 Biblia Hebraica, cum punctis: item cum notis Hebraicis, et lemmatibus Latinis, ex recens. D. E. Jablonski, cum ejus Præfatione Latina, &c.: very fine Copy of a beautifully printed and valuable Edition;—and the present is on LARGE PAPER;—the side Margins nearly 3 Inches: the two Vols. bd. in one; vellum, neat, 4to., scarce, 2l. 12s. 6d.

Berolini, 1699

"Optimis et accuratioribus Editionibus, præstantioribus etiam ac rarioribus annumeranda." Dr. Clarke, Vol. 1., p. 223.

- 5259 Biblia Hebraica cum punctis, studio et labore Ev. Vanderhooghti; two Vols. bd. together; the original scarce Edition: (a few leaves supplied from the Re-print,) 2l. 2s. 8vo.

Amst., 1705

"This Work may be considered the most elegant, and perfect Bible, ever yet published on the Masoretic plan. It is now become scarce." Dr. Clarke.

- 5260 Biblia Hebraica, sine punctis, a remarkably small, and neat Edition, rare, 18s. Sine Anno.

N. B. This curious Volume is the smallest Edition of the Holy Scriptures in the original Hebrew, that exists.

- 5261 Biblia Hebraica, cum punctis, Pt. 1., containing the Five Books of Moses, Canticles, Ruth, Lamentations, Ecclesiastes, and Esther, 12mo., 7s.

- 5262 Bible (the Holy), with the New Testament, a scarce and neatly printed Edition, in the 8vo. or small 4to. size:—MS. Title to the Old Testament; calf, neat, 14s.
Lond., H. Mills, & J. Field, 1660
- 5263 Bible (the Holy), with New Testament;—generally called Field's Bible; the neatly printed thin Edition in 4to.; with Marg. References:—MS. Title to the Old Testament; scarce and neat, in calf, 18s.
Cambridge, J. Field, 1666
- 5264 Biblia Gr. Septuaginta, Juxta Exemplar Vaticanum, Romæ Editum; calf, neat, 17s., 8vo.
Amst., 1683
- 5265 Biblia Danica, a very fine Set, 2 Vols. 8vo;—very neat, in calf, rare, 1*l.* 10s.
Kisbenhafn, 1699
- 5266 Bible (the Holy), very small size, vol. 1., to Ezra, 2s. 6d.
Oxford, 1730
- 5267 Biblia Hebraica, ad Præstantiores edit. accurata, accessit Dictionarium omnium Vocum Veteri Testamenti Hebraicarum et Chaldaicarum, &c., a Simonis; calf, neat, two Vols. in one, 1*l.* 8s., 8vo.
Amst. ap Wetst., 1753
- "Simon's Bible is correctly printed, and the Hebrew Types are very fine. It "is accompanied with all the Masoretic Notes that are found in Vander- "hooght;—and what renders it peculiarly useful, a Dictionary, in which all "the Hebrew and Chaldee words occurring in the Bible, are explained in "Latin;—and also an Explanation of all the Masoretic Notes," &c.
Dr. Clarke, Vol. 1., p. 230.
- 5268 Bible (the Holy), printed in a clear Type; wants first Title, and first leaf a little injured; otherwise perfect; with New Testament, and Psalms in Verse, 4to., 10s. 6d.
Edin., Kincaird, 1775
- 5269 Bible (the Holy), containing the Old and New Testament, with a few select Notes, and embellished with 21 large and very fine Engravings; imperial 4to., neat, in calf; a scarce and beautifully printed Edition, forming a large and noble Volume; 5*l.* 5s.
Lond., T. HEPSTINSTALL, 1796
- This fine Book, which is called Hepstinstall's Bible, is already become of uncommon occurrence, and is considered the most splendid and finely executed Edition of the Holy Scriptures, that is to be met with in the English language, except Macklin's; which generally sells at about Forty Guineas. The Paper used is of the fine Wove Vellum kind.
- 5270 Bible (the Holy), vol. 1., a small neat Edition, Morocco, 3s. 6d.
Edinb., 1809
- 5271 Bible (the Holy), with New Testament, wants first 10 chapters of Genesis, 1s. 6d.
Edinb., 1809
- 5272 Bible (the Holy), by Scott, specimen of, containing to chap. 39th of Genesis, and to chap. 11th of Matthew, with numerous Notes, and the learned Preface, &c., of about 40 pages, 4to., 7s.
Lond., 1812
- 5273 Bible (the Holy), an improved Version, from corrected Texts of the Originals, with explanatory Notes, and practical Reflections on each Chapter, by B. Boothroyd:—the first 8 Parts;

Parts; sell at 4s. per Part,—for 2s. 6d. each, 4to.

5274 Ditto, Part 14th, sells 4s., for 2s. 6d. Ib., 1821

5275 Bible (the Holy), containing the Old and New Testaments; being a Revision of the authorized Version, principally designed to facilitate in Families the audible, social Reading of the Sacred Scriptures: illustrated with Notes, Historical, Geographical, and otherwise Explanatory, and also pointing out the Fulfilment of various Prophecies; by W. Alexander, Vol. 1., Part 1.; royal 8vo., 4s. York, 1823

5276 Another Copy, fine Imperial Paper, and superior Ink, 6s.

York, 1823

5277 The same Work, Part 2, Imperial, 6s., Royal, 4s.

York, 1824

The Whole of this Work is not to exceed 20 Parts, to form 3 handsome Volumes.

5278 The New Testament, both in Latine and Englyshe, Echo correspondent to the other, after the Vulgar Text, communely called St. Jerome's, faithfully translated by Johan Hollybushe, 4to., of great rarity, and has several Illuminations; 3l. 3s. Prynted in Southwerke by James Nicholson, 1538

See Dr. Cotton's Account of English Translations of the Bible and Testament, Pp. 5 and 135, for a Description of this very rare Volume. The present Copy is very clean; but wants a leaf at the end, and has not the Title. It has a leaf of the Dedication, and is good and fine, and quite perfect at the beginning of the Testament, and throughout, except as above mentioned.

5279 Novum Testamentum Gr., a particularly fine Copy, very neat and rare, 4to., 2l. 2s. Hagenow, 1521

"Liber rariis."—Dr. Harwood.

Argent. Cephalus, 1524

"This Edition is the first Greek Publication of Cephalus's Press. It is so scarce, that Gerardus a Maestricht, and many other Editors, were not able to obtain a sight of it. According to Beloe, the celebrated passage "1 John v. 7, is altogether omitted; as is also the 26th verse of the 11th chapter of St. Mark. See Anecdotes of Literature and scarce Books. Vol. 1., p. 103." Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 1., p. 60.

5281 Novum Testamentum Gr., 3 vols., fine Copy, neat, in calf, 12mo., very scarce, 1l. 10s. Parisiis, R. Steph. 1649

"This is the celebrated Edition of R. Stephens, called the Omeriscan Edition. It is undoubtedly a beautiful Specimen of Typography, and is justly said by Masch to be ranked among the rarest Books, and to be an ornament to any Library." Dibdin.

5282 Novum Testamentum Gr., good Copy, 8vo., scarce, 10s. 6d.

Bazil, ap. Bryling. 1548

5283 Novum Testamentum Gr., calf, neat, folio, 2l. 2s.

Lutet., R. Steph., 1550

"This is the splendid and critical Edition of R. Stephens, which has so justly excited the admiration of the curious and learned. It contains Readings in the Margin from sixteen MSS., including the Complutensian; and the Text is allowed to be not only more correct than that of the foregoing Editions; but to be the parent of almost all subsequent ones."

"Ius

" 'Its exterior splendour,' says Mill, 'and intrinsic excellence, have not only been acknowledged by every Bibliographer, but its celebrity has placed Stephens, the Editor as well as Printer, on a footing with the most distinguished literary Characters in Europe.' " Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 1, p. 69.

5284 Il Nuovo Testamento, Ital. et Latin, in parallel Columns; 2 Vols. bd. together; a beautiful Copy of a very rare Edition, with curiously engraved Title Page, 1l. 4s., thick 12mo., In Lyone, G. Rouillio, 1558

5285 Novum Testamentum Gr., a finely printed and very scarce Book, 1l. 1s., 8vo. Tiguri, ap Froschoverus, 1566

" I have not discovered above two Copies of this Edition, in my Researches among Biblical Collections." Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 1., p. 72.

5286 Novum Testamentum, Gr. et Lat., a Beza: a few of the leaves a little stained; a finely printed Book, folio, 18s. Genev., 1589

N. B. The above forms a large Volume, having, besides the Greek, two Latin Versions,—the Vulgate and another;—the three in parallel Columns. See Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 1., p. 73, for a critical Account, which is thus commenced:—"These are the Editions of the celebrated Theodore Beza," &c.

5287 Novum Testamentum, Gr. et Lat., a Beza: wants part of last Chapter of Revel.;—a neatly printed Book, the Gr. and Lat. in parallel Columns; thick 8vo., being sometimes bd. in 2 Vols.; a scarce Edit., calf, 10s. Genev., 1590

5288 Novum Testamentum, Gr. et Lat., 12mo., scarce, 9s. Aur. Allob., 1609

5289 Novum Testamentum Gr., 2 vols., neat, in calf, 12mo., 1l. 4s. Lugd. Bat. ap Elzevir, 1624

5290 Another very good Copy, 2 Vols. in 1, calf, 1l. 1s. 1624

" This first Elsevir Edition of 1624, besides being beautifully printed, and extremely scarce, deserves particularly to be noticed, because the Text of the Greek Testament, which had fluctuated in other Editions, acquired in this a consistency, and seemed, during upwards of a Century, to be exposed to no future alterations." &c. Dibdin, Vol. 1., p. 83.

5291 Nov. Test. Gr., 8vo; (first leaf damaged;) 7s. Camb. Buck., 1632

" A beautiful and accurate Edition." Dibdin, Vol. 1, p. 85.

- 5299 Novum Testamentum Gr., cum var. Lect., et Notis, Fellii, scarce, 10s. 6d., 8vo. Oxon, 1675
 " This excellent Edition, by the celebrated Fell, was once the most popular " Edition of the New Testament, and is yet an indispensable work to every " man engaged in sacred Criticism." Dibdin, Vol. 1., p. 88.
- 5300 Novum Testamentum Gr., 2 Vols., 12mo., calf, neat, scarce, 12s. Parisiis, 1721
- 5301 Novum Test. Gr., a finely printed and very scarce Edition, calf, 8vo., 18s. Lond., Tonson, 1728
 " This beautiful and correct Edition is taken from Buck's: it is now rare, and " Copies in fine condition sell high." Dibdin, Vol. 1., p. 97.
- 5302 Novum Test. Gr., Juxta exemplar J. Millii, 12mo., neat, 4s. Lond., Bowyer, 1728
- 5303 Novum Test. Gr., G. D. T. M. D., Title mended, neat, in calf, 12mo., 12s. Amst. ap. Wetstein, 1735
 This Edition is said to contain a more numerous Collection of various Readings, &c., than is to be found in any preceding Edition, not excepting Mills's. Dibdin remarks, see Vol. 1., p. 97, that " upon the whole it may be considered the very best critical Edition of the Greek Test.; and the Biblical " Student will do well to procure so valuable and commodious a Publication."
- 5304 Novum Testamentum Gr., a Reineccio, new, bds., 8vo., scarce, 10s. 6d. Lips., 1742
 This Edition, by the learned Reineccius, " has various Readings, Notes, and " Harmonies of the Evangelists, and Acts of the Apostles." &c.
 See Dibdin, Vol. 1., p. 102.
- 5305 Novum Testamentum Gr., a beautiful Copy on LARGE PAPER, handsomely bd. in brown calf, 8vo., 16s. Glasg. in Ædib. Uriæ, 1750
 " This is an elegant Edition of the Greek Testament.—Copies on large Paper are very scarce, and sell high." Dibdin, Vol. 1., p. 102.
- 5306 Novum Testamentum Gr., cura Hardy, EDIT. OPT., 2 Vols., good Copy, neat, 8vo., 1l. 11s. 6d. Lond., 1768
 See Dibdin, for a long Critique on this Edition, which he concludes in the following words:—" The Work sells extravagantly dear, probably from the " few Copies which were struck off."

5307 Novum Testamentum Gr., cum Notis Lat., Stockii; with the Frontispiece; 2 Vols. 8vo., rare, 1l. 11s. 6d. Jena, 1731

"Formed on the Second of Curcellæus, with numerous philological Notes, and parallel Passages, arranged below the Greek Text. It is a rare and beautiful Edition." Dibdin, Vol. 1., p. 98.

5308 Novum Testamentum Gr., cura Bengelii, 4to., bds., uncut, 1l. 4s. Lond., 1783

"An excellent Edition, formed with an extraordinary degree of conscientiousness, sound judgment, and good taste. It has often been re-printed in different forms, and is a lasting monument of the Editor's profound learning and solid piety." See Dr. Clarke, Vol. 6, p. 185.

5312 Psalterio, Expositio super,—per J. de Turrecremata: very fine Copy, of an Edition of great Rarity, folio, 4l. 14s. 6d.

Romæ, per providum virum Magistrum LUPUM GALLUM, 1476

N.B. In addition to the interesting matter of the above rare Volume, it is supposed to be one of two Specimens only that can be referred to, of the Press of the Artist that executed it. He was, as expressed in the curious Colophon attached to the work, Brother of Udal. Gallus.

5313 Psalterio, Expositio super; per J. de Turrecremata; an Edition also of very great Rarity; fine Copy, folio, 4l. 14s. 6d.

Mogunt. per P. SCHÖYFFER, 1478

A Copy of this rare Book, or of the preceding, has not been met with in any of our great Catalogues. This, by the famous Shoyffer, one of the celebrated Inventors of the Typographical Art, is large and fine, in the original pannel Binding. Both this and the preceding, as well as nearly all the early printed Books that follow, were lately procured on the Continent.

5314 Psalterium Latinum, with a Translation in the German Language; the two in parallel Columns: finely printed in red and black, with many very large engraved capital letters, each containing a Portrait: 4to., fine Copy, of an Edition of great Rarity, 3l. 13s. 6d. (Lately procured at Florence.)

Augsburg, Erhardus Ratdolt, 1499

The above very rare, and interesting Edition, of the Compositions of the Royal Prophet, it is believed is unknown to Bibliographers.

Mediolani, 1481

- 5317 Psalterium, cum Hymnis, &c.; an Edition of very great Rarity, finely printed, and containing sixteen large Wood Engravings, (size about 3 inches by 2½,) capitally executed, 4to., 3l. 13s. 6d.
Parisiis, per Ant. Cayllant, 1488

N. B. This rare Volume appears to be unknown to Bibliographers. It has escaped the knowledge even of the indefatigable Panzer. Nor is any Specimen of the Press of Cayllant in the extensive and choice Collection, contained in the Biblioth. Spenceriana.

- 5318 Psalterium Quincuplex: Gallicum, Romanum, Hebraicum, Vetus, Conciliatum; studio Jacobi Fabri Stapulensis; folio, of great Rarity, having been suppressed, on account of the Editor favouring Protestantism; a Specimen also of the FIRST POLYGLOT ever published, having been printed, (though a Work little known, on account of its Rarity,) seven years before that by P. P. Porrus, which is generally referred to as the first: 5l. 15s. 6d.
Parisiis, Henric. Steph., 1509

"This Work is very scarce, having been suppressed."

Dr. Clarke, Vol. 3., p. 226.

Jacobus Fabri Stapulensis, i. e. James le Fevre, of Estaples, the Editor of the above scarce and valuable Work, was born at Estaples, in the diocese of Amiens, about A. D. 1435. He was Professor of the Belles Lettres and Philosophy, in the University of Paris.—William Briconet, Bishop of Meaux, chose him for his grand Vicar in 1523. This Prelate, being suspected of favouring Lutheranism, and persecuted on that account, Le Fevre considered himself obliged to leave his service, for fear of being involved in similar calamities with the Bishop. He retired to Strasburg, where, there is reason to believe, he privately embraced the Protestant Doctrine. In 1530, Margaret, Sister to Francis I., invited Le Fevre to Nerac, where he died in 1537. There are some remarkable circumstances relative to the death of this great man, which are worthy of being recorded. On the day of his death, being as well as usual, while dining with the Queen, and some learned men whom this Princess frequently invited to spend the day with her, Le Fevre appeared pensive and melancholy, and was observed to shed tears. The Queen desired to know what the cause of his sadness was: he answered, I am distressed because of the enormity of my crimes. I am now 101 years of age; and though I have lived a chaste life, and have been preserved from those excesses into which many are hurried by the violence of their passions, passions, yet I have been guilty of this heinous offence,—I have known the TRUTH, and have taught it to many who have sealed it with their blood, and yet I have had the weakness to hide myself in those places where the crowns of Martyrs are never distributed.” Having said this, he dictated his will viva voce, went and lay down on his bed, and died in a few hours.

- 5319 Psalterium Latine, et Cantecis, et Hymnis, et Orationes; juxta Translationem veterem, Iterum repurgatum, et ad Hebraicam veritatem recognitum, cum Argumentis et Scholiis, &c., per D. G. Majorem: very fine Copy, of a scarce and curious Edition, 12mo., 18s. Wittebergæ, 1561

- 5320 Psalmi, editus Hutteri, h. b. calf neat, folio, rare, 1*l.* 1s. Hamb., 1602

N. B. This is a very valuable as well as scarce Edition. It is printed in a fine and very large character, and has the whole of the servile Letters, hollow or white, the rest solid and black; by which ingenious contrivance, the Root which is to be sought for in the Lexicon, (the finding of which is perhaps the chief difficulty in learning Hebrew,) is at once seen.

- 5321 Psalms, a new Version of, by Tate and Brady, small, 3s. 6*d.* Lond., T. Hodgkin, 1701

- 5322 Psalms, the whole Book of, collected into English Metre by Sternhold and Hopkins, conferred with the Hebrew; fine Copy, morocco, gilt leaves, 8vo., 8s. Lond., A. Wilde, 1727

- 5323 Psalms, by Tate and Brady, neat, 2s. 6*d.* Lond., 1778

- 5324 Psalms, good Copy, finely printed, wants Title, 4to. 5s.

- 5325 Psalms in Hebrew, carefully corrected and revised, according to the Text of Vanderhooght; bds., new, printed in a fine large character, 3s. 6*d.* Lond., 1820

- 5326 Watts's Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs, calf, small, 3s.

- 5327 AUCTORES CLASSICI, IN USUM DELPHINI:—SIXTY-SIX VOLUMES in Quarto, being the ENTIRE SERIES, except 1 Vol., (the Op. Philosoph. of Cic.;) and containing the 2 very rare Volumes,—the STATIUS:—a fine Set, very neat, and double-lettered. Such a Set, as to completeness, is of EXTRAORDINARY RARITY, 4to., 168*l.* (The Statius alone, has sold for upwards of 60*l.*) Paris, v. y.

This valuable and highly interesting Set of the Delphin Classics, in 4to., is supposed to be by far the completest Collection of these celebrated Works, that is on Sale in this Country; being, as above stated, the ENTIRE SERIES, ever published, except one Volume. The value, rarity, and interest of these important Editions of the Classics, is pretty generally known to Scholars, and Classical Collectors. They form not only a most extensive body of Classical Literature, but are enriched with valuable and learned Notes, by some of the most profound Scholars who lived at the time of their Publication. The present Set was very recently purchased in the city of Naples, from the celebrated private Library of the Duke di Cassano; who for years prided himself upon possessing such a Series of these choice Works, of which few Libraries throughout EUROPE, whether public or private, could boast. Each Cover of every Book of the present Set, is embossed, in Gold, with the Ducal Coronet and Arms of their late distinguished Possessor.

- 5328 Aulus Gellius, an exceedingly rare and valuable Edition; large Copy, neat, with brass Clasps, 10*l.* 10s., folio.

“ This

" This magnificent Work, says Clement, is an exact Copy of the Edition of 1489, [the Editio Princeps.] Jenson has surpassed the Roman Edition, in the beauty and skill with which the Greek Passages are printed, and by the Interpretations of the Editor, (Andrea of Aleria,) introduced into the Text. Gronovius doubted of the existence of this Edition, conceiving the second Roman one of 1472, to have been the Editio Princeps. A Copy of this truly beautiful and scarce Work, was in Dr. Mead's Collection, No. 1282." Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 1., p. 200.

" A magnificent Edition. A good Copy was purchased for the British Museum, at Dr. Askew's Sale, [about 50 years ago,] for £11. 10s., and at M. Paria's Sale, [many years since,] for £13. 13s."

Dr. Clarke, Bibl. Dict., Vol. 1., p. 143.

N. B. No Copy of this very rare Book has been met with in any Catalogue for Sale in this Country. The above was lately procured in the city of Naples.

5331 Audifredi Catalogus Historico-Criticus Romanorum Editionum, Sæculi XIV., &c.: fine Copy; h. b., very neat, 1l. 4s.

Romæ, 1783

" This is a Production of very great importance to the Bibliographer. Audifredi appears to have had access to the first Libraries in Italy, and his care, accuracy, and research, entitle him to a superiority over all his Predecessors: there are few that venture to question the fidelity of his descriptions. This Volume should be in every Bibliographical Collection. It is both scarce, and dear." Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 1.

5337 Andrews (Bp.) on the Ten Commandments; also, bound with it, 26 Sermons by the same learned Author; with the fine and scarce Portrait: folio, 15s.

Lond., 1642

5338 Another Copy, with very fine Impression of the rare Portrait by Payne; without the Sermons; calf, neat, 14s. Lond., 1650

- 5339 Æsopus Fabulae, Lat., cum suis Moralisationibus; fine Copy, of a curious, and very rare Edition, 4to., 1l. 10s.

Impressum 1487

The above scarce Edition seems to have been unknown to several Bibliographers. It is printed in long lines, the Comment being in a considerably smaller Type than the Text. The Volume consists in the whole of 88 pages. It is supposed to have been executed by Ger. Leeu. See Dr. Clarke's Bibl. Dict., Vol. 1., p. 22, who says, "A rare Book," and, "This is the first Latin Translation." But it is there dated 1488, instead of 1487. The present Copy was recently purchased in the city of Metz.

- 5342 Æneæ Silvii Epistolæ, in cardinalatu Editæ; also, bd. with it, Æneas Silvius Eloquentissimus, contra Thurcos, &c., &c.: very fine Copies, of Editions extremely rare; 3l. 13s. 6d.

Sine Ann., loc., vel Impressoris Nomine.

The above rare Impressions are supposed to have been printed by Ulric Zel.—They are executed in long lines, some 28 and some 29 in a full page. There are neither Signatures, Numerals, nor Catch-words, which, with the singularity of the Type, sufficiently prove the great Antiquity. The first seems to be described in Santander, tom. 2, p. 8., but with some slight Variations, as he there observes, there are 27 lines in a full page, and which this Copy has in some pages, but which are considered not to be full. As, however, Santander refers to no Copy, it is not improbable he had never seen the Work he describes. The Commencement, and the Imprint of the present Volume, are exactly as he states. The Second Work, bd. with the Epistles as above, appears to be described by Santander, t. 2., p. 15.; though he there also mentions 27 lines in a page; but the Commencement, Conclusion, Size, &c., seem to correspond exactly with his Account. He remarks, the first sold at La Valliere's Sale for 67 livres, and the latter, for 63 liv. 19s.

- 5347 Apocalypsis, cum Figuris; large folio, sewed, very rare, 3l. 13s. 6d. Impress. Nuremb., 1511

This

This very scarce and curious Work consists (with descriptive Letter-press,) of 16 very large and fine Wood Engravings, size about 16½ Inches by 11; the Whole by the celebrated ALBERT DUREN, with his Monogram, or private Mark, attached to each. These Plates are very striking, and evidence the high state of Perfection to which the Art of Wood Engraving, (then also in its infancy,) had been brought by this eminent man.

Of this very rare and interesting Work, a Copy has not been found in any Catalogue, for Sale, in this Country. The present was recently procured at Munich, the Capital of the Kingdom of Bavaria. The following is the commencement of Santander's just Critique:—

"Edition infiniment rare, et d' autant plus precieuse que c' est le premiere Ouverage, imprimé dans la Ville d' Augsburg, portant Date et Nom d' Imprimeur:" &c. Santander, t. 2., p. 235.

"EDITIO PRINCEPS. This is not only the earliest printed of the numberless Publications of Bonaventure in the XVth Century, but it is the FIRST PRODUCTION OF THE AUGSBURG PRESS, WITH A DATE, and of GUNTHER, or GINTHER ZAENER, the Printer. The possession of such a Volume is therefore indispensable to the Collector of rare Books."—&c.

Biblioth. Spenceriana, Vol. 3., p. 194.

"Editio merito rarissimis adnumeratur, cum Bibliographorum Principes eam ignoraunt." &c. Braun's Notit. Hist. Litt., Pt. 1., p. 124.

- George Buchanan was a Scotchman, born in 1506. He was one of the most learned Men of his Age. His Paraphrase of the Psalms, in Latin Verse, has always been reckoned an elegant Production. We owe this Piece to his having been imprisoned in Portugal. His Enemies having accused him of Impiety, he was seized vi et armis, and confined in a Convent, to teach him the Christian Religion! He was Preceptor to James VI., and died at Edinburgh in 1582.*

Florence, Printed by Nicolo Todescho, circa 1480

"PRIMA EDIZIONE. We are about to describe a Volume of equal Interest and Rarity.—Clement informs us that Raidelius, (who wrote an express Commentary upon the Edition of Ptolemy's Geography, noticed in Vol. 2., pp. 293—300)—knew nothing of the present Work, but from the brief mention of it by Maittaire in his Annal Typog., Vol. 1., p. 757; that he found it in no Catalogue, and that he never could procure any printed Copy of it: he was therefore obliged to content himself with a MS. Copy in the Library of Count Pertusati.—Foutanini, and his Annotator, Apostolo Zeno, have each mentioned this uncommon Book.—In the Florence Catalogue, there is a judicious and instructive Note upon this Edition: "the Work is there called 'exceedingly rare, and little known.'—De Mar published an express Treatise upon this Impression, at Nuremberg, 1790, 8vo."—&c. Bibliotheca Spenceriana, Vol. 4., pp. 64,-5,-8; from which the above is extracted, and where there is an extended, very interesting, and accurate Account. of this exceedingly rare Volume.

BOLOGNA, Printed by BALTHASAR AZOGUIDI, 1473

"Panzer appears to have been almost entirely indebted to Mittarelli, for his Description of this curious and elaborate Performance. 'Azoguidi, (says Mitarelli,) about two years before had introduced, or rather promoted (he was the first Printer at Bologna,) the Art of printing in his own Country." &c. Bibliotheca Spenceriana, Vol. 3., p. 188

"Edition, rare." &c. Brunet, t. 1., p. 179.

The above curious and scarce Book is a thick folio, consisting of 530 pages. It is supposed to be the second Work executed by the famous Azoguidi, the Printer of the Bologna Ovid, than which perhaps, there is not a scarcer Classical Volume in existence. The present Work was lately procured at Milan, in Italy.—It may be added, as rather interesting Bibliographical Information, that the second Ovid printed by the above famous Artist, Azoguidi, is executed it appears, on comparison, with precisely the same Types used for the present Work. This second Bologna Ovid, (of which a Copy is in this Catalogue, also lately procured in Italy,) is thought by the eminent Bibliographer, T. F. Dibdin, to be even rarer than the first.

Mediolani, Impress. CHRIST. VALDARFER, 1474

"Premiere edition," &c. Santand., t. 2., p. 293; who then alludes to the curious Latin Epigram, of 12 distichs, and remarks that this is followed by the Subscription, with Valdarfer's Name, from which it evidently appears Santander had never himself seen a Copy of this rare Book, for the Subscription is embodied in the Epigram, and does not form a distinct Article; he also styles the Work an 8vo. Vol., whereas it is a pretty good sized folio. It may be added, that Christ. Valdarfer is the celebrated Artist who printed the Famous Boccacio, for which the Marquis of Lansdown gave the enormous Sum of £2260, in 1812. The Boccacio is only 3 Years more ancient than the above Work. A copy of Chaimis does not appear in Earl Spencer's excellent and extensive Collection, described in the Bib. Spenc. The present copy was lately purchased at Ratishon in Germany, of which city Valdarfer himself was a Native.

Mentz., 1460

"Editio Princeps. It seems at least exceedingly probable that the Work of which we are treating, is one of the very few legitimate productions of the Press of GUTENBERG. It contains (according to Née de la Rochelle) a complete course of study; and obtains its Name Catholicon, from its universal applicability.

"The rarity, beauty, and intrinsic curiosity, of this extraordinary Publication, are sufficient to make it a desirable acquisition in the Cabinets of the Curious: we are astonished, on examining such a mass of close printing, executed upon paper of almost matchless manufacture, at the perseverance and skill of the Inventors of the Typographic Art!"

Dibdin's Bibl. Spenceriana, Vol. 3., p. 38.;—where there is an extended, and interesting Account, of this choice Production: it may be added, that a Duplicate of Earl Spencer's,—rather an indifferent Copy, and wanting also one Leaf,—in 1813, sold for £58, 16*s.*

—5773 CRASTONUS—seu CRESTONUS. LEXICON GRÆCO—LATINUM: very fine Copy, large folio, of a very rare and interesting Work: FIRST EDITION, elegantly bound in red Morocco extra, gilt leaves, and border of Gold, &c., 10l. 10s.
Mediolani, circa, 1480

“ EDITIO PRINCIPIS.—Notwithstanding the Criticism of Henry Stephens, we “ are to remember, that this is the FIRST GREEK AND LATIN LEXICON extant; and that the very circumstance of these explanations being ‘too frequently in the vernacular Tongue of the Author,’ will to a curious Philologist, rather enhance, than diminish the value of them.—Also Stephens’s own use of the labours of Craston, and the testimonies adduced by Saxius, “ in commendation of him, abundantly prove how precious this Volume “ ought to be considered in the Cabinets of the curious.”

Bibl. Spenc., Vol. 3., pp. 49—50.

“ Edition infiniment rare, et qu’on croit la première de cet ouvrage. Elle a “ été exécutée à Milan, où Bonus Accursius faisait imprimer ses ouvrages: “ on la croit de l’an 1480, ou environ.” Santander, tom. 2., p. 363.

See also Brunet, tom. 1., p. 472.; who judges this valuable Work to have been printed about 1480, if not even before 1478.

5774 The Myrrour of the World, or Chymage of the same; “ which Book I began first to translate the second day of “ Jaupuer, the pere of our Lord 1480, and finished the “ 8th day of March the same pere;” superbly bound in purple Morocco, super-extra, with gilt leaves, border of Gold, &c., and insides lined with watered Silk:—one of the rarest, and most interesting Works that ever issued from the Press of Caxton, the justly celebrated FIRST Printer in England: sec. Edit., folio, 35l. (The Duke of Roxburgh’s Copy in 1812, sold for no less than 351l. 15s.—See Roxburgh Cata., No. 1752.) Caxton me fieri fecit (circa) 1480

The two leaves of the Table, and a portion of two leaves in the interior of this exceedingly rare and interesting Work, are supplied by fac-simile MS., but in such a neat manner, that it is difficult perhaps for the nicest eye to distinguish them from the Print, and may be considered as an additional Curiosity to the Volume.

In T. F. Dibdin’s Edition of Ames, this Edition is said to consist of 84 leaves, which is presumed to be incorrect, as there are 87 leaves in this Copy. This is one of Caxton’s most rare Works, and is copiously described by Dibdin, with Fac-similes of the Engravings, which he observes are the first known Engravings with a date produced in England. See the Roxburgh Catalogue, p. 51, where the following short, but just note occurs; “The Myrrour of the “ World, folio, Caxton, 1480. This is the fairest and finest Specimen of “ Caxton’s printing that perhaps exists.” The Copy there sold, as mentioned above, produced the large Sum of 351l. 15s.

This very rare Volume may also be considered as one of the most interesting Works

Works, on account of the subject matter ever produced by Caxton's Press; and, in addition to its being a choice Specimen of the Press of our excellent First Printer, a great additional Interest is excited by this extraordinary Work, on account of its having the first known Specimens of ENGRAVING ever executed in this Country.

- 5775 DANTE. LA DIVINA COMMEDIA. COL COMMENTO DI CRISTOPHO RO LANDINO: folio, of very great Rarity; and this Copy has FOUR of the very curious and uncommon Copperplate Engravings, (Copies in general of this very rare and interesting Book when they occur, having only 2 Plates,) 18l. 18s. Firenze, per Nicholo di Lorenzo della Magna, 1481

" We are about to describe a Volume of very considerable interest, among the Collectors both of Books and of Prints. To begin, bibliographically, we may remark that this costly and magnificent Work presents us with the FIRST IMPRESSION of the COMMENTARY OF LANDINO, upon the Divina Commedia of Dante." After minutely describing this rare Work, the eminent Bibliographer, T. F. Dibdin, then adds, " Thus much for a faithful bibliographical Description of the magnificent Volume before us; a Description, which will not be deemed unnecessarily minute, by those who know the worth, or covet the possession, of so inestimable an Edition.—Till the time of Heinekin, it was conceived that there were only two Engravings belonging to the Work; which were attached to the first two Cantos of the Inferno. There are some Copies without a single Engraving, (although Audifreddi says, he never saw such a Copy.) De Bure speaks of only two; and the Copies in the Floncel and La Valliere Collections, had only the same number. The Copy in the Crevenna Collection had 3 Copperplates. Neither the Haym, nor the Goultard Collections contained a Copy; and the one in the Bibl. Boutourlin, p. 297, No. 988, is not described as containing a single Plate.—Heineken adds, that he has seen only two Plates struck off upon the Paper on which the Text is printed. Idée Générale, &c., p. 141-2. Haym is very superficial. He describes the Volume to be in large or royal Folio, with the Cuts of Botticelli; and that it is 'a very beautiful and rare Edition.' Bibliot. Ital. Vol. 2., p. 6, edit. 1803." &c. Bibl. Spenc., Vol. 4., pp. 108, 11, 12.

"In Headley's Criticism upon the purple Island it is remarked, that amid "such a profusion of Images, many are distinguished by such a boldness
"of outline, a majesty of manner, a brilliancy of colouring, a distinctness
"and propriety of attribute and air of life, that we look for in vain in modern Productions, and that rival, if not surpass, what we meet with of the "kind even in Spenser, from whom our Author caught his Inspiration.—It "is to his honour that Milton read and imitated him, as every attentive "reader of both the Poets must soon discover. He is eminently entitled to "a very high rank among our old English Classics."

- 5932 Another very good Copy, folio, a rare Edition, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*

Impressa Venetiis impens., Geo. Walsh, 1479

The above Work is a very curious ancient Chronicle, written by Werner Rolewinck. The Author was born at Laer, in the Diocese of Munster, but lived many years at Cologne, where he died in the year 1492, the victim of his charity to his Brethren of the Carthusian Order, in that city, infected with the Plague.

This was the Work from which Cartou chiefly borrowed his Materials to supply an eighth Book to Higden's Polychronicon.

- 5933 Gottfried's (Joh. Lud.) Archontologia Cosmica, in the original German, with 46 fine large Views, &c., of the principal Places in the World, capitally engraved by M. A. MERIAN: rare and curious, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* Franc., 1638

N. B. The Plates in this Work by the celebrated Engraver Matthew Merian, are particularly fine. Amongst them is a beautiful and very large View of London before the Fire; size about 2 feet 4 inches by 1 foot.

- 5934 Gottfridi (Joh. Lud.) Historische CHRONICA, in the original German; and illustrated with THREE HUNDRED and THIRTY-FOUR beautiful Copperplate Engravings, also by the celebrated MERIAN; very scarce and curious, 3*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*, large folio, neat, Franc., 1674

The above is a fine Copy of this very curious and scarce Book. It forms a large Vol., (sometimes, it is believed, bd. in 2 or 3,) of 1175 pages, exclusive of a copious Index. The numerous beautiful Engravings by the above famous Artist, which are very striking, and capital Impressions, contribute to render the Work of peculiar Interest.

- 5935 Gamble's (J., Esq., Author of Irish Sketches, &c.) View of Society and Manners in the North of Ireland; bds., new, publ. 12*s.*,—for 8*s.*, 8vo. Lond., 1819

"A very useful and important Compilation. Thomas Gale, D.D., and F. R. S., was born at Scruton, in Yorkshire, in 1636. He was educated at Cambridge, and became Professor of Greek in that University. He was afterwards chosen Head-Master of St. Paul's School, London, and wrote those elegant Inscriptions on the Monument erected in Memory of the Conflagration, in 1666. He was made Dean of York, and died there in 1703. He was a modest and amiable Man, and possessed an astonishing depth of Erudition." Dr. Clarke, Bibl. Dict., Vol. 3., p. 281.

- 6943 Gooze (Barnaby.)—The first syxe Bokes of the mooste Christian Poet, Marcellus Palingenius, called the Zodiake of Life; newly translated out of Lat. into Engl., by Barnabe Gooze; Black Letter, very neat in calf extra, 8vo., pp. 342, FIRST EDITION, of extreme Rarity, 3l. 13s. 6d.

Imprinted at London, by John Tisdale, for Rafe Newbury, 1561

After the Title, comes Gooze's Coat of Arms, in four Quarterings, then follow commendatory Verses, in Latin, by Gilbert Duke, and E. Dering, (a leaf, containing others by G. Chatterton, is wanting.) These are followed by some English Verses, and a Dedication "to the Right Honourable, and his singular good Master, Sir William Cecil, Knight, one of the most honourable Privy Counsell, Master of the Wards and Liveries, and Secretary to the Queene's Highnes, Barnaby Gooze wisheth long Life, with encrease of Honour." A Prose Epistle to the Reader, a Metrical Preface, and some Verses,— "The Boke to the Reader,"—conclude the Introductory Matter. Besides the leaf above mentioned, the last of the List of Poetical Words is wanting.

5959 Guillelmi (vel Guillerini) Parisiensis, Postilla in Evangelia, et Epistolas de Tempore, et de Sanctis: a particularly fine and large Copy of a very rare Edition, supposed to be the Editio Princeps, neat, in the ancient pannel Binding, 2l. 12s. 6d. Sine An., sed circ., 1470—4.

This fine Edition of a Work, that was in great request at the time of, and for years after, its Publication, is considered to have been executed by Johan. Kolhoff, de Cologne; a small Work, by this celebrated Printer, with his Name, and Date, (1474.) at full length, having been bound up with it. There are neither Numerals, nor Catch-words, but occasional Signatures occur. It is executed in long lines, of 40 to a full page, and consists of 336 pages in the whole. Vide Santander, tom. 2., p. 476.; who seems to have supposed the Edition of Augsburg, 1475, the first; but he appears to have been unacquainted with this early Edition, evidently by comparison of the Type, printed by Kolhoff.

- " EDITIO PRINCEPS. This is one of the most celebrated Publications of the Fifteenth Century, well known to Bibliographers.—This immortal Work, (for such a Production at such an early Period of Typography, well merits the appellation,) was composed and executed by the care and application of Demetrius of Crete, under the editorial investigation of Demetrius Chalcondyles.—For a particular Description of this famous Work, I refer the Reader to Maittaire, tom. 1., p. 493; De Bure, tom. 3., p. 204; and Audifreddi.—Harles remarks, that 'there are many good Readings in this Edition, which have been rashly neglected by subsequent Editors; and Ernesti has much improved his own Edition, by a careful Collection of them.'—Of this rare and splendid Edition, I have seen 4 Copies, but the most beautiful one was that in Lord Spencer's Collection. There is a Copy in the Bodleian Library, and in the Cracherode Collection. According to the Literary Journal for September, 1804, a Copy of this Editio Princeps was sold abroad for as many Francs as amounted to £230 sterling." Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 1., p. 372.

6161 OVIDII OPERA—viz: Fastorum Libri,—De Tristibus Libri V. —De Ponto Libri IV.—De Pulice,—De Philomena,—De Medicamie,—et De Nuce; the whole in 1 Volume folio,—a beautiful and very large Copy, in the original pannel binding, (some of the leaves having the rough edge,) an Edition of the most EXTREME RARITY, being the Second Bologna Edition by the celebrated Azoguidi,—14l. 14s. (Recently procured from a very extensive private Library in Italy.)

Bologna, impres. per B. Azoguidi, 1480.

It seems to be still uncertain how much of the Works of Ovid this exceedingly rare Edition consists of. No Library (it is believed) in the three Kingdoms possessing a perfect Set.—The Edition of 1471 is of great Rarity, but this is judged to be of a Rarity still greater.—T. F. Dibdin thus remarks in his Classics, see Vol. 2., Article Ovid, "This is the second Edition of Ovid's "Works by Azoguidi, and its Scarcity is extreme." And afterwards goes on to remark that it is supposed to be even rarer than the First.—It may be observed that the Date and Name do not occur in this Volume, the other Part of this Author containing those Particulars. But that it is the celebrated second Edit. of Ovid by Azoguidi, there is no doubt whatever. It corresponds accurately with every Description of it, and it may be added, is printed, it appears on Comparison, with precisely the same Type used by this celebrated Artist for the scarce Edit. of Bergomensis, in folio, 1473, a Copy of which, with the Name and Date at length, also occurs in this Catalogue, see No. 5621, and what is rather remarkable, both the Bergomens., and this Ovid, were procured from one and the same private Library, near Milan, in Italy.

6162 Ovidii Nasonis Libri Fastorum: fine Copy of an extremely rare

Impressus Mediolani, per ANT. ZARIOTTUS, 1477

" Cette Edition, dont les exemplaires sont fort rares, est d'une belle exécution." &c. Santander, t. 3., p. 223. (See also Panzer, t. 2., Art. 92.

N. B. The above very rare Edition is not in the extensive and choice Collection described in the Bibl. Spenc.

- 6163 Ovidii Epistolæ, Elegiarum sive Amorum Libri, de Arte Amandi, de Remedio Amoris, In Ibin, et hæc ois rēpōsiōes, &c.: very large and particularly fine Copy in the original pannel binding, folio, (first leaf very neat fac-simile MS.) of great Rarity, 6l. 6s. Parmæ, Corallus, 1477

" Few Editions of the fifteenth Century are held in greater Estimation, both for Rarity, and Beauty, than the present one of Corallus."

Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 2., p. 168.

The above Volume of Ovid does not contain the Date, the other part of the Works having the Imprint; but it is warranted, as stated, to be the Edit. of Corallus, 1477; and a finer and larger Copy is not, perhaps, in existence: It was lately purchased at Florence.

N. B. This Copy has all the Dedications, which are often wanting.

"This celebrated and magnificent Edition is well known in the History of Classical Literature. The first Volume is dedicated to Queen Elizabeth, the second to James 6th. of Scotland, when a Boy, and the 3rd. to the Republic at Berne. The Work has long been considered as a very valuable Acquisition to the Libraries of the learned, and for its Magnificence and Variety of critical Materials, must always be held in Estimation."

Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 2., p. 138.

6212 Quintiliani Institutiones Oratoriae, a Car. Rollin, fine Copy, neat in calf, 8vo., 10*s.* Lond., 1738

"To these

" To these you should add the History of your own Country. Rapin's History of England is, in the main, the most correct, and the most impartial History, I ever read. Its Facts are founded on the State Documents, which are deposited in our Public Archives, the only authentic Sources from which our true History can be derived. I can vouch for the general Accuracy of Rapin, having frequently travelled over the same Records."

Dr. Clarke's Letter to a Preacher, Edit. 4., p. 49.

6228 Another very good Copy, neat in vellum, 8vo., 4*s.*

Lug. Bat. Elzevir, 1629

Dr. Clarke, Bibl. Dict., Vol. 6. p. 68., speaks highly of this latter Edition by the Elzevirs: It has not, however, some additional matter which the one of 1680 possesses.

"John Selden was born in Sussex in 1584, and died in 1654. He was a profound Lawyer, and a very eminent Scholar, and enriched the Republic of Letters with many useful Works." Dr. Clarke.

6229 Sylvester's (Joshuah) Lachrymae Lachrymarum, or the Tears shed for the untimely Death of the incomparable Prince Panaretus; 4to., fine Copy of a most curious Work, Eng., Fr., and Ital.; very rare, 2*l.* 2*s.*

London, printed by Henry Lownes, 1612

This scarce Work consists of 32 pages; every one of which is surrounded with a broad mourning border, and there are also on every leaf but one, curious hieroglyphic figures, engraved on Wood. See Bibl. Ang. Poet., No. 946.—where this rare Book is charged £3. 13*s.* 6*d.*

6230 Strutt's (M. " R. Stephanus. Paris, fol. 1529—52. 4to., 1536—41. These are the Editions of R. Stephens, containing the Commentaries of Donatus, &c., &c.
" It seems that Bibliographers attach excessive Value to the Edition of " 1541." Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 2., p. 265.

- 6232 Tusser's Five hundred Points of Good Husbandry. As well for the Champion or open Country, as also for the Woodland; mixed, in every Month, with Housewifery, over and beside the Book of Housewifery.—Corrected, better ordered, and newly augmented to a fourth Part more: Black Letter, and the whole in Poetry: good and perfect Copy, calf, neat, 4to., rare, 20s. London, 1672

N. B. The present Copy of this curious and instructive Volume, has also at the End, the Author's Life, which, like the whole of the other parts of the Work, is written in Poetry; this is also the case even with the Introduction, Preface, &c.

- 6233 Tusser Redivivus:—Five hundred Points of Good Husbandry, a Work very necessary and useful for Gentlemen, as well as Farmers and Occupiers of Land, whether Wood Ground or Tillage and Pasture; in Verse and Prose; the Verse, Black Letter, 8vo., fine Copy, scarce and curious, 12s. 1710

- 6234 Trommii Concordantiae, Gr. Vers. LXX. Interp. LARGE PAPER, 2 Vols. bds., uncut, folio, 4l. 4s. (very rare on large Paper.) Amst., 1718

" This is an elaborate and invaluable Work. The order of the Greek Alphabet is here followed. The Greek Word is first given, to which are subjoined its different acceptations in Latin; then follow the different Hebrew Words, which are explained by this Greek Word in the Septuagint Version. At the End of the second Volume there are various useful Indexes. The Work is elegantly printed: the Greek Types are very fine, and the Hebrew (to which the Points are always added) beautiful. Some Copies are taken off on Large fine Paper, which are uncommonly splendid, and very scarce." Dr. Clarke, Bibl. Dict., v. 3, p. 42.

- 6235 Thevenot's Travels into the Levant, viz. into Turkey, Persia, and the East Indies, in 3 Parts complete; large Copy, with fine Portrait by Faithorne, and other Plates, scarce, folio, 1l. 8s. London, 1687

DARLINGTON,]

- 6249 Virgilii Opera, very fine Copy, elegant in morocco extra,
3l. 3s. Birmingham, Baskerville, 1757

"I have always considered this beautiful production as one of the most finished Specimens of Typography. It is said to be the earliest Publication of Baskerville, and all the care and attention of that ingenious Printer were devoted to render it unrivalled." Dibdin's Classics, v. 2.

- 6250 Virgilii Opera, cura Brunckii; new in bds., uncut, large Royal 8vo., a scarce and valuable Edition, 18s. Argent, 1785

"This Edition is not only a very beautiful Specimen of Typography, but presents the Text of the Poet compiled with great care and correctness, in which the ancient Orthography, and true reading are endeavoured to be restored." Dibdin's Classics, Vol. 2., p. 342.

- 6251 Virgilii Opera omnia, cum com. Servii: folio, an Edition of great Rarity, elegantly bound, 14l. 14s.

Venet., J. de RUBEUS, Mense Januario, 1475

"This Edition contains all the Opuscula, the Priapeia, Mappheus Veggius's Thirteenth Book of the Æneid, &c. It is a magnificent Edition, in Roman Characters, without folios, catch-words, registers, &c., and the large letters all left out, to be supplied by the Illuminator. As this Work was finished January, 1475, it must have been printed in 1474."

Dr. Clarke, Bibl. Dict., Vol. 6., p. 299.

- 6252 Virgilii Opera omnia: folio, also an extremely rare Edition, fine Copy, in the original pannel Binding, 15l. 15s.

This exceedingly rare Edition has no Comment. It is printed in long lines, 38 to a full page, and possesses the additional Works, as above, sometimes attributed to Virgil. This additional matter, in the present Copy, occupies 51 leaves. One leaf after this, supposed to have had the date, is wanting. It is a very finely printed Work, and is believed to have been executed in 1472 or 1473.—Recently procured from a celebrated and extensive private Library in Italy.

- 6253 Virgilii Opera; Comment, Landini, et Calderini, &c., with the additional Works, bd. with it, by some attributed to Virgil; a rare Edition, in the original pannel binding, folio, 3l. 13s. 6d. Nurnberg., Koberger, 1492

N. B. With the above, is also bound, Ovidii Epistolae, without date, or name of Printer, a scarce Edition, executed in long lines of 40 to a full page. See Dr. Clarke's Bibl. Dict., where the above scarce Edition of Virgil is noticed, but it seems to have escaped various of our Bibliographers.

- 6254 Valerius Maximus, cum Comment. Oliv. Arzignanensis et, Bad, Ascens. Adjectis xxiv., Exemplis ab Aldo prius Impressis, &c.: very fine Copy, neat in calf, folio, a scarce Edition, 1l. 10s. Parisiis, Johan Petit, circ. 1500

N. B. Specimens of Classics, printed by the celebrated Printer, Johan. Petit, are of very rare occurrence. This Work, as is usual with this eminent Artist, is executed in a very fine manner, with engraved title, capital letters, &c.

- 6255 Velleius Paterculus, very fine Copy, on LARGE PAPER, neat in calf, rare, 8vo., 15s. Oxon, 1711

"This is a correct and well published Edition, containing the valuable 'Annales Velleiana' of Dodwell." Dibdin's Classics, Vol 2., p. 308.

- 6291 AN EXCEEDINGLY FINE MANUSCRIPT, BEAUTIFULLY WRITTEN in the ORIGINAL HEBREW, of the WHOLE PENTATEUCH, or 5 Books of Moses. This choice MS. is a double Roll of about ONE HUNDRED AND TEN FEET in Length, by about 2 feet broad. It rolls up on 2 Rollers with fine and large Silver Handles or Ends, the Silver supposed to be about Sixty Ounces. This beautiful and highly interesting Article is also furnished with 2 Covers, that next the MS. being of exceedingly rich Gold Brocade, ornamented with beautiful Flowers wrought with Silk and Gold. This Cover is estimated at least to be worth 20 Guineas. The other Cover is of Silk, lined, to preserve the whole. Such an exceedingly fine MS. of this very interesting portion of the Holy Scriptures, very rarely occurs for Sale, and would no doubt be a Treasure to any Collection. The vellum on which it is written is of the finest and purest Colour. This choice Work, of which it is perhaps difficult to convey an adequate Idea, it is understood, would not be dear at £200. It is at present offered, with its various Appendages, at £126.
- 6292 VIRGILII ENEIDOS, complete; a folio Volume, and appears to be very ancient,—neatly written on Paper, with curious Illuminations, elegantly bound, and of great Rarity and Interest, 10*l.* 10*s.* (recently procured from a celebrated private Library, near Milan, in Italy.)
- 6293 HORATII POETICA EPISTOLÆ,—appears to be very ancient, and is neatly written on vellum: also bound with it in the same Volume, BOETHII DE CONSOLAT. PHILOSOPHIÆ,—also neatly written on vellum, both in excellent Preservation, with illuminated Capitals. It is a folio Volume, seeming to be in the original neat ancient binding. It is of great Rarity, and was recently purchased at Florence. 10*l.* 10*s.*
- 6294 OVIDII de Arte Amandi, et de Remedia Amoris:—small folio, finely written on vellum, with the date, 1461,—of great Rarity, and recently procured in Italy. It is elegantly bd. in blue morocco. 8*l.* 8*s.*
- 6295 PETRARCHÆ (Fr.) Bucolicum carmen in duodecim Eglogas:—a very ancient MS. neatly written on vellum, with most curious large illuminated Capitals, containing Portraits, very rare, and elegantly half bound in calf, folio, 5*l.* 5*s.*
- 6296 BIBLIA SACRA LATINA, vulgata editio:—a MS. on vellum, believed

- believed to be of great Antiquity, with numerous finely illuminated Capitals: a thick Volume, folio, wanting only 1st. leaf of Genesis, elegantly bound in Russia, extra, 10*l.* 10*s.*
- 6297 Aristotle and Plato, Part of the Works of, in Latin, finely written on vellum, with Illuminations: small folio, neatly bound, and believed to be very ancient, 3*l.* 3*s.*
- 6298 MISSALE ROMANUM, a most beautiful Volume, finely written on vellum, in Latin, and EVERY page surrounded with an exceedingly rich and beautiful border, admirably executed in Gold and Colours: The Volume has likewise 15 exceedingly fine large Paintings, also in Gold and Colours, and 34 smaller ones in the same rich and beautiful style. It is of the thick smallish 4to. size, and in the original Wood binding, covered with crimson velvet. 15*l.*
- This very fine and beautiful Work was recently procured abroad, and would, doubtless, be an Ornament to any Library, how magnificent or extensive soever.
- 6299 MISSALE ROMANUM, finely written on vellum, in the Flemish Language; with TWENTY-TWO very fine Miniatures the size of the page, capitally executed in Gold and Colours: 12mo., bd. in purple velvet, with gilt leaves, 6*l.* 6*s.*
- 6300 MISSALE ROMANUM, a very fine Volume, beautifully printed on vellum, with 11 large Engravings, and numerous small ones, with finely and very curiously engraved borders round EVERY PAGE: (Purchased abroad, in the City of Venice.) 8vo., 5*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.* Paris, KERVER, 1503
- 6301 MISSALE ROMANUM, finely written on vellum, with 6 large Miniatures in Gold and Colours, and many of the pages also illuminated in the same rich manner with borders; 4to., 4*l.* 14*s.* 6*d.*
- 6302 Petri Azary Novariensis Chronicum Rerum Gestarum in Lombardia ab anno 1250, usque ad annum 1364:—a Manuscript neatly written, and apparently prepared for the Press, with fine Copperplate Title, folio, a rare and interesting Work, 3*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*
- 6303 LUCRETII Opera Omnia:—finely written, and appears to be very ancient: folio, neat in vellum, and very rare, 5*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.*

[WORKS ON SALE, BY

These 2 Manuscripts are most beautifully written, and apparently prepared for the Press, and consist, the first Work of 453 pages, and the latter of 146.

- 6306 EXTENSIVE SERIES OF ORIGINAL LETTERS AND DOCUMENTS, (chiefly relating to Persons, Families, and Circumstances in the County of York,) collected by, and formerly the Property of, the celebrated Antiquarian, R. Thoresby, Author of Ducatus Leodiniensis, or the History and Antiquities of Leeds, &c. The whole Series of this, it is supposed, UNIQUE Collection, consists of no less than TWO HUNDRED AND FORTY-FOUR. They are arranged, with complete Index, Title, &c., in 2 Volumes, folio, and many of them contain Remarks, or explanatory Circumstances, in the hand-writing of their former distinguished, & learned Possessor. The whole for 15*l.*

N. B. In this remarkable Collection, are a number of Letters to and from Sir Wm. Lowther, several to Lord Fairfax, and to Col. Fairfax, Governor of Hull; others written by T. Faukes, Col. Mainwaring, Wm. Musgrave, Sheriff of York, in 1711, &c., &c. The Dates are generally from 1660, to 1719.

MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

- 6307 Penn's (Wm.) Treaty with the Indians, when he founded the Province of Pennsylvania, in North America: good impression, handsomely framed and glazed, scarce, 3*l.* 3*s.* (J. Hall.)
- 6308 Another of the same fine and very interesting Picture, an EXCELLENT PROOF, of great Rarity, (not framed.) 5*l.* 15*s.* 6*d.*
- 6309 The Death of General Wolf, engraved by the above famous Artist, Hall, framed and glazed, rare, 3*l.* 3*s.*
- 6310 Another, also very neatly framed and glazed, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.*
- N. B. The last 2 numbers are an exact Counterpart to the 2 foregoing, being of precisely the same size; indeed the Penn's Treaty, and the Death of the General, are considered to be a PAIR.
- 6311 Oil Painting.—A fine and very interesting Landscape, by Mompert, Size, about 3 ft. 5 in., by 3 ft. 3 in., not framed, 6*l.* 6*s.*

gant, and richly gilt Frame; Size of the Frame, 2 ft. 4 inches, by 1 ft. 11 inches, and number of the Portraits, TWENTY-SIX, 16*l*.

The last very beautiful and interesting Article, consists chiefly of the Portraits of the eminent Commanders, Generals, &c., who flourished during the late nearly twenty-five Years' War. Several other Portraits however are introduced, particularly those of various of the Royal Family.

6316 A very fine and large Foreign Cabinet, Size, about 4 ft., by 3 ft. 2 in., with folding Doors and Drawers, the whole filled with beautiful Foreign Shells, containing many fine and scarce Specimens, and consisting in the whole of about Four Hundred and Fifty Shells. 31*l*. 10*s*.

N. B. In addition to the Beauty and Interest of the above fine Collection of Shells, the Cabinet itself is a Piece of very curious and interesting Workmanship, and would perhaps be an Ornament to any Study or Library.

6317 Another very neat and interesting Foreign Cabinet, with folding Doors, Drawers, &c., Size, about 2 ft., by 1 ft. 6 in. It is also filled with Foreign Shells, containing many fine and interesting Specimens; in the whole there are about Two Hundred and Fifty Shells. 12*l*. 12*s*.

6318 Very curious African Work-Basket, the whole of the outside finely ornamented with the Shells called Cyprea Moneta, or the small Cowry Shells, used in various Parts of Africa, as Money. 18*s*.

6319 An excellent and large Mahogany Writing Desk, about Twenty Inches long, a beautiful piece of Workmanship. 2*l*. 2*s*.

6320 Another neat Mahogany Writing Desk, with Drawer, &c., sells at 1*l*. 8*s*.—for 18*s*.

6321 A very neat Mahogany Reading Stand, 9*s*.

6322 A large Mahogany Reading Stand, made to be used when a Person is standing, with 2 Places for Books, 18*s*.

6323 A Powerful and very large Diagonal Mirrour, with handsome Mahogany Stand, 2*l*. 12*s*. 6*d*.

6324 An excellent Electrical Machine, with large Cylinder, Brass Conductor, discharging Rodd, coated Leyden Jar, &c. 6*l*. 16*s*. 6*d*.

6325 Strong Insulated Stool, for Electrical Purposes, 18*s*.

6326 A powerful and large Electrical Battery, consisting of Nine Coated Leyden Jars, handsomely united by Brass Work, and the whole completely fitted in a neat and strong Oak Box, 3*l*. 13*s*. 6*d*.

6327 A Set of Five Spiral Tubes, for Electrical Purposes, on a Stand: sell at 1*l*. 16*s*.—for 1*l*. 4*s*.

6328 An excellent Achromatic Telescope, with draw, about 4 feet long, with handsome Brass Stand, 6*l*. 6*s*.

N. B. This Telescope is a very commodious and good one, either for Astronomical, or Terrestrial Objects.

- 6329 A very powerful and excellent Gregorian Reflecting Telescope, with Rack Work, Horizontal and Vertical Motion, &c. This noble and very complete Instrument is of Brass, about 4 ft. 6 in. long, and 7½ inches in diameter. It is furnished with a handsome Mahogany Case, and Stand, and is of Jones's best London make; cost 120*l*., and is nearly or quite as good as new, for 52*l*. 10*s*.
- 6330 A large Globular Glass Mirrour, about a foot in diameter, 1*l*. 1*s*.
- 6331 A large size Magic Lantern, 1*l*. 10*s*.
- 6332 Eight Sliders, suitable for the foregoing Instrument, 2*s*. 6*d*., each.
- 6333 Beautiful Portrait, recently published, of King George the 4th., fine impression, 14*s*.
- 6334 Ditto, an excellent PROOF, which are likely to become very scarce, 1*l*. 1*s*.
- “ Portrait of the King.—A new Impression has just been published, which is highly and justly esteemed as decidedly the most striking Likeness, and best executed, of any that has yet appeared. The Engraver, Mr. Lupton, has been most eminently successful on this Occasion, in conveying all the peculiar Marks, and exquisite Softness, of Mr. Wivell's celebrated Drawings.” Morning Post, January 16th., 1824.
- 6335 Fine Portrait of K. Charles the 1st., by Simon, Size, 16 in. by 12, glazed & framed, 12*s*. (a small corner of the glass broken.)
- 6336 Portrait of J. G. Lambton, M. P., an excellent Proof, sells at 1*l*. 1*s*., (and the Proofs are scarce,) for 16*s*.
- 6337 Large and very fine Anatomical Engraving of the whole Human Body, Size, about 2 ft. 8 in., by 1 ft. 11 in., sells, unframed at 2*l*. 2*s*., the present is neatly framed, varnished, and lined with Canvass, for 1*l*. 15*s*.
- The above is finely coloured after Nature, and gives an interesting View of the Principal Blood Vessels, Muscles, &c. of the Human Body; and by its Accuracy in colouring, may, with the two following, seem nearly to supersede the need of a real Subject, to give a knowledge of the various parts of the Human Frame.
- 6338 Fine Anatomical Engraving of a full-sized Arm, large as Life, and very finely and accurately coloured, with Descriptions; giving a particular Knowledge of the Blood Vessels, &c., neatly framed, varnished, and lined; Size, 2 ft. 2 in., by 1 ft. 10 in., for 20*s*.
- 6339 Fine Anatomical Engraving of the Human Head, with Descriptions; giving an accurate Knowledge of the Blood Vessels, &c., finely coloured after Nature, as the 2 foregoing; Size, about 1 ft. 9 in., by 1 ft. 3 in., neatly framed, varnished, and lined, 20*s*.
- 6340 Cary's Map of the County of Durham, finely engraved, sells at 4*s*.—for 3*s*. 6*d*.
- 6341 Cary's Maps of the several Quarters of the World, finely engraved, sell at 4*s*. each, for 3*s*. 6*d*.
- 6342 Cary's Map of England, finely engraved, 3*s*. 6*d*.

6346 Ditto by Ditto, Potiphar's Wife laying hold on Joseph's Cloak, 4s.

6847 Ditto by Ditto, Portrait, very striking, pointing at Death's Head, rare, 4s. 6d.

6848 Virgin and Child, very fine, and extremely rare, with Date, 1464, 18s.

N. B. The whole of the very early Engravings, comprising the last Six Articles, were procured at Ratisbon, in Germany.

6349 Beautiful and large Painting in Body Colours, of the great and awful Eruption of Mount Vesuvius, which took place the 22nd. of October, 1822; Size, about 2 feet 5 inches, by 1 foot 9 inches, 30s.

6350 Another Beautiful Painting, in the same fine Style, of the great Eruption of Vesuvius, which occurred the 26th. of February, 1822; Size, precisely the same as the foregoing, 30s.

N. B. It would be difficult, it is believed, to give a correct Idea of the fine Style of execution, and the awfully grand Effect the above Paintings possess. The Style is supposed to be little, if at all, known, in this Country, and is probably nearly peculiar to the City of NAPLES, where they, as well as the following, were very recently, personally selected, and procured from Artists of Celebrity.

6351 Large and very beautiful Painting in Body Colours, being a View of the City of Naples, with its fine Bay, and the Mountain, Vesuvius, in the Distance; Size as of the 2 foregoing, 2 ft. 5 in., by 1 ft. 9 in., 30s.

6352 Beautiful Painting in the same fine Style, Remains of the ancient Temple of Serapis at Pozzuoli, near Naples; Size, about 1 foot, 9 or 10 inches, by 1 foot 2 inches, 18s.

Pozzuoli, called formerly Pateoli, was visited by the Apostle Paul, who mentions this, Acts, c. xxviii.

6353 Beautiful View in the same Style, of the Royal Palace at Caserta, about 9 miles from Naples, with the surrounding charming Scenery; Size, same as the last, 18s.

N. B. ALL THE FOLLOWING highly interesting Paintings, as well as those above-mentioned, are of ANTIQUITIES and SCENERY near the City of NAPLES, and are all executed in the beautiful Style already alluded to; the Size varying from 1 to 2 or 3 inches larger than that of No. 6352; the Subject therefore of each, is only mentioned.

6354 The Tomb of Virgil and surrounding Scenery, 18s.

6855 The beautiful Isle of Procida, with the Bay of Naples, and the Mountain, Vesuvius, in the Distance, 18s.

- 6356 The Lake of Fusaro, (the Ancient Acherusia, so famous amongst the Greeks and Latins,) with surrounding Scenery, and the Mountain, Vesuvius, in the Distance, 18s.
- 6357 The Royal Palace of Portici, with surrounding Scenery, and View of the Mountain, 18s.
- 6358 View of Baia, (noted for Antiquities, and much visited on Account of its charming Situation, by the ancient Romans,) with the Bay of Naples, and surrounding Scenery, 18s.
- 6359 View of the beautiful Isle of Nisida, with the Bay, &c., 18s.
- 6360 Beautiful View of the Lake of Agnano, with the "Grotto del Cane," &c., 18s.
- 6361 Beautiful View of Naples, from Carmine, with the Bay, &c., 18s.
- 6362 "Immaculatella" with View of the great Eruption from Vesuvius, of Ashes, which took Place, October 25th., 1822: this View also takes in the fine Bay, &c., 18s.
- 6363 The ancient Temple of Paestum, with surrounding Scenery, 18s.
- 6364 A general View of the City of Naples, with the Bay, &c., 18s.
- 6365 Naples, the City of, "dal Ponte della Maddalena," with the Bay, &c., 18s.
- 6366 Pozzuoli, (formerly called Puteoli,) beautiful View of, with the surrounding Scenery, 18s.
- 6367 The great Aqueduct, which conveys Water to the Royal Palace of Caserta, 18s.
- 6368 Fine View of the "Solfatara," and surrounding Scenery, 18s.
- The Solfatara was called by the Ancients "Forum Vulcani." It is about 800 feet in Length, and 755 in Breadth. In the Time of Pliny and Strabo, it was supposed to be a Volcano not entirely extinguished. It is now called "la Solfatara," on account of the great quantity of Sulphur which issues from it, and with which the chief part of the Kingdom is supplied.
- 6369 Beautiful View of the Mole or Pier of Naples, with part of the City, and the Bay, Shipping, &c.; also including an excellent Prospect of the Mountain, Vesuvius, 18s.
- 6370 The quarter of the Tombs, or Sepulchres, at Pompeii, 18s.
- 6371 "La Basilica" or great Temple at Pompeii, a highly interesting View, 18s.
- 6372 "Quartiere o Foro" at Pompeii, 18s.

This beautiful Building, "The ancient Forum," is considered to be constructed precisely according to the rules of Vitruvius. It is of a rectangular form, about 100 paces in length, and 40 in breadth; having a Row of Octangular Columns, of the Doric Order, to the number of 22 on each Side, and 15 at each each End. In walking on the Balcony of the upper Rooms, the Traveller has a fine View of the spacious Square, beneath this Edifice, which doubtless, must have had a highly interesting appearance formerly, when crowded with People, and with Merchants of every description.—Nearly the whole of this ancient City, Pompeii, with its Palaces, Shops, and Temples, was recently traversed by the Proprietor of this Collection. And a Circumstance of higher Interest, than thus to pass along Streets, and Ways, where the Indentings of the Wheels of Carriages 1800 years since, are still quite plain,—and at this distance of Time, to enter Shops, Houses, and Temples, where many things are as entire and perfect as though finished less than a year ago,—can, perhaps, scarcely be conceived.

It may be interesting to give here a short Account of this remarkable City.

Pompeii was situate near the River Sarno, and not far from the Sea, on which it had a magnificent Harbour, according to Livy, and Florus, fit to receive the Fleet of P. Cornelius. The Convenience of its Situation had rendered it the Centre of all the commercial Negotiations of Nola, Nocera, and Acerra, towns of celebrity at that time. The extensive commerce which was thus introduced, combined with the fertility of its soil, rendered it, according to Tacitus and Seneca, one of the most populous Cities in Campania. Several illustrious Romans had Houses there. Cicero resided at Pompeii, as he himself mentions in several of his Letters to Marius.

In the 63rd. year of the Christian Era, according to Seneca, this City was considerably injured by an Earthquake; but this injury would have been repaired, had it not been for the dreadful Eruption of Vesuvius, in the year 79, which was the most awful and extraordinary, that has taken place for the Space of 18 Centuries. Pliny the younger was an eye witness of this Catastrophe, which he thus describes in his sixteenth Letter to Tacitus. He observes that he was at Misena with Pliny the elder, his Uncle, when the Sky became suddenly obscured, and the most noxious vapours were exhaled from the Earth; while the Lightning, flashing amidst the darkness, augmented the horror of the scene. Vesuvius at the same time emitted vast quantities of Bitumen, Sulphur, hot Stones, and other Substances, which extended as far as the Sea, and afterwards took a direction over the Towns of Pompeii, Herculaneum, and Stabia, which were totally overwhelmed. The Eruption was terrific;—the Volcano suddenly opened with a tremendous explosion, and a thick Volume of Smoke issued from it, rising in the form of a Cone. The sky was obscured during 3 days, and the Waters were observed to recede from the sea shore.—Pliny the Naturalist, who left Misena, where he had commanded the Roman Fleet, in order to obtain a nearer View of this grand and awful spectacle, fell a victim to his curiosity, in the 56th. year of his age, and in the 1st. of the reign of the Emperor Titus.—Such is, shortly, the account of this dreadful Visitation; than which, perhaps, a more awful circumstance has not occurred, since the Deluge, in the annals of the World.

- 6673 BREBIA, Gabrielis, Commentaria in PSALMOS: thick 4to.; perfect Copy of this very rare and interesting Work, and the Editio Princeps, 3l. 13s. 6d. (recently procured on the Continent.) Impressum Mediolani, 1477

"Premiere Edition, assez recherchée." &c. Santander, t. 2., p. 244.

- 6374 Another Copy of the same rare Work, very fine, and consisting of the whole of the Psalms, with the Commentary, but has not the Leaf with the Date, 3l. 3s. Mediolani, 1477

N. B. The two foregoing scarce Works, contain the whole of the Book of Psalms, as well as an extensive Commentary on the same.

- 6375 Descriptive Catalogue of an extensive and valuable Collection of Books, in various Languages, and almost every Branch of Science and Literature, now selling by J. Sams, Darlington; Part 1, 8vo., pp. 424, cost the Publisher, about 7s.—for 5s. 6d.

The above is interspersed with critical Remarks, and occasional Biographical Notices. Some Engravings on Wood by the celebrated Bewick, of Newcastle, are also introduced. It likewise contains, amongst numerous valuable and useful Works, many of very uncommon Occurrence, imported from various parts of the Continent.

- 6376 ANCIENT SCRIPTURE PRINTS, a Series of THIRTY-EIGHT; with descriptive Letter-Press, from Wickliffe's ancient Version, the whole in one Volume, royal Quarto, new in extra boards; rare, only 72 Copies having been struck off, 20s.

This interesting Series of ancient Scripture Engravings, are from a Set of original Blocks, procured at Nuremburgh, and are believed to be the Workmanship of the celebrated Albert Durer, or some of his very early disciples. The Blocks, which are highly curious, in fine Preservation, and bear evident marks of great Antiquity, are in the possession of the Proprietor of this Catalogue, and as it is intended to take no other impression from them, they would be disposed of, at a moderate valuation. They are of great interest, as well as Curiosity, in the early History of Engraving.

N. B. The above Series of Scripture Prints are taken off in Black, and the Descriptive Letter-Press in Red.

- 6377 Bible, (The Holy,) Brown's self-interpreting; 2 Volumes, quarto, 7th. Edition, published at 4l. 4s., new in boards, for 2l. 2s. Berwick, 1819

This Bible has been generally esteemed as one of the best, and most valuable, of those illustrated with Notes.

- 6378 Holy Bible, as above, the 2 Vols. neat in calf, 2l. 12s. 6d.

- 6379 Biblia Hebraica Hutteri. Large folio, in the original pannel binding, a scarce and valuable Edition, 3l. 13s. 6d.

Hamburg, 1587

"The Plan of this Work is both ingenious and useful. All the servile Letters are hollow and white, the rest solid and black, by which the radicals are at once seen. If any of the radical letters be wanting, it is added above the word, exactly over the place where it should be inserted. This lessens the labour of the Student, for he discovers at first View, the root for which he is to search his Lexicon." &c. Dr. Clarke, Vol. 1, p. 231.

- 6380 Bible, (The Holy,) the Old Testament, with Engravings, and numerous Notes and Illustrations, by R. Goadby, 2 large Volumes, folio, good Set, neat in rough calf, scarce, 2*l.* 12*s.* 6*d.* Sherborne, 1759
- 6381 Fox's (John) General Martyrology, FIRST EDITION, MS. Title, very rare.—This Work is a very thick folio Volume, and the present Copy is elegantly bound in Russia, and has the Tables, and the scarce large Portrait of J. Daye, the Printer. Imprinted at London, by John Daye, 1562—3.
- 6382 Bible, (The Holy,) a very rare Edition, and little known; title, MS., and the last 2 or 3 leaves, but a good sound Copy, with all the Calendars, Tables, &c., bd. in rough calf, neat, folio, 3*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.* Lond., 1574
- This rare Edition of the Holy Scriptures, is supposed to be the 3rd. in Folio, of what is called the Bishops' Bible. See it described in Lewis, p. 260.
